OREGON

DUCKS (13-4, 0-0)

BEAR NOTES: Looking to showcase its talent against a nationally-ranked opponent, Cal (13-3) – winners of eight straight and 12 of its last 13 games – hosts No. 8 Oregon (13-4) at Evans Diamond in the opening Pac-12 series. The Golden Bears have swept their last two opponents, taking all six games in series versus Kansas State and Chicago State. In between, Cal defeated San Francisco, 11-0, March 4 at home and Tuesday won, 13-6, at Pacific. Offensively, Cal is led by the impressive hitting of sophomore third baseman Lucas Erceg, senior first baseman Chris Paul and junior outfielder Brian Celsi. Erceg continues to pace Cal with a .450 average (27-for-60) with four doubles, three home runs and 15 RBI – hitting safely in all 16 games this season. Paul is batting .414 (24-for-58) with four doubles, a triple, three home runs and 14 RBI. Erceg went 4-for-4 with two solo home runs in a 10-3 win over UC Irvine Feb. 21 at Evans Diamond. He is second in the Pac-12 with his .450 average. Celsi is batting .357 (15-for-42) after a spectacular series versus Chicago State, going 8-for-11 (.727) with a double, two home runs and nine RBI – earning National Player of the Week honors. Last Friday night Celsi hit a grand slam, a three-run homer and had another RBI to tie a school record with eight RBI in a single game. He followed that effort by going 3-for-3 with a double and knocking in the game-winning RBI in a 5-4 Cal win. Another top hitter for Cal has been freshman catcher Brett Cumberland (.313), who has three home runs and 13 RBI. A switch hitter from Turlock, Cumberland had a huge game Feb. 16 at Stanford, hitting a grand slam in the first inning and a three-run homer in the fourth inning in an 11-1 win over the Cardinal. On the mound, the Bears' pitching staff has been outstanding, owning a 2.81 team ERA with 131 strikeouts in 144.0 innings. Sophomore right-hander Daulton Jefferies (3-1, 2.45 ERA) has 29 strikeouts in 25.2 innings, junior right-hander Ryan Mason (2-0, 3.13 ERA) has 16 strikeouts in 23.0 innings and senior closer Dylan Nelson (1-0, two saves, 0.00 ERA) has 14 strikeouts in 8.0 innings. Additionally, freshman right-hander Erik Martinez (1-0, one save) has 17 strikeouts in 13.0 innings, freshman right-hander Jeff Bain (2-0, 0.60 ERA) has 13 strikeouts in 15.0 innings and senior left-hander Chris Muse-Fisher (1-1, two saves, 3.48 ERA) has nine strikeouts in 10.1 innings. Freshman left-hander Matt Ladrech is 3-1 with a 2:05 ERA and pitched 7.0 innings in each of his wins at Stanford and versus Kansas State, and threw 8.0 innings versus Chicago State.

DAVID ESQUER HEAD COACH

Esquer, 49, is in his 16th season with a career record of 445-399-2 (.527). After his team was scheduled to be discontinued following the 2011 season, Esquer led the Bears to the program's first appearance at the College World Series since 1992, and on the eve of Cal's 7-3 CWS victory over Texas A&M June 21, 2011, was named the National Coach of the Year by the National College Baseball Writers Association. Esquer's award, which was voted on by the NCBWA Board of Directors, was selected from a list that included all Division I Conference Coaches of the Year and the coaches of the 16 NCAA Super Regional teams. The Bears' program was reinstated through fund-raising efforts and made its sixth all-time appearance in the CWS. Esquer led Cal out of the loser's bracket in the Houston Regional and defeated Dallas Baptist in the Super Regional to advance to Omaha. Cal entered the 2011 NCAA Tournament with an at-large bid out of the Pac-10. After a 6-4 loss to Baylor in the opening game, Esquer's team got past Alcorn State, 10-6, and No. 13 Rice, 6-3, to face Baylor for the regional championship. Cal forced the if-necessary game with an 8-0 shutout behind the strong pitching performance of freshman left-hander Kyle Porter (three hits, no runs, no walks and a career-high nine strikeouts). First baseman Devon Rodriguez earned Most Outstanding Player of the Houston Regional honors with a two-out, two-run single in the bottom of the ninth to lead Cal's dramatic come-from-behind 9-8 victory over Baylor to advance to the Super Regional against Dallas Baptist. The Bears, led by 2011 Pac-10 Player of the Year Tony Ren-da, swept Dallas Baptist, 7-0 and 6-2, in Santa Clara to advance to the CWS. It was the fourth appearance by Cal in the NCAA Tournament in Esquer's tenure, including three NCAA regionals in the last four years (the first time in school history). He was the 2001 Pac-10 Coach of the Year after the Bears went 34-25 and played in the Baton Rouge Regional (1-2). In 2008, Cal was 33-21-2 and competed in the Long Beach Regional, and in 2010 the Bears were 29-25 and played in the Norman, Okla. Regional (0-2). Sixty seven Bears have signed pro contracts under Esquer, including first round picks Brett Jackson (CF, Chicago Cubs, 31st overall) in 2009, David Cooper (1B, Toronto, 17th overall) in 2008, Brandon Morrow (RHP, Seattle, fifth overall) in 2006 and Conor Jackson (INF., Arizona, 19th overall) in 2003. Esquer came to Cal after serving as top assistant at Pepperdine (1996-99), and No. 2 assistant at Stanford (1991-96). A shortstop at Stanford (1984-87), he started on the 1987 College World Series championship team, earning All-Tournament honors. Esquer played professionally for four seasons with Baltimore, California and Milwaukee.

NOTING OREGON: Oregon, coached by George Horton (seventh year at UO, 237-148-1, .615), is 13-4 after sweeping St. John's (4-3 12 inn., 7-2, 8-6) last weekend in Eugene and falling to San Francisco, 4-1 and 8-2 Tuesday and Wednesday at home. Top hitters for the Ducks are junior second baseman Michael Tolman (.314, 0 HR, 13 RBI), junior outfielder Phil Craig-St. Louis (.304, 0 HR, 10 RBI) and junior third baseman Matt Eureste (.294, 1 HR, 12 RBI). Tentative rotation for Oregon is sophomore left-hander Cole Irvin (0-0, 0.60 ERA), freshman left-hander David Peterson (2-0, 2.96 ERA) and senior right-hander Jack Karraker (1-1, 1.50 ERA). Last season the Ducks finished 44-20 (18-12, 4th in Pac-12) and were 2-2 in the NCAA Regionals at Vanderbilt.

SERIES RECORD: Cal has a 22-23 all-time record versus Oregon, last winning two-of-three (L 5-1, W 6-0, W 5-3) May 22-24, 2014 at PK Park. In the last series at Evans Diamond, the Bears were swept (3-2, 10-4, 5-4) April 12-14, 2013 in Berkeley.

CAL FACTS

Cal won the inaugural College World Series title in 1947, defeating former President George H.W. Bush's Yale team, 8-7, in Kalamazoo, Michigan. The Bears' program began in 1892 and is now in its 122nd season. George Bush, Sr., sent a letter of congratulations to David Esquer following Cal's 2011 College World Series appearance.

The Golden Bears have had two players go on to become league MVPs in professional baseball - Jackie Jensen was the American League MVP in 1958 and Jeff Kent was the National League MVP in 2001.

Cal is one of only 21 schools to win NCAA Baseball titles and one of 14 schools with more than one national title (1947, 1957). The Bears have competed in six CWS (1947, 1957, 1980, 1988, 1992, 2011).

Geoff Blum, Cal's starting shortstop as a freshman on the Bears' 1992 College World Series team, had a game-winning homer for the Chicago White Sox in the 2005 Major League World Series.

Cal has three coaches in the ABCA Hall of Fame - Clint Evans (1930-54, led the Bears to the first CWS title in 1947); George Wolfman (1955-73, led Cal to the 1957 CWS title); and Bob Milano (1978-99, led the Bears to three CWS appearances (1980, 1988, 1992) , including a third-place finish in 1980.

MASON'S MASTERY

Junior right-hander Ryan Mason has had a stellar career for the Bears, owning a 14-4 mark with a 3.37 ERA, thriving as both a starter and a reliever. Mason was outstanding last year, going 7-1 with a 3.04 ERA, including non-league victories over Texas and Baylor, Pac-12 wins over Washington and Arizona at home, and conference victories over Stanford, USC and Oregon on the road. He threw 7.0 innings in the win over Washington, 8.0 innings in the victory at Stanford and had his first collegiate complete game in the win at USC. Mason then wrapped up the 2014 season by throwing 6.0 innings with one walk and five strikeouts in a 5-3 at No. 16 Oregon. His 7-1 mark in 2014 was the fifth-best single season winning percentage (.875) in school history. As a freshman in 2013, Mason went from being the Bear's closer to the team's No. 1 starter, finishing 5-3 with 3.76 ERA and 43 strikeouts in 69.1 innings. He won the first collegiate game he pitched (Feb. 8, 2013), striking out four Michigan batters in 1.2 innings in relief, and won his first collegiate start, March 8, 2013 versus Fresno State with seven strikeouts and only one walk in 5.0 innings.

JEFFERIES' GEMS

Cal's sophomore right-hander Daulton Jefferies had a spectacular start to his college career last season. Tabbed as the Bears' opening day starter as a true freshman (the first time a true freshman has been Cal's opening day starter since David Esquer became coach in 2000), Jefferies proceeded to shut-out Texas (7-0, 6.0 innings, six hits, one walk, four strikeouts) in his college debut at Evans Diamond and was named Pac-12 Pitcher of the Week. He followed that performance with a 3-0 shutout of East Tennessee State in Auburn, Ala., allowing only two hits with eight strikeouts in 7.0 innings. Unfortunately, Jefferies lost his next eight decisions with several close games, including a 2-1 loss at USC when he threw a complete game (8.0 innings with six hits, no walks and six strikeouts). Jefferies finished his first year with a 3.45 ERA and led the team in innings pitched (91.1).

BETTER THAN EVER EVANS DIAMOND

Evans Diamond, which has served as the home of Cal baseball since 1933, received a major upgrade with the installation of a new lighting system and scoreboard in 2013. Eight 90-foot light poles were erected around the field that now support nighttime television broadcasts, team practice and training. A modern electronic scoreboard, measuring 38 feet wide by 31 feet high, was also installed in left-center field. The new scoreboard offers scoring, game information, as well as fixed advertising and a full color video board measuring 24 feet wide by 14 feet high. Entering the 2013 season, Cal was the only Pac-12 school without permanent lighting at its baseball facility. With the Pac-12 Networks showing six Cal home games this season, the ability to play night games gives Cal maximum opportunity to be televised by the Networks. In addition, the upgrades will allow the Bears to be eligible to host NCAA Regional contests at Evans. The project was funded by a combination of donations and increased ticket and sponsorship revenue as a result of the upgrade. The first-ever night-time competition at Evans Diamond was March 28 for the Bears' 2013 Pac-12 opener against USC in front of a record crowd of 2,133 fans. The new scoreboard was first unveiled May 10, 2013 versus Arizona State. The project was designed by Brereton Architects of San Francisco and constructed under the direction of Overaa Construction of Richmond.

KNAPP'S GOLDEN BEAR HERITAGE

Cal sophomore center fielder Aaron Knapp comes from some impressive Bear heritage. His father, Mike, was a standout catcher at Cal from 1985-86 and his brother, Andrew, caught and played outfield for the Bears from 2011-13. Andrew went on to be a second round draft pick of the Philadelphia Phillies following the 2013 season after batting a team-leading .350 with a team-best 16 doubles, eight home runs and 41 RBI - earning All-America and All-Pac-12 honors. Aaron became Cal's starting center fielder early last season as a true freshman and had some outstanding games, batting .235 with three doubles, a triple, a home run and 13 RBI in 43 games, and was second on the team with eight stolen bases. His home run was a three-run inside then park homer at Cal Poly, and he was 14-for-39 (.359) with runners in scoring position.

QUICK BEAR HITS

Cal has outscored its opponents 20 to 10 in the first inning this season and 23 to 8 in the fourth inning...junior outfielder Devin Pearson was ninth in the Pac-12 in 2014 with 11 stolen bases...in D1Baseball.com's Pac-12 preview Brett Cumberland is slated to be one of the conference's impact freshmen and has already proven it - his seven RBI at Stanford is Cal's second-most single-game RBI total...in 2014, 10 different Bears were on Major League rosters, including right-hander Tyson Ross, who was a National League All-Star for the Padres...27 Bears are currently in professional baseball...the Bears feature two coaches who won national championships as collegians - David Esquer won a 1987 NCAA title as shortstop at Stanford, and pitching coach Mike Neu was a standout reliever and got the save when Miami won the 1999 national crown.

CAL AMONG PAC-12 LEADERS

As a team, Cal is third in the Pac-12 with a .318 team batting average and fourth with a 2.81 team ERA. The Bears are also first in opponent batting average (.204), hits allowed (105), and second in home runs hit (16). Individually, Erceg is second in batting average (.450); fifth on-base percentage (.500), hits (40) and home runs (3); sixth in slugging percentage (.667), and seventh in total bases (40). Paul is fifth in home runs (3) and slugging percentage (.672), eighth in total bases (39); and ninth in batting average (.414) and runs (16). Cumberland is second in walks (14), fifth in home runs (3) and ninth in on-base percentage (.493). On the mound, Jefferies is fourth in strikeouts (29) and seventh in innings pitched (25.2). Ladrech is fifth in innings pitched (26.1), Martinez is fifth in strikeouts looking (8), Muse-Fisher and Nelson are sixth in saves (2).

BEARS IN THE BIG LEAGUES

Since David Esquer became the Cal coach in 2000, 67 Bears have signed professional contracts, including four first round selections - right-hander Brandon Morrow, who in 2006 became the highest draft pick in school history when he was the fifth pick overall by the Seattle Mariners; center fielder Jackson, a first-round pick of the Chicago Cubs in 2009; first baseman David Cooper, a first-round pick of the Toronto Blue Jays in 2008; and third baseman Conor Jackson, who in 2003 was drafted in the first round by the Arizona Diamondbacks. During last summer, 10 different Bears were on Major League rosters, including right-hander Tyson Ross, who was a National League All-Star for the San Diego Padres. Another former Cal player who has excelled in the Major Leagues is Allen Craig. Craig won a World Series with the St. Louis Cardinals in 2011 and was a Major League All-Star in 2013.

CELSI'S SERIES

As a result of his spectacular play last weekend in the sweep of Chicago State, junior outfielder Brian Celsi was named National Player of the Week by both Collegiate Baseball and NCAA.com. Celsi had a phenomenal series versus Chicago State, going 8-for-11 (.727) with a double, two home runs and nine RBI. Last Friday night he hit a grand slam, a three-run homer and had another RBI to tie a school record with eight RBI in a single game. On Saturday, he was 3-for-3 with a double and knocked in the game-winning RBI in the eighth inning for a 5-4 Cal win. On Sunday, Celsi was 2-for-3 with two stolen bases in an 8-1 Bear victory. Now batting .357 (15-for-42) with two doubles, two home runs and 14 RBI, Celsi has etched his name in the Cal record books. He is tied with Dan McInerney (whose son, Robbie, is an infielder with the Bears), Brian Horwitz and Brett Jackson as players who have driven in eight runs in a game.

PAUL'S PRODUCTION

Senior first baseman Chris Paul is having an outstanding senior campaign as he is among the team leaders in almost every offensive category. Paul is currently tied for the team lead with three home runs and is second with a .414 average (24-for-58) and 14 RBI. He is also batting .400 (8-for-20) with runners in scoring position and is tied for the team lead with nine multiple hit games and four multiple RBI games. Paul has reached base in all 16 games this season as well. Some top highlights for the Cal veteran include starting the year with four straight two-hit games, hitting a double and triple in the 11-1 win over Stanford Feb. 16, and hitting a three-run homer March 4 versus San Francisco. Paul, who has been a Northwoods League All-Star the past two summers, has had a solid career for the Bears. As a freshman he had a game-winning two-run single at Nebraska, and as a sophomore he had a grand slam and a three-run homer versus USC; and was eighth in the Pac-12 with eight home runs.

NEU'S PITCHING STAFF THRIVES

Cal pitching coach Mike Neu's staff has been stellar so far this season, owning a 2.81 team ERA (fourth in the Pac-12) and an impressive 131 strikeouts in 144.0 innings. The Bears also lead the conference with an opponent batting average of .204. Highlight for the Cal pitchers include senior right-hander Dylan Nelson (1-0, two saves) not giving up an earned run and striking out 14 batters in 8.0 innings. Freshman right-hander Jeff Bain is 2-0 with a 0.60 ERA and has 13 strikeouts in 15.0 innings, while fellow freshman right-hander Erik Martinez is 1-0 with a 1.38 ERA and a save. Senior left-hander Chris Muse-Fisher is 1-1 with a 3.48 ERA and two saves, and picked up the win Tuesday at Pacific, pitching 4.0 innings. The Bears' starters have also been impressive with sophomore Daulton Jefferies (2:45 ERA, 29 strikeouts in 25.2 innings) and freshman left-hander Matt Ladrech (2.05 ERA, team-leading 26.1 innings pitched) each owning 3-1 records, and junior right-hander Ryan Mason is 2-0 with a 3.13 ERA and 16 strikeouts in 23.0 innings. Neu, a former standout at the University of Miami and a Major Leaguer with the Oakland A's, was hired as Cal's pitching coach in August of 2011. He was the head coach at Diablo Valley College from 2009-11, leading his team to an 87-41 mark (.680) with two Big 8 Conference titles. Neu's pro baseball career included playing in the Los Angeles Dodgers, Florida Marlins, Oakland Athletics and Cincinnati Reds organizations. He was called up to the Major Leagues with the A's on April 9, 2003 and posted a 3.64 ERA in 32.0 relief appearances (42.0 innings) that season. At Miami, Neu had a stellar 1999 campaign and helped the Hurricanes capture the College World Series title with a 6-5 victory over Florida State in the championship game. He finished the year 3-1 with a 2.94 ERA and tallied 110 strikeouts in 67.0 innings, earning Collegiate Baseball All-America honors. Neu led the nation in strikeouts per nine innings (14.8) and was selected to the All-CWS team with three saves and appearances in all four of Miami's games. He joins David Esquer (starting shortstop on Stanford's 1987 NCAA champions) as members of the Cal coaching staff who have won national titles.

CUMBERLAND'S CONTRIBUTIONS

In one of the most impressive performances by a freshman, catcher Brett Cumberland had an unbelievable game at Stanford on Feb. 16. Cumberland's first collegiate home run was a grand slam in the first inning versus the Cardinal, and then he hit a three-run homer in the fourth inning to help propel the Bears to a 11-1 win. Cumberland teamed-up with fellow Cal freshman Matt Ladrech, who threw 7.0 innings with three hits, no runs, two walks and four strikeouts in his college debut.

ERCEG'S EXCELLENCE

A key to the Bears' success this season has been the offensive production of sophomore third baseman/pitcher Lucas Erceg, who is second in the Pac-12 with a .450 average and has hit safely in all 16 games. Erceg is also among the conference leaders in on-base percentage (.500, fifth), hits (27, fifth), bhome runs (3, fifth), and slugging percentage (.667, sixth). He now has an 18-game hitting streak carrying over from last season when he got hits in the last two Oregon games to end the 2014 season.

A single game highlight for Erceg was Feb. 21 in game one against UC Irvine when he was 4-for-4 with a pair of solo home runs. He is also an excellent reliever, striking out five batters in 2.2 innings.
