MEET 12

NO. 15 BOISE STATE AT NCAA REGIONALS
SATURDAY, APRIL 4 // 7 P.M. MT // HAAS ARENA

LIVE STREAM

LIVE RESULTS

REGIONAL CENTRAL

MEET INFO

The 15th-ranked Boise State gymnastics team will head to Berkeley, Calif., to compete in the 2015 NCAA Gymnastics Regionals. The Broncos secured the region's third seed, and will compete against 1-seed Utah, 2-seed Georgia, California, Utah State and BYU.

FAMILIAR FOES

Boise State has faced every team in the Berkeley regional this year except Utah. Including the conference championships, the Broncos are 7-1 against BYU, California, Utah and Utah State. Boise State's only loss came in the season opener to Utah.

ROTATION RULES

The Blue and Orange will start competition on beam for the second-straight meet. The Broncos will start on beam, and then rotate to bye, floor, vault, bye, bars. Boise State has had success with this rotation in the past, winning conference titles in the WAC (2013) and this year's MRGC crown. Rotating with Boise State will be San José State's Maddie Herr.

THRICE IS NICE

Senior co-captain Ciera Perkins picked up her second and third All-America honors of her career. The NACGC/W released its list of regular season

All-Americans, and Perkins collected second-team honors on vault and uneven bars. She earned her first All-America honor after finishing eighth on floor exercise at last year's NCAA Nationals. Perkins joins the ranks of former Bronco Julie Wagner with three All-America honors.

THE ASCENSION

The Broncos have been ranked as high as 12th this season. The Broncos rank fourth in the West Region, trailing UCLA, Oregon State and Stanford.

Boise State has put together four-straight meets of earning scores of 49.0+ on three out of the four events.

As of Feb. 22., women's gymnastics switched to Regional Qualifying Score (RQS) to determine qualification for regional competition. A team's RQS is based on a team's and all-around competitor's six best regular-season meet scores, with three being away meets. The high score is eliminated and then the remaining five scores are averaged.

RAISING THE BAR...WITH HORSEPOWER

Boise State posted its highest conference championship bars score in history with a 49.400, en route to taking the conference title on the final rotation. The score elevated the team to tie for eighth best in the nation, knotted with regional foe Georgia. The Broncos and the GymDogs maintain a 49.320 RQS on the apparatus. The Broncos slaughtered the team bars record on senior night, with every scoring gymnast recording a season or career high. The Broncos scored a 49.575, the fourth-highest bars score in the nation in 2015. Senior co-captain Ciera Perkins recorded the highest individual score for a Bronco in team history, marking a 9.975.

CONFERENCE QUEENS

Krystine Jacobsen (uneven bars) and Ciera Perkins (vault) captured MRGC conference titles on March 21. Jacobsen earned a consensus 9.95 on the uneven bars, while Perkins recorded her third-consecutive score of 9.90.

VAULT VICTORS

Bronco gymnasts collectively have earned 12 individual wins this season in vault, led by Ciera Perkins' seven. Perkins has recorded eight scores of 9.90 or better this season, with a perfect 10.0 at Utah State. Perkins' 9.920 RQS ranks 14th in the nation.

Kelsey Morris and Ann Stockwell posted a pair of 9.925's on the apparatus against BYU. Morris scored her second 9.925 this season, with her first also coming against BYU. Stockwell has scored a 9.80 or higher in every meet.

10.0 CLUB

Senior captain Ciera Perkins vaulted into the Bronco record books on January 30th. The Las Vegas, Nev., native anchored the vault lineup. She recorded Boise State's first 10.0 in 19 years with her Yurchenko full, when Perkins was still a toddler. She is the fourth 'perfect' gymnast in school history, and third on vault: (Julie Wagner, 1993; Leslie Mott, 1996). Perkins now ranks tied for 13th nationally on the event, averaging a 9.908 through three meets. She's posted only the ninth perfect vault score this season.

EARNING HONORS

Junior co-captain Maddie Krentz earned the latest weekly honor for the Broncos. Krentz was named co-specialist of the week after her 9.90 on vault at Southern Utah on March 13.

Rookie Ann Stockwell was named MRGC Co-Specialist of the Week on March 1 after her 9.925 vault against BYU on Feb. 27. Stockwell's win marks the first time a Bronco freshman has earned the honor.

Boise State has raked in weekly honors for eight-straight weeks, with Morris and Perkins sweeping accolades in week six.

With their three wins this season, Morris and Perkins are no longer eligible to earn weekly conference honors.

The Broncos swept MRGC accolades for competitions Feb. 9-11. Senior captain Kelsey Morris earned MRGC Gymnast of the Week for the second-straight week, while Perkins earned Specialist of the Week honors.

Kelsey Morris was tapped as the MRGC Co-Gymnast of the Week with her shares of all around and vault titles at the BYU tri-meet. Morris set her career-best score on vault, marking a 9.925 on the apparatus.

After Perkins' 10.0 performance on vault in the tri-meet versus Utah State and UC Davis, she was honored as the MRGC Specialist of the Week honors for the second-straight week. Perkins was previously awarded conference honors for her career-tying best 9.925 vault against Southern Utah (Jan. 26). Junior captain Maddie Krentz earned the accolade after her own career-best 9.925 vault in the season opener.

SHINE BRIGHT

Krystine Jacobsen boasts a pair of national top 50 rankings this week. The junior comes in tied at 26th overall on uneven bars, averaging a 9.885. Jacobsen improved her beam RQS to 9.870 and ranks T35th nationally.

GOOD TIMES

After Perkins' uneven bars win against Alaska-Anchorage on senior night, the senior has five wins this season. She recorded five wins on the apparatus last season and both seasons land in the top-10 of single-season Bronco performances. Perkins joins the ranks of Lindsay Ward (2005-06), Hannah Redmon (2010-11) and Julie Wagner (1993-94) to have posted back-to-back seasons with at least four bars wins.

Morris tabbed eight all-around wins last season, and has five to her name in 2015. She joins Julie Wagner (1993-94) as the only Broncos to post back-to-back seasons to rank in the top-10 in Boise State history.

IN PURSUIT

In their final season for the Broncos, senior duo Morris and Perkins are in pursuit of Boise State records. Perkins set the school record for floor wins in a single-season in 2014 with nine wins. Currently she ranks sixth all-time in career floor wins (10) and will break into the top five with one more win. Perkins' 14th-career uneven bars win on March 6th moved her tied for second in the Bronco record books. She also now has 12 career vault wins.

Morris has 13 career event wins at all around and marked her career-best score (39.500) at last year's MRGC championships. That score ranks 11th all-time in Bronco history. Morris' 13 wins in the all-around gives her sole possession of third place in Boise State history. She needs two more to tie Amy Glass' mark for second place.

STUDY HABITS

The women's gymnastics team posted an all-time semester record GPA of 3.75, the highest mark ever by a Bronco team for one semester. The previous record was 3.68 set by the women's golf team in the 2014 spring semester.

The Fall 2014 semester saw six Broncos earn straight-A's: Brooke Graham, Lianne Josbacher, Molly McFarland, Ann Stockwell, Paige Urquhart and Marissa Wossner.

Stockwell, Urquhart and Wossner were named to the Dean's List Highest Honors, while Mary Frances Bir, Alex Esmerian, Brooke Graham and Lianne Josbacher made the Dean's List High Honors.

MAKING HISTORY

Then-junior Ciera Perkins became the first Bronco gymnast to earn All-America honors on floor exercise in 2014. The Las Vegas native scored a 9.90 and tied for an eighth-place finish, good for second team All-America honors. Fellow teammate Kelsey Morris scored a 9.850 on uneven bars at NCAA Championships, the best mark in school history on the national stage.

RESTOCKED & RELOADED

Perkins and Diana Mejia earned top conference honors after their standout seasons. Perkins was named the 2014 MRGC gymnast of the year, while Mejia was named MRGC Co-Freshman of the Year.

The Blue and Orange return two conference champions: Perkins (UB, FX) and Morris (UB, AA), four MRGC First Team recipients: Perkins (V, UB, FX); Morris (UB, FX, AA); Krystine Jacobsen (UB); and Mejia (UB). Morris also earned MRGC second-team honors on balance beam.
