Cal Head Coach Mike Teti

Mike Teti, formerly the head coach of the 2008 U.S. men's Olympic rowing team, begins his second season at Cal after he became the head coach in July 2008.

A longtime fixture on the national level, Teti served on the U.S. coaching staff at the World Championships and Olympic Games regularly since 1996. He coached the U.S. men's eight to nine world championship medals during that time period including four gold medals in 1997, 1998, 1999 and 2005.

Teti started his coaching career in 1982 at Temple University, leading his crews to six titles in seven years at the Dad Vail Regatta in Philadelphia.

2009 Season Recap

Under first-year head coach Mike Teti, Cal captured the Pac-10 team and varsity 8 championships on May 17 at Lake Natoma near Sacramento. Nearly three weeks later, the Bears returned to the course for the 107th IRA Regatta. This time, Cal's varsity 8 put in a strong effort and claimed second place behind Washington. The varsity 4 won the IRA crown, while the second varsity 8 took third and the freshman 8 finished fourth. James Long-Lerno, a transfer from Orange Coast College, was named Pac-10 Newcomer of the Year, while Nareg Guregian, Nick Lucey, Jan Tize and Nikola Zunic were voted All-Pac-10.

This Week

The second-ranked California men's crew returns to Redwood Shores this week, renewing the longtime rivalry with Pac-10 foe No. 1 Washington on Saturday, April 24. In a battle of the current two top teams in the nation, the Golden Bears and the Huskies will be competing for the Schoch Cup, which is awarded to the winner of the annual varsity 8+ race. Washington has been victorious the past three years. Races begin at 9 a.m. Saturday morning.

Bears Sweep Stanford Invitational

Competing for the first time since March, Cal had a perfect weekend at the Stanford Invitational at Redwood Shores last weekend. The Golden Bears won all races they competed in over the two-day event. The varsity 8+ picked up three victories over the weekend. The closest win came against Wisconsin, with the Bears topping the Badgers by just three seconds, 5:39.5-5:42.3. The most convincing win was against Michigan. Cal cruised past the Wolverines, 5:51.9, 2-6:10.2. The second varsity 8+ beat Wisconsin by five seconds, 5:43.4-5:48.0, and Oregon State, 6:00.3-6:14.5. The Bears also posted a commanding victory over Michigan, 5:56.4-6:20.5.

Last Year Against Washington

Cal's top-ranked varsity 8+ lost to Washington's fourth-ranked varsity 8+, 5:48.56-5:50.86, in the race for the Schoch Cup. The host Huskies won all four races against the Bears.

A Look at the Cal-Washington Rivalry

Since 1903, Washington leads the all-time series in the Schoch Cup, 67-30-1, and the Huskies have won the last three years in a row. Since 1999, the Bears have won six times (1999, 2000, 01, 03, 05, 06).

Teti Inducted Into Hall of Fame

Head Coach Mike Teti and assistant coach Wyatt Allen were inducted into the National Rowing Hall of Fame at Mystic Seaport, Conn. on March 20, 2010. Teti was honored as the coach of the gold medal-winning men's eight at the 2004 Athens Olympic Games and Allen was honored as one of the oarsmen in that gold medal-winning eight. Teti became the first person to be inducted into the National Rowing Hall of Fame as both an athlete and a coach. Also inducted into the hall of fame was alumnus Peter Cipollone, who rowed on the gold-medal winning men's eight with Allen.
