

2009 IN REVIEW

Tyson Alualu earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors in 2009 and was selected 10th overall by Jacksonville in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft.

SEASON IN REVIEW

Cal equaled a school record with its eighth straight winning season and extended another school mark by making its seventh consecutive bowl appearances in 2009 during a season that included many highlights and a few disappointments.

Before the season even started, Cal was widely viewed by experts to be the Pac-10 team with the best chance at ending USC's seven-year run on top of the league standings. The Golden Bears were picked to finish second in most preseason Pac-10 polls and were ranked as high as No. 12 nationally.

Cal started the season strong with three consecutive victories to move up to No. 6 in the country.

An inspired Bears squad avenged a surprising 2008 loss at Maryland by blasting the Terps, 52-13, in the season-opener at home. Heisman Trophy candidate Jahvid Best set the tone early when he ran for a 73-yard touchdown on the only play of Cal's second drive of the game then scored again on a two-yard run only two plays later after Cal had recovered a Maryland fumble on the ensuing kickoff. Kevin Riley threw for four touchdowns, completing 17-of-26 passes for 298 yards. Best finished with 137 yards rushing on only 10 carries. Cal had 6.0 sacks led by a career-high two from Ernest Owusu.

Eastern Washington was no match for the Bears when Cal hosted the Eagles in their next contest. Grant Washington scored on a four-yard pass from Matt Nichols with 6:30 to go in the first quarter to tie the score and briefly give the visitors hope for a stunning upset. But Cal was relentless after that, scoring the final 52 points as Best led the way with 144 yards rushing and a TD on 17 carries, while Shane Vereen scored three times on the ground. Mike Mohamed's jarring hit on Nichols at midfield was one of the most memorable defensive plays of the year, causing a fumble that Mychal Kendricks returned 45 yards to the Eagles' five-yard line to set up Best's rushing touchdown. Kendricks finished with a career-high 15 stops.

The Bears then traveled to Minnesota for their first road game of the season, hoping to change their luck after a 1-4 record in true road games the previous season. Best had one of his most amazing games ever, tying a school record with five rushing touchdowns (career-high 26 carries, 131 yards) on a nationally-televised ESPN broadcast and playing in front a sold-out crowd of 50,805 at the recently-opened TCF Bank Stadium. His effort would catapult him into the top spot on many Heisman lists and a photo of him leaping into the end zone landed him in Sports Illustrated. The game was tied 21-21 in the fourth quarter until a pair of two-yard TD runs by Best, the first set up by two long passes from Kevin Riley to Jeremy Ross, provided the winning 35-21 margin.

The 3-0 start moved the Bears up to the No. 6 ranking in the country and arguably made them the favorite to claim the Pac-10 crown at that point in the season, but the next two games on the schedule were daunting.

Cal's season-opener was at Oregon's Autzen

Stadium, where the Bears had won their most recent visit in 2007 but had previously dropped seven in a row to the Ducks dating back to 1989. The game started well for Cal when C.J. Moncrease forced a fumble on the opening kickoff that was recovered by D.J. Campbell at the Oregon 22-yardline. But the writing was on the wall immediately as Cal lost eight yards on its first three plays and had to settle for a career-long 47-yard field goal from Vince D'Amato. The day was all Oregon's after that as the Ducks won 42-3, with Jeremiah Masoli (21-25-0-253-3) connecting on three touchdown passes to Ed Dickson (11-148, 3 TD) and LaMichael James rushing 21 times for 118 yards and a touchdown.

The next game on the schedule was USC's visit to Memorial Stadium, but a game that had billed as a Pac-10 showdown well before the season started was now more of a game of survival. Both yards and also had a career-high seven receptions for 61 yards and a score.

Cal put its three-game win streak on the line against Oregon State the following week at Memorial Stadium. The Beavers jumped out to a 14-0 lead before the Bears mustered a 15-play, 81-yard drive that ended with Best leaping high into the air and into the end zone to cut the score to 14-7. But the play also ended Best's collegiate career and provided for the one of the most frightening moments in Cal football history as Best laid motionless on the ground as emergency personnel attended to him. He was later transported to Highland Hospital in Oakland, where he stayed the night before being released the next day. Best would recover from the injuries he sustained in the fall and be drafted in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions but would never play again at Cal. Oregon State would go on to win the game, 31-14.

Cal would still manage to put back-to-back wins together over nationally-ranked teams Arizona and Stanford in the next two games, something the Bears had not done in consecutive weeks since 1950.

Vereen was the star on both nights.

He ran for 159 yards on 30 carries at Arizona (both career highs that smash the following week at Stanford) and also scored the game-clinching touchdown on a 61-yard run with 1:21 remaining, after Giorgio Tavecchio had put the Bears ahead, 18-16, on a 22-yard field goal with 4:46 to go.

His signature game came against the Cardinal when he again established career highs with 193 yards rushing on 42 carries, tied for the second-most by an FBS player in 2009. He also equaled a career-high three rushing touchdowns but the most dramatic moment of the game came when Mohamed intercepted a pass by Stanford quarterback Andrew Luck on the Bears' own three-yard line with 1:36 remaining to save a 34-28 Cal win.

The Bears were riding high but their last two games would be disappointments with a 42-10 defeat at Washington in the regular-season finale and a 37-27 loss to Utah at the Poinsettia Bowl.

The performance by opposing quarterbacks Jake Locker of Washington (19-23-0-248-3) and Jordan Wynn of Utah (26-36-1-338-3) were the most damaging factors in both defeats. Vereen did manage two more strong games, rushing for 92 yards on 16 carries at Washington and a bowl-high 122 yards and two scores on 20 carries vs. Utah. Syd'Quan Thompson became the school's all-time leader in pass breakups (36) during the game and also completed his career by starting all 52 games possible to set a school record.

The team's 2009 accolades were numerous both on and off the field, including first-team All-Pac-10 selections for Tyson Alualu, Bryan Anger, Mohamed, Mike Tepper and Thompson. For a full list of 2009 accolades see page 107.

Cal's team statistical highlights included an offense that committed only 17 turnovers, the least ever by a Cal team, and a rushing defense that ranked second in the Pac-10.

teams came into the contest with a Pac-10 loss (USC had been upset by Washington in its conference opener two weeks earlier) and the Trojans would hand the Bears a second with a convincing 30-3 victory.

Cal would rebound to win five of its next six games to get back to 8-3 overall and 5-3 in the conference standings.

The run started with a 45-26 win at UCLA to give head coach Jeff Tedford his first win in Los Angeles after seven previous tries. Vereen (17-154, TD) and Best (18-102, TD) both had 100-yard games with Vereen's a career-high that he would break later in the season and Best picking up 93 of his yards on the third-longest run in Cal history. Best also had a 51-yard TD catch, while Marvin Jones had the first two-TD reception game of his career and Riley threw for three scores.

A 49-17 home victory over Washington State was next as Riley became the first Cal quarterback to ever throw touchdowns on each of his first three passes in a game, while Jeremy Ross totaled a career-high 228 all-purpose yards and Best rushed for 159 yards and two scores on 13 carries. Ross had 191 of his all-purpose yards on three players, returning a punt 76 yards for a touchdown, catching a 61-yard pass and bringing the opening kickoff back 54 yards.

Cal's third straight victory was a nailbiting 23-21 win at Arizona State. Giorgio Tavecchio's 24-yard field goal with 21 seconds remaining provided the winning margin to cap an 11-play, 74-yard drive. Riley finished 27-of-44 for a season-high 357 yards and two scores, and was 5-of-6 for 85 yards on the game-winning drive. Best rushed 18 times for 63

GAME SUMMARIES 1-2

at CALIFORNIA 52, MARYLAND 13

September 5, 2009 • TV: ESPN2 • Attendance: 62,367

BERKELEY – Jahvid Best and his California teammates were wide awake from the start of their rematch against Maryland.

Best ran 73 yards for one of his two first-quarter touchdowns and the 12th-ranked Golden Bears avenged an early-season loss to the Terrapins last season with a 52-13 victory to open the 2009 campaign for both clubs.

Kevin Riley added a career-high four touchdown passes for the Bears, who jumped on top 45-6 in a drastic turnaround from last year's meeting won by Maryland 35-27.

Best made his own highlight reel in this game, starting with the long touchdown run that opened the scoring. It's those kinds of runs that have made Best a trendy Heisman contender and the Bears a team to be reckoned with in the Pac-10. Best finished with 137 yards on 10 carries, including a 40-yarder that was sprung by a block from Riley, before ending his night early.

Riley completed 17 of 26 passes for 298 yards and the Golden Bears recorded six sacks.

Cal constantly pressured Chris Turner and kept the Terps out of the end zone until Da'Rel Scott's 39-yard run made it 45-13 midway through the third quarter.

at CALIFORNIA 59, E. WASHINGTON 7

September 12, 2009 • TV: CSN California • Attendance: 58,083

BERKELEY – Eastern Washington managed to hang close with No. 10 California for one quarter. Then the bigger, faster, more talented Golden Bears took over and turned the game into the mismatch it was supposed to be.

Jahvid Best rushed for 144 yards and scored two touchdowns to make sure California avoided a letdown against Eastern Washington with a 59-7 victory.

Best caught a 22-yard touchdown pass from Kevin Riley in the first half and scored on a 1-yard run in the third quarter, turning a 10-point lead into a blowout. Riley also ran for a touchdown and Shane Vereen had three short TD runs as Cal posted its second straight blowout to open the season.

The Bears scored the final 52 points after the game was tied at 7 after the first quarter. Cal ran for 342 yards, didn't turn the ball over for a second straight week and completely overwhelmed the Eagles.

Best should be well-rested considering he's only had to carry the ball 27 times the first two games. That hasn't limited his production much – he has run for 281 yards and scored four touchdowns.

Best's other highlight came when he beat linebacker J.C. Sheritt and easily got open on the 22-yard touchdown catch that gave the Bears a 24-7 lead.

GAME SUMMARIES 3-4

CALIFORNIA 35, at MINNESOTA 21

September 19, 2009 • TV: ESPN • Attendance: 50,805

MINNEAPOLIS – Cal running back Jahvid Best tied a school record with five rushing TDs and went over the 100-yard rushing mark for the seventh straight game.

Best rushed for 131 yards and a modern school-record five touchdowns to help the No. 8 Golden Bears vanquish a road curse in a 35-21 victory over scrappy Minnesota.

Best scored on runs of 33, 27 and 2 yards in a breathtaking first half, but his most important runs of the game came on a pair of 2-yard sprints to the corner of the end zone to hold off Minnesota and snap a four-game road losing streak.

Kevin Riley overcame a shaky start to finish with 252 yards for Cal, which had lost eight of its last nine on the road.

Eric Decker caught eight passes for 119 yards and two touchdowns, and threw another TD for the Golden Gophers, who gave Cal everything it could handle in their shiny new stadium.

But Adam Weber threw a costly interception late in the game and Best had too much speed for the Gophers, who were in search of their first victory over a top-10 team at home since beating No. 1 Michigan in 1977.

EUGENE – Jeremiah Masoli answered his doubters by throwing for 253 yards and three touchdowns in Oregon's 42-3 upset of sixth-ranked California.

Masoli went into the game without a scoring pass in 2009, prompting Ducks fans to call for his benching. But he responded by completing 21 of 25 passes for the Ducks, who had 524 yards in total offense to Cal's 207 yards.

Tailback Jahvid Best ran for just 55 yards for the Golden Bears, who totaled only 77 on the ground. Widely considered a top Heisman contender, Best went into the game ranked third in the nation with an average of 137.33 yards on the ground.

Quarterback Kevin Riley was 12 of 31 for 123 yards for the Bears.

Oregon tight end Ed Dickson had 11 catches for a career-best 148 yards, catching all three of Masoli's scoring passes, and LaMichael James finished with 21 carries for 118 yards and a touchdown on the ground for the Ducks.

Cal scored on Vince D'Amato's 47-yard field goal early after Oregon fumbled on its opening kickoff return.

USC 30, at CALIFORNIA 3

October 3, 2009 • TV: ABC • Attendance: 71,799

BERKELEY – Taylor Mays set the tone with an interception on the first drive of the game. Damian Williams returned a punt for a touchdown and the seventh-ranked Trojans beat No. 24 California, 30-3.

Joe McKnight ran for 119 yards and scored the only two offensive touchdowns for USC with a 38-yard run on the first Trojan drive and a 4-yard run late in the fourth quarter that emptied the stadium.

Jordan Congdon kicked three field goals and the defense did the rest, holding Cal's Jahvid Best to 47 yards on 14 carries and keeping the Golden Bears scoreless until Vince D'Amato's 29-yard field goal with 10:45 remaining.

With the defense playing this well, the Trojans made it easy freshman quarterback Matt Barkley. Barkley was inconsistent in this game, completing 20 of 35 passes for 283 yards and an interception. He moved the ball down the field with ease but struggled to punch the ball into the end zone.

Cal quarterback Kevin Riley struggled to a 15 for 40 performance for 199 yards and an interception.

Riley's interception in the end zone on the opening drive was his first of the year. Six plays later, McKnight dove into the end zone at the end of his long run. Williams' 66-yard punt return made it 17-0 in the second quarter and the rout was on. Williams caught eight passes for 101 yards.

CALIFORNIA 45, at UCLA 26

October 17, 2009 • TV: ABC • Attendance: 67,317

PASADENA – Jahvid Best made a 93-yard touchdown run and caught a 51-yard scoring pass, and California got back on track after two tough losses with a dynamic first half in a 45-26 victory over UCLA on Saturday.

Shane Vereen rushed for 154 yards and a score, and Marvin Jones caught two TD passes from Kevin Riley in the Golden Bears' first win in nearly a month. The victory was also the first career win in the Los Angeles area for Cal head coach Jeff Tedford, who grew up in nearby Downey, Calif. Riley threw for 205 yards and three scores without an interception, completing 14-of-23 passes.

Kevin Prince passed for 311 yards but threw an interception in the final minutes for UCLA. Johnathan Franklin had a 74-yard TD run among his 101 yards rushing and two scores for the Bruins.

The Bears went up 35-20 by halftime with a dizzying series of scoring plays. The most impressive play was made by Best, who uncorked the longest TD run of his three seasons with the Bears on a circuitous run through the UCLA defense late in the second quarter. Cutting back behind his blocking near Cal's goal line and sweetly slipping two tackles, he picked up a downfield block from Riley and rolled to the end zone for the third-longest scoring run in school history. Best finished with 102 rushing yards on 18 attempts and also caught a 51-yard TD pass from Riley that was the longest reception of his career.

Cal's Mychal Kendricks killed UCLA's faint comeback hopes when he returned an interception 68 yards for his first career score with 5:05 left.

October 24, 2009 • TV: None • Attendance: 54,738

BERKELEY – Kevin Riley (12-for-18, 229 yards) threw for touchdowns on his only three passes of the first quarter, Jahvid Best scored three touchdowns and California routed Washington State 49-17.

Jeremy Ross scored on a 76-yard punt return, and Best ran for a season-high 159 yards and two scores on 13 carries to help Cal win for the second straight week.

Ross returned the opening kickoff 54 yards. Two plays later, Best went in motion and ran past cornerback Brandon Jones to catch a 27-yard TD pass from Riley. Riley added a 37-yard TD pass to Jones on the next possession, the third TD in the past two weeks for that duo, and a 21-yard screen pass to Vereen for a touchdown late in the quarter that made it 28-3. Best also scored on a 61-yard run early in the second quarter to make it 35-3 early in the second quarter.

Riley's 61-yard pass to Ross on the Bears' first drive of the third quarter set up Best's third touchdown, a 2-yard run. Vereen added a 7-yard TD run in the fourth quarter for the final score.

CALIFORNIA 23, at ARIZONA STATE 21

October 31, 2009 • TV: ABC • Attendance: 43,659

TEMPE – Giorgio Tavecchio kicked a 24-yard field goal with 21 seconds left, and California rallied for a 23-21 victory over Arizona State. Tavecchio's kick capped an 11-play, 74-yard drive that began at Cal's 19 with 3:16 to go. Tavecchio also connected from 25 and 51 yards..

Quarterback Kevin Riley was 5-of-6 on the game-winning march, and he finished 27-of-44 with 351 passing yards and two touchdowns.

Danny Sullivan passed for 244 yards and a touchdown for ASU (4-4, 2-3), but also threw two interceptions.

The teams combined for 23 penalties for 238 yards and five turnovers. In the first two quarters, the Golden Bears and Sun Devils combined for four turnovers, five fumbles and 145 penalty yards.

Cal jumped ahead 7-0 on an 11-yard pass from Riley to Jahvid Best less than five minutes into the game. The Bears made it 14-0 on a 12-yard strike from Riley to Marvin Jones.

But, ASU tied it at 14-14 on a pair of one-play drives in the second quarter.

After forcing a fumble by ASU's Ryan Bass near their own goal line, the Bears gave the ball right back when Riley fumbled at his own 3, and on the next play backup quarterback Samson Szakacszy hit Jovon Williams for a 3-yard TD pass.

ASU tied it at 14-14 on its next snap when Sullivan found Kyle Williams for an 80-yard TD.

GAME SUMMARIES 9-10

OREGON STATE 31, at CALIFORNIA 14

November 7, 2009 • TV: FSN/CSN Bay Area/AFN • Attendance: 56,496

BERKELEY – Sean Canfield threw for 342 yards and two touchdowns and ran for a score Saturday night in Oregon State's 31-14 victory over California, which lost star tailback Jahvid Best after he took a scary fall.

Cal couldn't recover from seeing Best land hard in the end zone after a seven-yard leaping touchdown in the second quarter. His teammates went down on their knees and waited, then moved to the end zone as trainers and doctors took him away on a stretcher. The game was delayed 13 minutes. Some of Oregon State's players who were on the field at the time huddled together in support. Best was transported to a local emergency room and stayed overnight before being released on Sunday. CT scans and x-rays came back normal.

The Golden Bears, who had won three straight to get back in the Top 25 for the first time following a four-week absence, lost their fifth straight at home to the Beavers dating back to the last Cal win over Oregon State at Memorial Stadium in 1997.

Canfield completed 29 of 39 passes with nine to Jacquizz Rodgers and six each to James Rodgers and Joe Halahuni. Canfield completed 11 of his first 13 passes, including five straight to start the game.

Cal quarterback Kevin Riley, who was helped off the field just before halftime after a hard hit, was 19 of 34 for 200 yards and one touchdown.

BERKELEY – Shane Vereen scored on a 61-yard run after an illegal forward pass on the previous Arizona drive had knocked the Wildcats out of position for a potential game-winning field goal, and the Golden Bears went on to a 24-16 victory over the 18th-ranked Wildcats on Saturday.

"Everyone had No. 4 in their heads all game," Vereen said of Best. "He was riding with us and we needed to pick him up."

Best gave the Bears (7-3, 4-3) an emotional boost with his presence on the sideline and participation in the coin toss as an honorary captain just a week after being carried off this same field on a stretcher following a scary concussion.

But it took much more than that to beat the Wildcats (6-3, 4-2). Giorgio Tavecchio kicked four field goals and Shane Vereen rushed for 159 yards on 30 carries (both career highs).

"Shane was a workhorse today," Tedford said. "I've said numerous times how fortunate we are to have two quality running backs and two great kids who support one another and are equally capable of big plays at any time."

CALIFORNIA 34, at STANFORD 28

November 21, 2009 • TV: Versus • Attendance: 50,510

STANFORD – Shane Vereen ran for a career-high 193 yards and a career-high-tying three touchdowns on a career-high 42 carries and Mike Mohamed intercepted an Andrew Luck pass at the Cal 3-yard line with 1:36 left as California won the 112th Big Game, 34-28.

Stanford's Toby Gerhart rushed for 136 yards and four touchdowns, carrying defenders on a 29-yard reception that set up Stanford at the Cal 13 with less than 2 minutes left. But after throwing an incomplection on first down, Luck was intercepted by Mohamed on second with 1:36 to go, setting off a wild celebration on the Cal sideline. After Kevin Riley took three knees, the Cal students rushed the field and Stanford Stadium as the Golden Bears won the coveted Axe for the seventh time in eight years.

The Golden Bears scored touchdowns on four consecutive drives at one point to turn the early 14-0 deficit into a 31-21 lead early in the fourth quarter. Stanford closed the Cal lead to 31-28 on Gerhart's fourth rushing touchdown of the game on a five-yard run before Cal kicked a field goal to go up 34-28 with 2:42 to go. Stanford drove down the field and was in position to win until Luck's interception.

SEATTLE – Jake Locker threw for three touchdowns and ran for two more, and the Huskies closed out their redemptive first season under Steve Sarkisian with a 42-10 win over California.

Locker started with a 40-yard TD pass to Jermaine Kearse on Washington's first drive, then added touchdown runs of 19 and 2 yards in the second quarter as the Huskies jumped to a 21-3 lead and were never challenged. Locker added TD throws in the third quarter of 21 yards and 13 yards to Devin Aguilar. He completed 19 of 23 passes for 248 yards, while running 14 times for 77 yards. Chris Polk added 94 yards rushing and a touchdown for Washington. Kearse had seven catches for 147 yards and a TD -- all in the first half -- while Aguilar grabbed five passes for 72 yards and two scores.

Shane Vereen rushed for 92 yards with most of it coming on a 50-yard dash in the first quarter. Kevin Riley was 14 of 32 for 215 yards with a 22-yard TD pass to Nyan Boateng, but fumbled twice. Marvin Jones posted career highs with six receptions and 107 receiving yards. Tyson Alualu had another standout game defensively for the Bears, making a season-high-tying eight tackles with 1.5 sacks.

POINSETTIA BOWL - UTAH 37, CALIFORNIA 27

December 23, 2009 • TV: ESPN • Attendance: 32,665

SAN DIEGO – Jordan Wynn completed 26 of 36 passes for a career-high 338 yards and three touchdowns to rally No. 23 Utah from an early two-touchdown deficit to a 37-27 victory over California in the Poinsettia Bowl.

The Utes scored 27 straight points to win their ninth straight bowl game, the longest current streak in the country and tied for the second-longest ever.

The Golden Bears, in a bowl game for the school-record seventh straight year, had their four-game postseason winning streak snapped.

Utah's defense came up big, too. The Utes sacked Cal's Kevin Riley five times and intercepted him twice, with linebacker Stevenson Sylvester returning a tipped pass 27 yards for a touchdown late in the game. Riley also lost a fumble.

Shane Vereen, who scored twice, was the seventh Cal back to gain more than 100 yards in a bowl, finishing with 122 yards on 20 carries.

Utah looked overmatched after Cal scored twice in 11 seconds midway through the first quarter. Vereen scored on a 36-yard run and Eddie Young intercepted Wynn on the first play of Utah's next drive and returned it 31 yards for a score.

After that it was all Utah.
