Cal Football Notes

Cal to Open 2011 Season with "Battle By The Bay" At Candlestick Park Sept. 3

Cal will get its 2011 campaign underway by playing Fresno State in the neutral-site game dubbed the "Battle By The Bay" at Candlestick Park on Saturday, Sept. 3. The game is believed to be the first regular-season college football game to ever be played at the venue. The Bears and Bulldogs have met only twice in their history with Fresno State winning on both occasions. The Bulldogs were victorious in the first meeting between the schools in Berkeley on Sept. 9, 1995, squeaking out a 25-24 win. The last time the teams played in Fresno on Sept. 23, 2000, Fresno State was a 17-3 winner. Cal and Fresno State have not played since Cal head coach Jeff Tedford, a former Fresno State quarterback, became the head coach of the Golden Bears prior to the 2002 season.

Cal Readies for AT&T Park; Back to Memorial Stadium in 2012

After playing the last 88 seasons and every home game at Memorial Stadium since the facility opened for the 1923 Big Game, Cal will host its home games outside of Berkeley for the first time in 2011 while Memorial Stadium undergoes an extensive renovation and retrofit.

Cal's 2011 home schedule at San Francisco's AT&T Park is highlighted by visits from Pac-12 rival USC on Thursday, Oct. 13 (6 p.m. PT) and conference newcomer Utah on Saturday, Oct. 22. The Bears will also host Presbyterian in their home opener on Saturday, Sept. 17, as well as Washington State (Saturday, Nov. 5) and Oregon State (Saturday, Nov. 12). Starting times and television broadcast information for all games other than USC will be announced at later dates when it becomes available.

National Rankings

Cal has been ranked among the nation's top 25 teams at one point in each of the last seven seasons and eight times in nine campaigns since 2002.

Bowling and Winning Bears

Cal's school-record bowl game streak of seven seasons from 2003-09 finally came to an end in 2010 when the Bears finished 5-7, which also ended the team's school-record-tying string of eight consecutive winning campaigns. Cal posted a 5-2 (.714) record during its seven straight bowl appearances that also included a school-record four straight bowl wins from 2005-08. The Bears were 67-35 (.657) overall during their eight winning seasons in a row.

Tedford at 72 Wins, Two Shy of Cal's All-Time Mark

Head coach Jeff Tedford will begin the 2011 season with 72 all-time victories at Cal. He now sports an all-time record of 72-41 (.637), only two victories behind the school's all-time leader, Andy Smith (74, 1916-25) and one shy of James Schaeffer (73, 1909-15). His teams also won a school-record four bowl games in a row (2005-08), are 5-2 overall in bowls and have registered a 7-2 mark in Big Games to equal the legendary Pappy Waldorf's seven victories over Stanford. Tedford became Cal's all-time modern-era victory leader as well as its all-time leader in games coached during the 2010 season.

Tedford a Standout QB and Coach at Fresno State

Cal head coach Jeff Tedford was an honorable mention All-American quarterback at Fresno State in 1981 and '82, where he left as the school's all-time record holder in passing yards (4,872) and touchdown passes (35) and also set single-season standards for passing yardage (2,993) and TD passes (24). Tedford also coached for six seasons at his alma mater (1992-97), serving for the final five campaigns as the program's offensive coordinator. He also started his coaching career at Fresno State with a two-year stint as a volunteer assistant for the Bulldogs (1987-88).

New Coaches On Board for 2011

Jeff Tedford announced a series of changes to Cal's offensive coaching staff on February 5 when Jim Michalczyk returned to Cal as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach and Marcus Arroyo was hired as quarterbacks coach. At the same time, associate head coach Ron Gould was promoted to the team's run game coordinator, while it was announced that recently hired Eric Kiesau, who had like Michalczyk had previously coached at Cal, would serve as pass game coordinator. The announcement followed previous hiring of defensive backs coach Ashley Ambrose and the move of head strength and conditioning coach Mike Blasquez from men's basketball to football.

Anger, Kendricks and Schwartz Earn 2011 Preseason Honors

National honor candidates Mitchell Schwartz, Bryan Anger and Mychal Kendricks have already begun picking up preseason honors prior to the 2011 campaign. All three have been recognized on the 2011 GoDaddy.com Preseason All-America Team. Schwartz was a third-team pick, while Anger and Kendricks were both honorable mention selections. Kendricks has also been named to the 2011 Lott IMPACT Trophy Watch List.

Schwartz has started all 38 games on the Golden Bears' offensive line over the past three seasons, including 12 during a 2010 campaign in which he was a second-team All-Pac-10 choice and anchored an offensive line that blocked for 1,167-yard rusher Shane Vereen. He was also a member of the Jewish Sports Review's 2010 College Football All-American team and has been an honorable mention Pac-10 All-Academic selection each of the past three seasons.

Anger is coming off a monster 2010 season in which he earned first-team honors for the second straight year after a second-team selection in 2008. Anger broke a 23-year-old single-season Cal school record with a 45.6 yard punting average in 2010 to rank second in the Pac-10 and sixth nationally. He was a Ray Guy Award semifinalist for a second time in his career after also accomplishing the feat as a freshman. Anger's 2010 season average was 2.3 yards better than his career average of 43.3, a figure that ranks second all-time at Cal behind Scott Tabor's 44.0 (1986-87). Tabor had held Cal's previous single-season record with a 45.3 average in 1987.

Kendricks earned second-team All-Pac-10 honors as one of the top big-play players in the league in 2010, leading Cal and ranking among the conference and national leaders with 8.5 sacks (0.71 per game, No. 2 Pac-10, No. 26-T NCAA) and 15.0 tackles for loss (1.25 per game, No. 4 Pac-10, No. 28-T NCAA). He was also tied for first in the Pac-10 with three fumble recoveries (0.25 per game), while his 66 tackles was fourth on the team and his average of 5.5 stops per game ranked No. 31 in the Pac-10. He added an interception. Kendricks heads into his senior season at Cal in 2011 as the team's active career leader in tackles (152), tackles for loss (22.0, -85 yards), sacks (10.5, -69 yards), fumble recoveries (5) and blocked kicks (1), while tying for the team's active lead in games played (38). His other career numbers include 18 starts, two interceptions that he has returned for 68 yards and a touchdown, three pass breakups and a forced fumble.

Pac-10 Honorable Mention Honorees Cattouse, Holt and Jones Also Return

In addition to early preseason honorees, three other Cal players who were selected as honorable mention All-Pac-10 choices in seniors Sean Cattouse, D.J. Holt and Marvin Jones all return.

Jones led Cal in both receptions and receiving yards for the second consecutive year in 2010 with career highs of 50 catches and 765 receiving yards, while ranking second on the club with four touchdown catches. Jones ranked among Pac-10 and NCAA leaders in per-game numbers for both receiving yards (63.75, No. 6 Pac-10, No. 67 NCAA) and receptions (4.17, No. 11 Pac-10, No. 92-T NCAA).

Cattouse played in all 12 games with six starts and posted a career-high 59 tackles that was second among the team's defensive backs and sixth overall.

Holt started all 12 games and ranked second on the club in tackles (85) after leading the squad for much of the season. He was also tied for the team lead with three forced fumbles and tied for fourth in the Pac-10 with an average of 0.25 per contest. Holt tied for 13th in the Pac-10 with his 7.1 per-game tackle average. In addition, he was fourth on the club with 5.5 sacks (-21 yards) and tied for fourth with 2.0 sacks (-13 yards).

Freshman All-American Keenan Allen Racks Up The Honors, Sets Records

Wide receiver Keenan Allen racked up the honors in a record-setting rookie season, highlighted by a fourth-team Freshman All-American selection from Phil Steele and an honorable mention nod from College Football News. Allen set a Cal single-season school record for receptions by a true freshman by making 46 catches for 490 yards (both second on the team behind Marvin Jones), while picking up a team-high five-touchdown grabs in games played and nine starts. Allen surpassed DeSean Jackson's school record of 38 receptions set in 2005. In addition, Allen led the team with a kick return average of 22.6 yards (No. 9 Pac-10) on a team-high 18 kick returns. He also ranked second on the club behind Shane Vereen with 1,040 all-purpose yards (136 rush, 490 receiving, 8 punt return, 406 kick return). Allen began his record-setting rookie season by making one of the most memorable debuts in Cal football history in the season opener against UC Davis on Sept. 4 when he caught four passes for 120 yards, including a 48-yard touchdown reception. His 120 receiving yards were the most by a Cal wide receiver since LaReylle Cunningham had 138 yards at Maryland on Sept. 13, 2008 (since surpassed by Marvin Jones' 161 yards at Nevada).

Tedford Names Zach Maynard Starting Quarterback

Cal head coach Jeff Tedford announced on May 14 that junior Zach Maynard will be the team's starting quarterback heading into the 2011 season.

"Zach showed a tremendous amount of upside during spring practice and is the quarterback that gives us the best opportunity to win football games," said Tedford. "He has the ability to both throw and run the ball effectively, giving us another dimension at that position that we haven't had in a while."

"I'm excited and honored to have been named the starting quarterback at Cal," said Maynard. "I enjoyed competing for the job with some excellent competitors during spring practice and will continue to work hard to keep the starting role. I have an excellent opportunity to help lead this football team and plan to take full advantage of it."

Maynard accepted a scholarship offer from Cal in February of 2010 and sat out last season to become eligible after transferring from Buffalo. He has two years of eligibility remaining at Cal.

Maynard played in all 12 games and started 11 contests during his 2009 sophomore campaign with the Bulls when he completed 218-of-379 passes (57.5%) for 2,694 yards and 18 TDs with 15 interceptions. He was also Buffalo's third-leading rusher with 300 yards on 87 carries and one touchdown on the ground. Maynard had a huge day in the second start of his career against Big East power Pittsburgh, passing for career highs of 400 yards and four touchdowns to set and tie single-game school records as he hit on 24-of-35 attempts. Maynard was named the Mid-American Conference East Division Performer of the Week. He rushed for a career-high 61 yards on six carries and scored his rushing touchdown against Miami, Ohio.

Sophomore Allan Bridgford and senior Brock Mansion will be co-listed at No. 2 on the team's post-spring depth chart.

Four 2011 Selections Add To Cal's Strong NFL Draft History

Four former Cal players were selected during the 2011 NFL Draft that concluded Saturday at Radio City Music Hall. Defensive end Cameron Jordan was the first Golden Bear picked when he was taken in the first round Thursday by the New Orleans Saints with the No. 24 overall pick. Running back Shane Vereen and safety Chris Conte were selected Friday on the draft's second day, with Vereen was going to the New England Patriots in the second round (No. 56 overall) and Conte being chosen in the third round by the Chicago Bears (No. 93 overall). Linebacker Mike Mohamed rounded out Cal's selections when he was picked up on Saturday's final day of the draft by the Denver Broncos in the sixth round (No. 189 overall).

"I'm happy for all these guys," said head coach Jeff Tedford. "All of them are really, really happy. It's gratifying to me for the reason that they entrusted their careers to come to Cal to see their dreams come true."

Cal Career Draft Notes: Cal's four players selected in 2011 were the most Bears taken in an NFL Draft since six were picked in 2008 ... Cal had three players in the top 100 to rank tied for sixth among schools nationally ... Cal has had 36 NFL Draft selections in the last 10 drafts ... Jordan was Cal's 26th first-round pick and the eighth in the last 10 drafts ... Jordan became the second consecutive defensive lineman chosen from Cal in the first round in as many years, joining the No. 10 overall selection of Tyson Alualu by Jacksonville in 2010 and making the Golden Bears only the second team in the Pac-10 to have ever had defensive linemen selected in the first round in back-to-back drafts (USC is the other) ... Cal has had four first-round draft picks in the last three drafts, with at least one in all three ... Jordan was selected with the same overall pick (No. 24) as former Cal quarterback and reigning Super Bowl MVP Aaron Rodgers was by the Green Bay Packers in 2005.

Former Bears Aaron Rodgers and Desmond Bishop Super Bowl Champs; Rodgers MVP

Former Cal football players quarterback Aaron Rodgers and linebacker Desmond Bishop are Super Bowl champions after the Green Bay Packers defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers, 31-25, at Cowboys Stadium on Sunday. Rodgers was the first former Cal player to be named the game's MVP, and is also the first of the record four former Cal quarterbacks to start the game to be victorious.

"I watched the game with great pride and admiration for what Aaron and Desmond have accomplished," said Tedford. "They are two class individuals who did a lot for Cal and have continued their growth as leaders and major contributors to the World Champions! They deserve all the accolades coming their way!"

Rodgers completed 24-of-39 passes for 304 yards and three touchdowns with no interceptions for a quarterback rating of 111.5. He had one touchdown throw in each the first, second and fourth quarters.

Bishop had eight tackles, a game-high 3.0 tackles for loss and a key fumble recovery on Pittsburgh's first play of the fourth quarter that led to Green Bay's final touchdown of the contest.

The appearance of Rodgers and Bishop marked the 10th consecutive season Cal has had at least one player on a Super Bowl roster.

Cal in the NFL

A total of 211 former Cal football players have been drafted or have experience on an AAFC, AFL or National Football League rosters as of the end of the 2010 NFL season, including 33 players that were active in the NFL at the end of the 2010 campaign, which according to ESPN.com is the second-most among Pac-12 schools behind only USC.

Defensive Improvement in 2010

Under first-year defensive coordinator Clancy Pendergast, Cal's 2010 defense led the Pac-10 and ranked in the top 25 nationally in per-game averages for sacks (2.83 spg, No. 13), total defense (319.08 ypg, No. 18) and pass defense (187.00 ypg, No. 21). Cal was also second in the conference in opponents' third down conversion percentage (34.7%). The team's pass efficiency defense and scoring defense, which held opponents to 17 points or less in eight of 12 games, were both third in the Pac-10, as well as 31st and 40th nationally. Cal was significantly better in all the above categories compared to 2009 when the Bears were seventh in the Pac-10 and No. 72 nationally in total defense (378.85 ypg). Cal was fifth in the Pac-10 and 35th nationally in rushing defense in 2010.

Losses to Tough Teams

Cal's seven losses in 2010 came against six teams that combined to post a 64-27 (.703) record in Arizona (7-6), Nevada (13-1), Oregon (12-1), Oregon State (5-7), Stanford (12-1), Washington (7-6) and USC (8-5).

Oregon (No. 3 AP/BCS/USA Today), Stanford (No. 4 AP/BCS/USA Today) and Nevada (No. 11 AP/BCS/No. 13 USA Today) all finished the season nationally ranked.

Catch The Bears On The Tube

Cal has appeared on live television 56 times over its last 57 contests through the end of the 2010 season. A total of 98 games were televised in the first nine seasons under head coach Jeff Tedford. The Bears already have three games scheduled for ESPN national telecasts in 2011 (at Oregon, vs. USC, at Arizona State).

1,000-Yard Rushing Seasons

Cal has eight 1,000-yard rushers in the last nine years, most recently with the 1,167 yards gained by Shane Vereen in 2010.

Academic Prowess Continues

Cal has posted 94 Pac-10 All-Academic honors from 2002-10 under head coach Jeff Tedford, second-most in the conference during that span. Mike Mohamed (Sr., LB, 3.43, Business Administration) was named a first-team Pac-10 All-Academic selection for the third time in 2010, leading a group of 11 Cal student-athletes honored on the Pac-10 All-Academic Football Team. Cal's second-team selections included Alex Lagemann (Jr., WR, 3.69, Media Studies), Ernest Owusu (Jr., DL, 3.32, Political Economy), Giorgio Tavecchio (Jr., PK, 3.69, Undeclared) and John Tyndall (Jr., FB, 3.08, Interdisciplinary Studies). Justin Cheadle (Jr., OL, 3.07, American Studies), Richard Fisher (Sr., OL, 3.10, Civil Engineering), Chris Guarnero (Sr., OL, 3.07, American Studies), Mitchell Schwartz (Jr., OL, 3.15, American Studies), Matt Summers-Gavin (So., OL, 3.35, Political Studies) and Beau Sweeney (So., QB, 3.27, American Studies) were selected honorable mention.

In 2008, Alex Mack earned the Draddy Trophy (later renamed the Campbell Trophy) honoring college football's top scholar-athlete, while Mohamed is a finalist for the honor often referred to as the "academic Heisman" in 2010 after being given an earlier NFF Scholar-Athlete Award. Of the 163 seniors who have played for Tedford through the 2009 season, 144 (88%) have earned their degrees and/or gone on NFL careers. The Cal football team was second in the Pac-10 and fourth nationally (second among public schools) in the most recent Academic Progress Rates (APR) with a score of 969. Compared to their NCAA cohorts, football ranked in the 80th-90th percentile, meaning its score was higher than 80 percent of all other football programs.

Mohamed a 2010 Finalist for Prestigious Campbell Award and NFF

Former Cal linebacker Mike Mohamed was a finalist for the 2010 William V. Campbell Trophy (formerly Draddy Trophy) for an honor recently won by a Cal player when Alex Mack was selected in 2008. Along with being a finalist for the Campbell Trophy, Mohamed was selected as a recipient of a National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete Award that was presented along with the naming of the Campbell Trophy winner at the 2010 NFF Annual Awards Dinner at the Waldorf=Astoria in New York City on December 7. Each Campbell Trophy finalist received an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship.

National Signing Day

California signed 11 All-American and 22 student-athletes to National Letters of Intent to join the Cal football program for the 2011 season February 2 on National Signing Day. Cal's 2011 signing class ranked as high as No. 14 according to Scout. Rivals has Cal at No. 17, while ESPN listed the Bears at No. 18 and MaxPreps at No. 20.

"We are excited about the student-athletes that we have signed in our 2011 recruiting class," said Tedford. "We feel like the members of this class will be able to fill some of the needs we have on both sides of the ball in an expedient fashion. Many of the players are among the nationally elite at their respective positions and will have an opportunity to make an immediate impact on the Cal football program."

The 2011 class included six participants in the most recent U.S. Army All-American Bowl – LB Jason Gibson (Gardena, CA/Junipero Serra HS), DB Stefan McClure (Vista, CA/Vista HS), DL Viliami Moala (Sacramento, CA/Grant HS), OL Jordan Rigsbee (Chico, CA/Pleasant Valley HS), DL Brennan Scarlett (Portland, OR/Central Catholic HS) and DB Avery Walls (McDonough, GA/Eagle's Landing Christian HS). DL Todd Barr (Lakewood, CA/Lakewood HS) played in the Under Armour All-America Game.

Cal in Pac-12 North in 2011; New Conference Media Rights Deal Starts in 2012

The Pac-12 Conference has taken major steps to transform itself into a dynamic new enterprise by forming two football divisions that maintain traditional rivalries, creating the first-ever Pac-12 football championship game, establishing schedule models for all other sports and agreeing to move to an equal revenue sharing plan for the first time in conference history on Oct. 21, 2010. The Chancellors and Presidents of the 12 member institutions voted to create a new North-South division structure that allows the conference to continue to play its traditional rivalry games, including the long-standing annual games among the California schools, delivers a football championship game to the home field of the top team in the regular-season conference standings and is easy for fans to follow. The new divisions will feature California, Oregon, Oregon State, Stanford, Washington and Washington State in the North; and Arizona, Arizona State, Colorado, UCLA, USC, and Utah in the South. Each school will play five divisional games and four cross-divisional games each year. To preserve all of the historic rivalries, including those among the California schools, the new scheduling format locks in annual inter-divisional games between the Northern and Southern California teams that date back to the 1930s.

On May 4, 2011, the Pac-12 announced it is teaming up with ESPN and FOX Sports Media Group on a landmark agreement for a broadcast and national cable television package that extends and expands long-time partnerships with both companies. At the same time, Pac-12 Commissioner Larry Scott announced the creation of a new media company, Pac-12 Media Enterprises, which will own the Pac-12 Network, the Pac-12 Digital Network, and Pac-12 Properties. This new company will control and distribute on its platforms and on all devices, the Pac-12 games not licensed to ESPN and FOX Sports, and will hold other media and event rights. This entity will be wholly owned and controlled by the Pac-12 Conference and will exist side-by-side with the newly announced ESPN and FOX Sports arrangements.

Although terms of the ESPN and Fox Sports agreements were not disclosed, Scott called it a “landmark deal” on several fronts. He pointed out that the Pac-12’s member institutions would, for the first time ever, share equally in the revenue from the new arrangement, and that the equal revenue distribution would start immediately when the deal goes into effect in 2012.

California Memorial Stadium Renovation

Since it opened in the fall of 1923, California Memorial Stadium has generated scores of unforgettable memories for generations of Golden Bears. From the Wonder Teams of the 1920s to the Pappy Waldorf years mid-century to the current success attained under head coach Jeff Tedford, the venerable facility has treated fans of all ages to many of the greatest games in the history of Cal football. Work is underway to renovate the historic building, bringing it up to modern standards and creating a facility that will significantly reduce seismic risk and create a more enjoyable environment for the hundreds of thousands of fans who attend games every year – all while maintaining the architecture and character of the celebrated structure. Construction on the $321 million project began in earnest in early June 2010 and is expected to be completed in time for the 2012 season opener. The Golden Bears will move to temporary quarters at San Francisco’s AT&T Park in 2011 before returning to campus for the following campaign and providing new generations of Cal fans the opportunity to treasure the venue for years to come.

Cal defeated Stanford, 9-0, in the first game played in Memorial Stadium on Nov. 24, 1923. The Bears have compiled a 317-213-16 (.595) in the 88 seasons the venue has been home to Cal football. The 2010 season finale against Washington last Nov. 27 marked the 546th and final game played in the most recent configuration of the stadium since it opened in the fall of 1923.

Student-Athlete High Performance Center

The Student-Athlete High Performance Center, under construction since late 2008, is scheduled to open prior to the 2011 football season and will become a modern new home for approximately 450 student-athletes in football and 12 other sports to use on a daily basis. The 142,000-square-foot facility will house locker rooms, offices and meeting rooms, as well as areas for strength and conditioning, sports medicine, nutrition and academics.

The building is the physical manifestation of Cal’s High Performance Initiative, a nontraditional approach to excellence that challenges conventional ways of thinking about and delivering high performance in an intercollegiate setting. In an effort to take Cal to the highest level, the HPI applies worldwide best practices in sport and human performance to all aspects of the athletic department. This commitment creates and sustains high performance across Cal Athletics and maximizes the potential of our student-athletes, coaches and support staff.

The High Performance Initiative has three primary objectives – to maximize competitive advantage, to efficiently use available resources and to optimize the student-athlete experience – which will be attained primarily through applying a different mindset to intercollegiate athletics and by delivering world-class advanced support services and facilities.

Jeff Tedford

Head Coach • 10th Season at Cal (72-42, .632)

Jeff Tedford is the third-winningest head coach in the history of Cal football, having moved past the legendary Pappy Waldorf as the school's leader in the modern era (since 1937) when Cal defeated UC Davis in the 2010 season opener. He then passed Waldorf on top of the school's all-time games coached list when he led the Golden Bears to their second victory of the season against Colorado on Sept. 11. He reached another milestone with his third win of the 2010 campaign, picking up his 70th career victory in a 35-7 triumph over UCLA, and has won two more games since against Arizona State (Oct. 23) and at Washington State (Nov. 6) to increase the total to 72.

Tedford is now behind only all-time leader Andy Smith (74-16-7, 1916-25) and James Schaeffer (73-16-8, 1909-15) on the school's career win list, with the majority of Schaeffer's victories coming when Cal played rugby rather than football. Tedford has already set a school record with 25 road wins and also has another impressive school victory mark and a 44-33 (.571) record against Pac-10 teams, finishing out of the top half of the conference standings only twice.

Starting his 10th year at the helm of the Golden Bears in 2011 and the Pac-10's longest-tenured coach in consecutive years at the same school, Tedford has established Cal as one of the elite football programs in the Pac-10 and lifted the Golden Bears into the national discussion on a consistent basis. The 72 victories he has led Cal to gives the Bears the third-most wins among Pac-10 schools since his arrival in 2002. His squads have finished among the nation's top 25 ranked teams in four of the last seven years (2004-06, '08), have been ranked in the top 10 at some point during the season in five of the last seven (2004-07, '09), and in the top 25 in each of the last seven seasons (2004-10) and eight of his nine on campus (2002, '04-10).

Cal also set a school-record with seven straight bowl appearances from 2003-09. Cal is 5-2 in the postseason under Tedford, making him the first Cal mentor with more than two bowl victories. He also led Cal to a school-record-tying eight straight winning seasons from 2002-09.

All of this from a team which won just one game in 2001, the year prior to his arrival. The Cal football renaissance rates as one of the most impressive turnarounds in college football history.

Not only have Tedford's teams got it done on the field, they've also got it done in the classroom. His players have been recognized as Pac-10 All-

Academic honorees 94 times since his arrival. Of the 163 seniors who have played for Tedford through the 2009 season, 144 (88%) have earned their degrees and/or gone on NFL careers. The Cal football team was second in the Pac-10 and fourth nationally (second among public schools) in the most recent Academic Progress Rates (APR) with a score of 969. Compared to their NCAA cohorts, football ranked in the 80th-90th percentile, meaning its score was higher than 80 percent of all other football programs. Alex Mack won the prestigious Draddy Trophy (since renamed the William V. Campbell Trophy) in 2008 and in 2010 Mike Mohamed was a finalist for the honor often referred to as the "Academic Heisman".

Tedford's success with the Cal program has resulted in local devotion and national attention. Cal has averaged over 60,000 fans per game four times in the last seven seasons and had a string of 43 games in a row playing in front of at least 50,000 fans before it was finally snapped on Thanksgiving weekend in 2010. In 2006, the Bears set school records for average fans per home game (64,318) and overall spectators (450,223). The following year in 2007, Cal set a season-ticket record of 41,366. Cal last played in front of a sellout home crowd of 71,799 vs. USC on Oct. 3, 2009. The Bears drew their two biggest crowds of the 2010 campaign in two of their last three home games, with 65,963 on hand vs. Oregon and a season-high 67,793 for the Big Game against Stanford.

Nationally, Cal has also had multiple Heisman Trophy candidates under Tedford, including J.J. Arrington (2004), Marshawn Lynch (2006), DeSean Jackson (2007) and Jahvid Best (2009).

Other national recognition has also come the Bears way in recent years. In addition to Mack winning the 2008 Draddy Award, the Bears have had a pair of other players collect additional prestigious national awards. In 2006, Jackson was the recipient of the inaugural Randy Moss Award for the top return man in the country, while Daymeion Hughes earned The Lott Trophy (now known as the Lott IMPACT Trophy) given to a defensive player to equally recognize his athletic performance and personal character. Mohamed was a quarterfinalist for the Lott IMPACT Trophy in 2010.

Group includes six from U.S. Army All-American Bowl and nine ranked in top 150 of at least one recruiting service
11 All-Americans in Cal's No. 14 Signing Class of 2011

(BERKELEY) – California has signed 11 All-American and 22 student-athletes to National Letters of Intent to join the Golden Bears football program for the 2011 season, head coach Jeff Tedford announced Wednesday. Cal's 2011 signing class ranked as high as No. 14 according to Scout. Rivals has Cal at No. 17, while ESPN listed the Bears at No. 18 and MaxPreps at No. 20.

"We are excited about the student-athletes that we have signed in our 2011 recruiting class," said Tedford. "We feel like the members of this class will be able to fill some of the needs we have on both sides of the ball in an expedient fashion. Many of the players are among the nationally elite at their respective positions and will have an opportunity to make an immediate impact on the Cal football program."

The 2011 class includes six participants in the most recent U.S. Army All-American Bowl – LB Jason Gibson (Gardena, CA/Junipero Serra HS), DB Stefan McClure (Vista, CA/Vista HS), DL Viliami Moala (Sacramento, CA/Grant HS), OL Jordan Rigsbee (Chico, CA/Pleasant Valley HS), DL Brennan Scarlett (Portland, OR/Central Catholic HS) and DB Avery Walls (McDonough, GA/Eagle's Landing Christian HS) – while DL Todd Barr (Lakewood, CA/Lakewood HS) played in the Under Armour All-America Game. The Bears have had a total of 12 signees from the prestigious U.S. Army All-American Bowl in their past two recruiting classes.

Five members of the 2011 group – Barr (No. 48), Walls (No. 68), WR Maurice Harris (Greensboro, NC/Northern Guilford HS, No. 91), Moala (No. 97) and Gibson (No. 131) – are on the ESPN 150 list.

A total of nine Cal recruits are rated among the nation's top-150 players overall by at least one recruiting service (highest rating in parenthesis) in Moala (No. 4 Prepstar), Barr (No. 48 ESPN), DL Mustafa Jalil (San Diego, CA/Central Catholic HS, No. 52 Sporting News), Walls (No. 68 ESPN), Gibson (No. 71 Sporting News), Scarlett (No. 73 Sporting News), Harris (No. 91 ESPN), McClure (No. 118 Rivals) and Rigsbee (No. 136 Prepstar).

Moala is a five-star recruit (Scout, Tom Lemming) who is listed as the nation's No. 2 defensive tackle by Lemming, Scout and SuperPrep, No. 7 at his position according to ESPN and No. 8 by Rivals. He had 226 tackles and 31.0 sacks over his final two prep seasons and led his team to a combined 39-2 record and three consecutive conference titles during his final three campaigns as well as a state crown as a 2008 sophomore.

Two others – Barr and Scarlett – picked up four-and-a-half stars from Lemming.

Barr ranks as the nation's No. 6 defensive tackle by ESPN and Lemming, and No. 12 according to Scout. He is also Rivals' No. 12 strongside defensive end nationally. Barr is also deemed as high as the nation's No. 26 defensive lineman overall according to SuperPrep. The 2010 first-team Best in the West selection and Moore League Player of the Year led his conference with 20.0 sacks in his final prep season while adding 73 tackles and 35.0 tackles for loss. He is also a two-time all-state choice.

Scarlett, who was selected for the U.S. Army All-American Bowl after his senior year despite playing in only three games due to injury, comes in at No. 9 on Rivals' ranking of the nation's top defensive ends and is its No. 2 player overall from Oregon. He had 31 tackles in his first two contests of 2010 before suffering the injury. Scarlett posted 59 tackles and 6.0 sacks as a junior in 2009.

Gibson is listed among the nation's top-10 outside linebackers by ESPN (No. 6), Rivals (No. 9) and Scout (No. 10). The 2010 SuperPrep All-American posted 93 tackles and 13.5 sacks as a senior. His team combined to go 42-2 during his three varsity campaigns.

McClure checks in as the nation's No. 4 cornerback according to Scout, while SuperPrep has him at No. 6 and Rivals No. 9. He led the East Division of the Avocado League in both receiving (58 catches, 1,317 yards, 13 TDs) and interceptions (4) as a senior to earn first-team Best in the West recognition.

Rigsbee ranks as high as No. 9 nationally among offensive guards by Rivals.

Walls is the No. 6 safety nationally by ESPN and No. 8 according to Rivals.

In addition to the seven players who earned spots in the prestigious postseason bowl games, other signees that garnered at least one All-American honor in 2010 include QB Kyle Boehm (San Jose, CA/Archbishop Mitty HS), Jalil, TB Daniel Lasco (The Woodlands, TX/The Woodlands HS) and TE Richard Rodgers (Worcester, MA/St. John's HS).

Boehm ranks as high as the nation's No. 7 pro-style quarterback according to Rivals, while Jalil is listed as the nation's No. 9 defensive tackle by Scout. Lasco is Lemming's No. 13 running back and Rodgers is Rivals' No. 24 tight end as well as Lemming's No. 9 athlete.

Cal's top national rankings by position according to Rivals are running backs (No. 3), defensive tackles (No. 10-T) and defensive ends (No. 11) and defensive backs (No. 14-T).

TB Brendan Bigelow (Fresno, CA/Central East HS) and Lasco are both among the nation's top 15 running backs, with Bigelow coming in at No. 11 by Rivals and Lemming, and Lasco's top national ranking at his position No. 13 according to Lemming.

On the defensive line, Moala (No. 2 DT Lemming, Scout, SuperPrep), Barr (No. 6 DT ESPN, Lemming), Jalil (No. 9 DT Scout) and Scarlett (No. 9 DE Rivals) all have top-10 national positional rankings.

The remaining members of the recruiting class are TB C.J. Anderson (Oakland, CA/Laney College/Bethel HS), LB Nathan Broussard (Plano, TX/Plano West HS), ATH Darren Ervin (Houston, TX/Lamar HS), DB Kameron Jackson (Long Beach, CA/Long Beach Poly HS), LB Jalen Jefferson (Ventura, CA/St. Bonaventure HS), DL Puka Lopa (Sacramento, CA/Grant HS), DB Jordan Morgan (Lakeside, AZ/Blue Ridge HS), OL Matt Williams (Liverpool, England/North Dakota State College of Science/Proctor Academy) and DB Joel Willis (Garden Grove, CA/Pacifica HS).

Anderson and Williams are the two junior college transfers in the class.

Ervin, Walls and Williams enrolled at Cal for the 2011 spring semester and began taking classes in January. All three are expected to participate in the team's 2011 spring practices.

Cal continued its strong national recruiting presence with nine of the 22 newcomers listing a hometown outside the state of California. In addition to the 13 student-athletes from California other states represented were Arizona, Georgia, Massachusetts, North Carolina, Oregon, and Texas, as well as the country of England.

"We have expanded our national recruiting efforts over the last several years and continued to do so with this signing class," explained Tedford. "We feel like there is a growing interest from national recruits in the University of California, both in our academics and in our football program's potential. It is evident by the number of out-of-state players that we have signed in this year's class."

The 2011 class includes 13 defensive players, eight on the offensive side of the ball and one that is being recruited as an "athlete."

"I am pleased with the hard work of our staff during the recruiting process," said Tedford.

More information on the 2011 Cal Football National Signing Day, including video highlights and player profiles is available by visiting CalBears.com/SigningDay, while additional coverage is also provided via Cal Athletics social media outlets Facebook (facebook.com/calathletics), Twitter (twitter.com/calathletics) and YouTube (youtube.com/calathletics).

After playing the last 88 seasons and every home game at Memorial Stadium since the facility opened for the 1923 Big Game, Cal will host its 2011 home contests at San Francisco's AT&T Park while Memorial Stadium undergoes an extensive renovation and retrofit. The Bears will return to Memorial Stadium for their 2012 home schedule.

Cal opens its 2011 season with a neutral-site non-conference game against Fresno State at Candlestick Park in San Francisco on Saturday, Sept. 3. The contest is not part of the previously announced 2011 season ticket package for five home games at AT&T Park. Fans will have the opportunity to purchase tickets for Cal vs. Fresno State at a later date.

Visit CalFootballSF.com for more information on 2011 Cal football at AT&T Park and stadium.berkeley.edu for updates on the progress of the renovation and retrofit of Memorial Stadium.

Season tickets for 2011 go on sale to general public Monday, Apr. 25, if available. Purchase your tickets online at CalBears.com or by calling (800) GO BEARS.
