USC – CAL NOTES

- Cal was the only team to defeat the co-national champion Trojans last year, winning a dramatic 34-31 triple overtime game last Sept. 27 in Berkeley on Tyler Fredrickson's 38-yard field goal.
- Although USC leads the all-time series, 56-30-5, Cal has won five of the last eight games between the schools, including consecutive games in Los Angeles in 1996 (22-15), 1998 (32-31) and 2000 (28-16). In '02, the Bears nearly ran their L.A. Coliseum streak to four, but lost 30-28 after building an early 21-3 lead.
- With 91 games played between the schools, the Cal-USC series is second only to Stanford (106 games) in the Golden Bear annals.

UCLA – CAL NOTES

- Since breaking an 18-game losing streak to the Bruins in 1990, Cal is 8-6 against UCLA, including five wins in a row from 1990-94.
- In last year's game in Pasadena, Cal scoring the tying touchdown on a 35-yard pass from Aaron Rodgers to Burl Toler with just 11 seconds left. However, UCLA won the contest with a 41-yard field goal in the first overtime period.
- The last two meetings in Berkeley have been nail-biters, with Cal winning both times. The Bears outlasted UCLA, 46-38, in triple overtime in 2000, then stopped the Bruins twice inside the 20-yard-line in the fourth quarter to squeak out a 17-12 decision in 2002.

ARIZONA STATE – CAL NOTES

- With 55-38 and 51-23 wins over Arizona State the last two seasons, Cal put together back-to-back 50-point outputs against one opponent for only the third time ever – both against Nevada (51 and 61 in 1921-22 and 54 and 60 in 1927-28).
- Arizona State is making its first trip to Berkeley since 1999. The last three games were played in Tempe and the teams did not meet in 2001.
- WR Geoff McArthur passed the 1,000-yard mark for the season in last year's game with four catches for 160 yards. His 40.0 ypc average was just shy of the school record of 45.3 ypc set by Wesley Walker at Georgia in 1976 (4-181).

OREGON – CAL NOTES

• Cal's coaching staff has more connections to Oregon than any other school. Not only was head coach Jeff Tedford Oregon's offensive coordinator from 1998-01, but defensive coordinator Bob Gregory, RB coach Ron Gould, WR coach Eric Kiesau and LB coach Justin Wilcox either played or coached for the Ducks prior to coming to Cal.

• Cal has not defeated Oregon since overcoming a 30-point first-half deficit in a 42-41 victory in 1993 – the largest comeback in school history.

STANFORD – CAL NOTES

- With 106 games played, the Cal-Stanford rivalry ties for the ninth longest in NCAA Division I-A history.
- Cal clinched its first bowl berth since 1996 with last year's 28-16 win. After spotting Stanford a 10-0 halftime lead, the Bears scored 28 unanswered points. WR Geoff McArthur set a school record with 16 receptions for 245 yards and two touchdowns.
- This year, Cal is looking for its first three-game winning streak vs. Stanford since 1958-60.

BIG GAME HISTORY & RECORDS

On Nov. 20, 2004, California and Stanford meet for one of the greatest rivalries in college football, the 107th renewal of the Big Game.

The series, which dates back to the first game in 1892, has featured some of the most memorable finishes in the history of the sport. Five contests have been decided on the final play and numerous others have had their outcomes in doubt in the closing seconds.

Stanford enters this year's match-up in Berkeley's Memorial Stadium with a 54-41-11 edge, but it has been a remarkably close rivalry with 50 Big Games having been determined by a touchdown or less. In the NCAA record book, the 106 games between the Bay Area schools ties for the ninth longest Division I-A series.

The status of the rivalry as one of the truly great sporting spectacles across the country was undoubtedly established in the very first game. Stanford upset Cal, 14-10, on March 19, 1892 in a contest played on a field at the corner of Haight and Stanyan streets in San Francisco. Stanford manager Herbert C. Hoover, later to become the 31st president of the United States, and his Cal counterpart counted the gate receipts and reported the then-staggering sum of $30,000.

The game continued to grow in popularity with capacity crowds becoming the norm. In 1923, Cal played its first game in Memorial Stadium vs. Stanford, with the Bears winning, 9-0, to cap an undefeated season. Stanford and Cal also played the first game in Stanford Stadium in 1921. The Bears won that meeting, 42-7, en route to the Rose Bowl.

In the 50th Big Game in 1947, Stanford led an 8-1 Cal team, 18-14, well into the fourth quarter. But with less than three minutes left, All-American Jackie Jensen rolled to his right and lofted a wobbly 15-yard pass to Paul Keckley, who ran 65 yards downfield for the winning score.

Cal achieved its greatest success in the series under Pappy Waldorf, who retired with a 7-1-2 record vs. Stanford from 1947-56. The 1949 game was highlighted by Jim Monachino's 84-yard run - still the longest rush by a Cal player in Big Game history.

In 1959, Cal withstood Stanford quarterback Dick Norman's 401 passing yards (then an NCAA record) and held on for a 20-17 victory.

Five games have been won on the final play, starting with the 1972 meeting in Berkeley. Cal trailed, 21-18, when it started its final drive on the Bear 38-yard line with 1:13 left. Eventually, Cal faced fourth down from the Stanford 7 with three seconds on the clock. But quarterback Vince Ferragamo completed a touchdown pass to a diving Steve Sweeney, giving the Bears a 24-21 win.

Two years later, Stanford's Mike Langford booted a 50-yard field goal as time expired to lift the Cardinal to a 22-20 decision over the 19th-ranked Bears.

In 1982, Cal won on a five-lateral, 57-yard kickoff return that will forever be remembered as, "The Play." Trailing 20-19, the Bears received Stanford's kick with just four seconds left. Cal proceeded to travel the length of the field and through the Stanford Band to produce an improbable 25-20 victory.

The Cardinal prevailed in 1990 by scoring nine points in the final 12 seconds. Stanford scored a touchdown with 12 seconds remaining, but failed on a two-point conversion. The Cardinal recovered the ensuing on-sides kick and took advantage of a 15-yard penalty on Cal one play later to set up at the 22-yard line. John Hopkins connected on a 37-yard field goal as time ran out for a 27-25 win.

Finally, in 2000, Cal and Stanford played the first overtime game in the history of the series, with the Cardinal emerging with a 36-30 triumph.

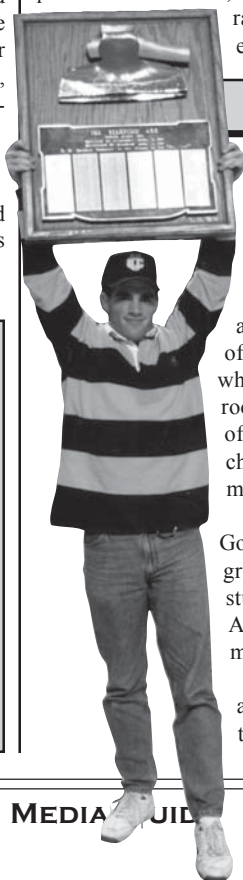

For the 100th renewal of the series, the teams donned uniforms representative of the ones they wore more than a half century earlier. On the night prior to the Nov. 21, 1997 contest, a gala event dubbed the "Big Auction" raised more than $1 million in scholarship funds for each school.

THE AXE

The Stanford Axe, the trophy awarded to the winner of the Big Game every year, actually made its debut on the eve of a baseball game between the rival universities on April 13, 1899. On that afternoon at a pre-game rally, a group of Stanford students introduced the instrument to decapitate a straw man adorned in California blue and gold, much to the delight of the Indian faithful who chanted "Give 'em the axe" while the proceedings continued. The next day, Stanford rooters taunted their Cal counterparts by cutting pieces of blue and gold ribbon with the Axe and by using it to chop at a designated piece of wood whenever the Indians made a good play.

Cal rallied for a stunning upset over Stanford and the Golden Bear fans were so overcome with emotion that a group of Cal men wrested it away from the Stanford students and smuggled it across the bay via ferry. The Axe was placed in a safe at a Berkeley bank, to be removed once a year for the Axe Rally.

By 1933, each side decided that the Axe would make an ideal Big Game trophy. It was mounted on a plaque that lists the scores of each game since 1933.
