California 56, Air Force 14

Sept. 4 – Falcon Stadium – Colorado Springs, Colo.

J.J. Arrington ran for 181 yards and three touchdowns, enabling the Bears (#13 AP/#14 ESPN/USA Today) to pull away for a 56-14 victory.

Unable to solve Air Force's unbalanced offensive line – three linemen on one side of the ball, one on the other – the Bears spent much of the first half trying to decipher where to line up. After an adjustment at halftime, Cal dominated the second half.

Air Force rolled up 214 yards on its first three drives, scoring two touchdowns. But the Falcons managed just 57 yards the rest of the game.

Cal's offense got off to a quick start and never really slowed. The Bears had touchdowns on their first three possessions and salted the game away with five more TDs in the second half. Cal finished with 573 yards, including 342 on the ground.

Arrington scored on runs of 11, 4 and 1 yards, the last touchdown coming on Cal's opening drive of the third quarter. Chase Lyman followed with a 78-yard TD catch from Aaron Rodgers, and tailbacks Terrell Williams, Marshawn Lynch and Justin Forsett capped the second-half outburst with touchdown runs in the fourth quarter.

California 41, New Mexico State 14

Sept. 11 – Memorial Stadium – Berkeley, Calif.

Before 58,949 fans – a school record for a home opener – California (#12 AP/#13 ESPN/USA Today) ran away with a 41-14 win.

For the second consecutive week, the Bears amassed more than 300 yards on the ground, this time rushing for 336 yards on 41 carries. Once again, J.J. Arrington led the assault with 177 yards on 16 rushes, including three touchdowns.

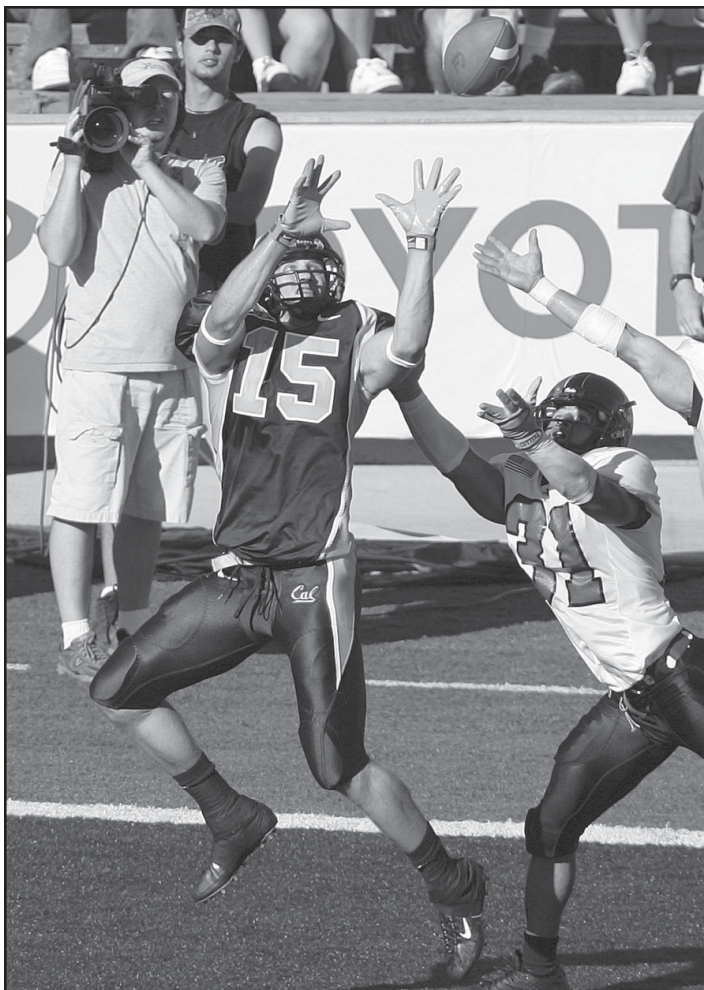

Arrington has six rushing TDs in the first two games this season, including a 69-yard burst midway through the third quarter.

In addition, quarterback Aaron Rodgers completed 20-of-26 passes for 266 yards and two scores, leading the Bears to 35 unanswered points after they fell behind behind, 7-6.

Tight end Garrett Cross led all receivers with a career-high six catches for 65 yards, while wide receiver Chase Lyman added four grabs for 111 yards. Geoff McArthur's 15-yard reception in the second quarter moved him into second place on Cal's career list for receiving yardage.

The Bears outgained the Aggies 353-96 in the first half and didn't punt until their opening series of the second half. Cal finished with 611 yards to 212 for New Mexico State, and the Bears almost doubled the Aggies with 27 first downs.

GAME 3 California 49, Oregon State 7

Oct. 2 – Reser Stadium – Corvallis, Ore.

California (#10 AP/#10 ESPN/USA Today) showed virtually no ill effects of a three-week break since its last outing, jumping out to a 21-7 first-quarter lead and cruising to a 49-7 victory at Oregon State Oct. 2.

Wide receiver Chase Lyman caught five passes for a career-high 176 yards and tied a school record with three touchdown receptions.

The Bears, who posted their highest point total ever at OSU, received a big boost when Marshawn Lynch returned the opening kickoff 69 yards to the Beaver 24-yard-line. Four plays later, Aaron Rodgers found Lyman cutting across the end zone for the first score of the day.

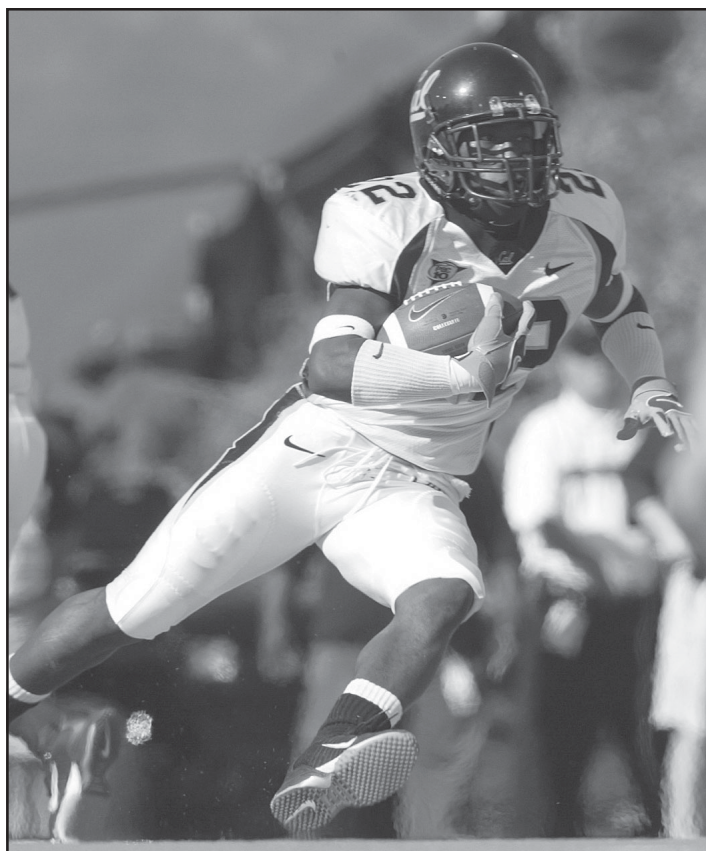

After OSU's Dwight Wright burst up the middle for a 45-yard TD run, Cal responded on its next offensive play. With the ball at the Bear 21, tailback Terrell Williams took the handoff and rolled left, then lofted a pass to a wide-open Lyman, who dashed the rest of the distance for a 14-7 advantage.

Lyman picked up his third score of the first quarter on a 31-yard strike from Rodgers just before the end of the period.

Rodgers finished the day 12-of-16 for 140 yards and three TDs, including a seven-yarder to fullback Chris Manderino in the third quarter. Tailback J.J. Arrington had his third 100-yard effort of the year with 108 yards on 22 carries.

The Bears limited OSU quarterback Derek Anderson to just 14 completions in 34 attempts for 137 yards, picking him off twice. In addition, Mike Hass, who entered the game leading the Pac-10 in receptions, had only two catches for 26 yards.

USC 23, California 17

Oct. 9 – Memorial Coliseum – Los Angeles, Calif.

Top-ranked USC seemed helpless as Aaron Rodgers picked away at its defense, hitting pass after pass.

But with California (#7 AP/#7 ESPN/USA Today) just nine yards from a potential winning score, the Trojans finally found a way to stop the Golden Bears' near-perfect quarterback.

The Trojans held the Bears out of the end zone after a first-and-goal with less than two minutes left and held on for a 23-17 victory before

Before Cal's final four plays, Rodgers was 29-for-31 for 267 yards and a touchdown, but at that point, USC got a sack and forced three incomplete passes.

Rodgers' final throw came with pressure coming and zipped by a diving Jonathan Makonnen in the end zone.

Matt Leinart threw two touchdown passes for the Trojans, who failed to get a first down in the fourth quarter.

The teams traded touchdowns to start the third quarter with Leinart hooking up with Dwayne Jarrett on a 16-yard score and Marshawn Lynch plunging in from two yards out for Cal to make it 23-17.

Cal dominated the fourth quarter putting together two long drives. However, Tom Schneider missed a 36-yard field goal wide right with 6:53 left that would have pulled Cal within three.

Rodgers tied the NCAA record for consecutive completions in a game with 23 – his first incomplete pass didn't come until a throwaway in the fourth quarter – while he broke the national mark for a season with 26 straight, dating back to the previous contest at Oregon State.

J.J. Arrington had 112 yards on 21 carries for the Bears, who outgained the Trojans, 424-205, but have still never beaten a No. 1 team in 7 tries.

GAME 5 California 45, UCLA 28

Oct. 16 – Memorial Stadium – Berkeley, Calif.

Geoff McArthur caught two of Aaron Rodgers' career-high four touchdown passes, and California (#8 AP/#9 ESPN/USA Today) racked up 550 total yards in a 45-28 victory over UCLA Oct. 16 in Berkeley.

J.J. Arrington ran for a career-best 205 yards and two scores for the Golden Bears, who were playing their first game in Berkeley in five weeks. The crowd of 69,898 was Cal's largest for a non-Stanford home game since 74,500 watched the Cal-Washington contest in 1991.

Rodgers was 19-of-29 for 260 yards, with nine of his completions going to Geoff McArthur, who finished with 163 yards receiving.

Drew Olson also threw four touchdown passes for UCLA, but the Bruins couldn't catch up after Cal took a 35-14 lead on McArthur's 80-yard score early in the fourth quarter.

Arrington, who had his fifth straight 100-yard game of the year, broke Chuck Muncie's school record for consecutive 100-yard efforts. Muncie had four 100-yard games in a row twice in 1975.

The Bears led 14-0 before UCLA scored two touchdowns in 56 seconds midway through the second quarter.

But Rodgers mounted an 80-yard scoring drive shortly before halftime, with Cal converting a fourth-and-6 before tight end Garrett Cross caught a 26-yard TD pass across the middle 17 seconds before the break.

GAME 6

California 38, Arizona 0

Oct. 23 – Arizona Stadium – Tucson, Ariz.

Aaron Rodgers threw three first-half touchdowns passes and J.J. Arrington topped 100 yards rushing for the sixth consecutive game to lead California (#7 AP/#8 ESPN/USA Today) to a 38-0 rout of Arizona Oct. 23 in Tucson.

Geoff McArthur also broke the Cal record for career receiving yards with his 11-yard TD catch 11 seconds before halftime. McArthur snagged six passes for 94 yards to give him 2,768 career yards, topping Bobby Shaw's mark of 2,731 set from 1994-97.

Rodgers completed 20-of-27 for 235 yards, while Arrington gained 135 yards in 24 carries, including a 1-yard touchdown run.

The Bears posted its first shutout since a 17-0 victory at UCLA on Oct. 16, 1999.

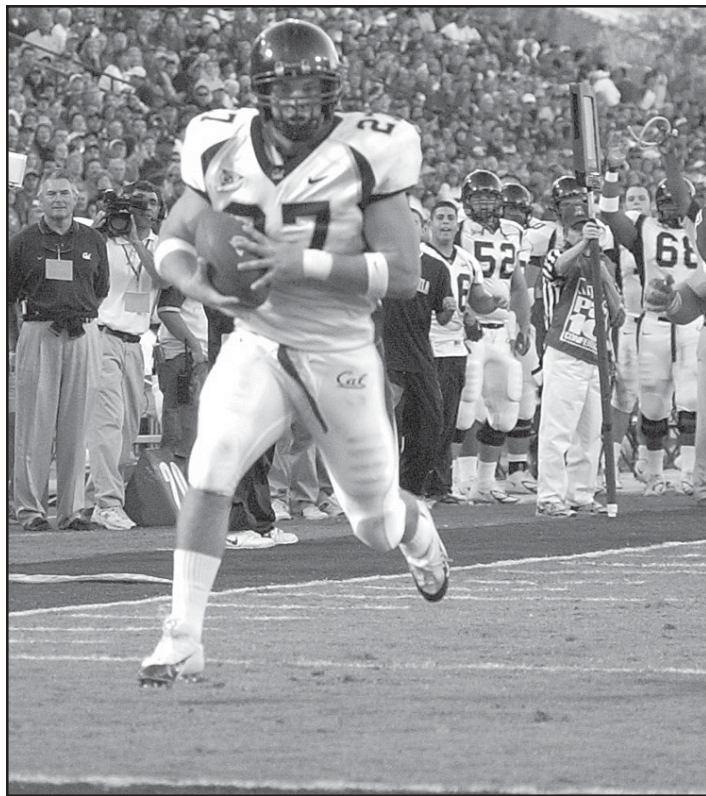

Cal scored twice in the final 1:38 of the first half to surge to a 28-0 lead. The Bears needed just 2:32 to go 82 yards in seven plays, finished off by a 21-yard pass from Rodgers to fullback Chris Manderino. Arrington carried four times for 56 yards on the drive.

Tim Mixon then made an acrobatic interception on the sidelines at the Arizona 48 with 35 seconds to play in the half. Rodgers threw 25 yards to McArthur, then Darrell Brooks was called for an illegal use of his helmet on a tackle to set up Rodgers' TD pass to McArthur that made it 28-0.

The Bears took the opening kickoff and went 80 yards in 11 plays, capped by Arrington's 1-yard run. The drive began when Rodgers threw a lateral to Terrell Williams, who passed 28 yards to tight end Garrett Cross.

Rodgers completed all five of his passes on Cal's second scoring drive, capped by a 15-yarder to Jonathan Makonnen for the touchdown to make it 14-0 with 13:54 left in the first half.

GAME 7

California 27, Arizona State 0

Oct. 30 - Memorial Stadium - Berkeley, Calif.

J.J. Arrington ran for 188 yards and a score, and California (#7 AP/#8 ESPN/USA Today) forced five turnovers in its second straight shutout victory, beating No. 20/21 Arizona State, 27-0, Oct. 30 in Berkeley.

Tim Mixon returned an interception 58 yards for a touchdown for the Golden Bears, whose defense held Sun Devils quarterback Andrew Walter without a TD pass while posting consecutive shutouts for the first time since 1968.

Cal blanked Arizona 38-0 the previous week before shutting down Walter and the Sun Devils' high-powered offense. ASU failed to score inside the 10 in the closing minutes, and Cal ran out the clock on the Sun Devils' first shutout loss since Sept. 30, 1995.

Freshman WR Robert Jordan caught seven passes for 116 yards and a touchdown in his second collegiate game, but Aaron Rodgers struggled to connect with his injury-plagued receiving corps. Rodgers threw a touchdown pass on the Bears' first play, but was held to 165 yards passing.

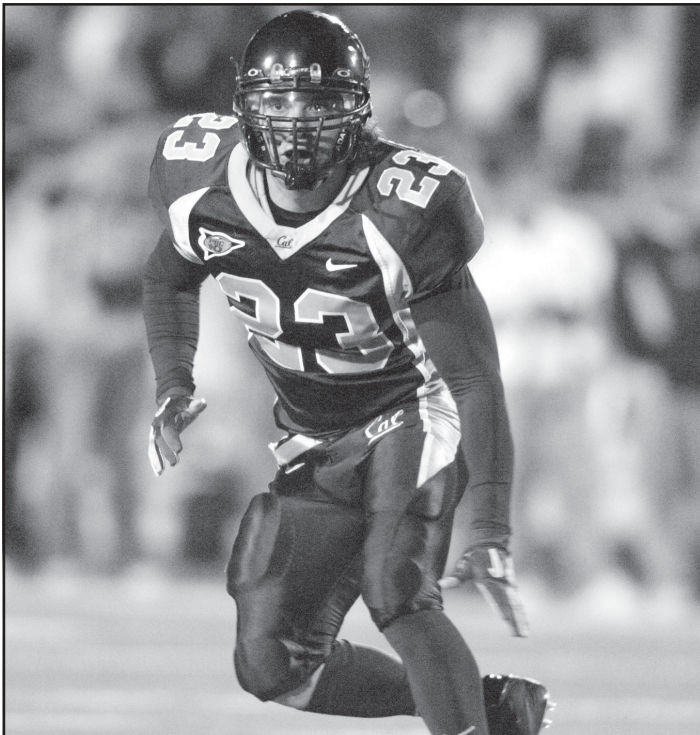

So Cal relied on Arrington, who reached 1,000 yards faster than any player in Cal history with his school-record seventh straight 100-yard game.

With veteran receivers Chase Lyman, Jonathan Makonnen and Burl Toler sidelined by injuries, the Bears relied heavily on Jordan, who expected to redshirt the season until the injuries forced his activation.

Turnovers plagued the Sun Devils from the opening kickoff when Josh Golden fumbled. Rodgers immediately found Jordan in the right corner of the end zone with a perfect scoring pass just 10 seconds in.

Cal got another break moments later when Tom Schneider's 48-yard field goal bounced off the crossbar, hit the television camera between the uprights and plopped back on the field. Officials initially ruled the kick no good, then reversed themselves after realizing what happened.

GAME 8 California 28, Oregon 27

Nov. 6 – Memorial Stadium – Berkeley, Calif.

Geoff McArthur caught eight passes for 121 yards and two touchdowns, and California's defense stopped Oregon near midfield with 1:39 left in the Golden Bears' 28-27 victory before 65,615 fans Nov. 6 in Berkeley.

Aaron Rodgers passed for 275 yards and three TDs, and J.J. Arrington ran for 188 yards and a score for the Bears (#4 AP/#6 ESPN/USA Today), who responded with a strong second half after falling behind, 27-14, in the second quarter.

Kellen Clemens threw four touchdown passes in the first half for the Ducks, who seemed headed for an upset after a dominant first half.

But two key mistakes made the difference: Jared Siegel missed an extra point in the first quarter, and Oregon's final drive ended when Keith Allen dropped a fourth-down pass that would have put the Ducks within field goal range.

Cal snapped a seven-game losing streak against Oregon with head coach Jeff Tedford's first victory over the school where he served as Mike Bellotti's offensive coordinator for four years.

The Bears' first adversity in a month brought out a gritty second-half performance. Facing a 27-21 halftime deficit, Cal made four sustained drives – but due to Tom Schneider's two missed field goals and a fumble by freshman Robert Jordan, the Bears got just seven points.

Cal went ahead on McArthur's 19-yard TD catch with 13:25 to play. After Schneider missed a 40-yard field goal with 4:20 left, Clemens drove Oregon 36 yards to the Cal 41 – but he threw four straight incompletions.

Oregon went ahead 27-14 late in the first half on a 73-yard drive capped by Marcus Maxwell's 7-yard TD catch, but Rodgers and McArthur connected twice on a 75-yard drive in 85 seconds shortly before halftime.

Freshman tailback Marshawn Lynch provided powerful running as Cal tallied 219 total rushing yards against the Ducks.

GAME 9 California 42, Washington 12

Nov. 13 – Husky Stadium – Seattle, Wash.

J.J. Arrington ran for 84 of his 121 yards in the second half and Aaron Rodgers shook off a slow start to throw two touchdown passes to help California (#5 AP/#6 ESPN/USA Today) beat Washington, 42-12, Nov. 13 in Seattle.

Freshman Marshawn Lynch added another 121 yards rushing with TD runs of 32 and 70 yards and a 29-yard scoring reception as the Golden Bears won their third straight over the Huskies.

The Bears didn't play their best, but their 35 second-half points were more than enough. Rodgers had two interceptions and Arrington was held to 37 yards rushing when Cal led 7-6 at the break.

The Bears woke up in the third quarter, starting with a blocked punt in Washington's end zone by Greg Van Hoesen. Justin Forsett recovered for a touchdown, and Cal was rolling.

The Huskies pulled to 14-12 early in the third on a 77-yard catch-and-run from Casey Paus to Craig Chambers, giving Washington fans reason to believe an upset was possible.

Those hopes were flattened when Cal scored twice in a span of just over a minute late in the third period.

Lynch broke a 32-yard scoring run, faking out one would-be tackler and beating another to the corner of the end zone. Paus then threw an interception to Cal's Wendell Hunter, leading to Arrington's 5-yard TD run and a 28-12 lead.

Rodgers made it 35-12 early in the fourth quarter with a 13-yard TD strike to Garrett Cross. Lynch broke into the secondary for a 70-yard run late in the fourth period to cap the scoring.

GAME 10 California 41, Stanford 6

Nov. 20 – Memorial Stadium – Berkeley, Calif.

J.J. Arrington ran for 169 yards to set California's single-season rushing record and the Golden Bears (#4 AP/#4 ESPN/USA Today) beat Stanford 41-6 Nov. 20 for their biggest victory in the Big Game since 1930.

Freshman Marshawn Lynch added 122 yards on just nine carries, including a spectacular 55-yard touchdown run. Lynch also threw a TD pass as the Bears racked up 474 total yards in coach Jeff Tedford's third straight victory over Stanford in the 107th edition of the rivalry.

Aaron Rodgers passed for 120 yards and a score, a 29-yard strike to freshman Robert Jordan in the first quarter.

With a sellout crowd of 72,981, Cal set a new record for average attendance (64,019) and went unbeaten at Memorial Stadium for the first time since 1950.

Geoff McArthur caught five passes to bring his career total to 195, surpassing Dameane Douglas' school record – but the Bears were carried by their dynamic rushing duo.

Arrington had his 10th 100-yard game of the season, and he made a 33-yard run shortly before halftime to surpass Chuck Muncie's single-season Cal rushing record of 1,460 yards in 1975.

Lynch finished with 122 yards on just nine carries and also completed a 20-yard touchdown pass to senior Burl Toler. Lynch and Arrington became the first Cal duo to post back-to-back 100-yard games after accomplishing the feat at Washington the previous Saturday.

Backup quarterback Reggie Robertson capped off the scoring with a five-yard dash up the middle with 3:05 left in the game.

GAME 11

California 26, Southern Miss 16

Dec. 4 – M.M. Roberts Stadium – Hattiesburg, Miss.

J.J. Arrington ran for 261 yards – the third-highest total in school history – and Aaron Rodgers threw two touchdown passes as California (#4 AP/#4 ESPN/USA Today) defeated Southern Mississippi, 26-16, Dec. 4 in Hattiesburg.

Arrington surpassed the 100-yard mark for the school-record 11th straight game. Rodgers was 15-of-28 for 223 yards for the Bears, who had 546 total yards and finished with 10 regular-season wins for the first time since 1949.

Southern Miss pulled to 17-16 on Dustin Almond's 1-yard touchdown run with 5:56 to play. But Darren McCaleb's potential game-tying extra-point attempt was blocked by Thomas DeCoud. Wendell Hunter returned it 85 yards for two points, giving Cal a 19-16 lead.

Arrington then ran 56 yards up the middle to set up Marshawn Lynch's game-sealing 12-yard touchdown run with 4:51 left.

Cal took the lead for good with touchdowns on consecutive second-quarter possessions. Rodgers tied it at 7-all on his 36-yard pass to Geoff McArthur, who ran through one tackle and sidestepped another on his way to the end zone.

The Bears then forced a three-and-out, got the ball back and scored again. Rodgers' 8-yard touchdown pass to Garrett Cross with 6:25 left in the half gave Cal a 14-7 lead.

Southern Miss took an early 7-0 lead on a flea-flicker. Almond took the pitch back from Sherron Moore and hit Anthony Perine over the middle for the 40-yard TD.
