

HALL OF FAMERS

The California Hall of Fame, which is located in the Hall of Fame Room in Memorial Stadium, honors the greatest Golden Bears in school history. Begun in 1986, the Hall features 199 individuals and five rowing teams. The following pages highlight the careers of all the Cal football players who are members of the Cal Hall of Fame.

TED ALBRECHT (Inducted 2000)

A standout offensive tackle for the Bears from 1974-76, Albrecht earned first team Associated Press All-America honors as a senior and went on to become a first round choice of the Chicago Bears. A two-time first team All-Pac-8 selection, he played alongside Joe Roth, Chuck Muncie and Wesley Walker in 1975 on one of the greatest offensive teams in school history. During that '75 season, he helped the Bears earn a share of the conference title, lead the NCAA in total yards and set a Cal modern record for most points in a season.

LEONARD "STUB" ALLISON (1997)

As Cal's head coach from 1935-44, Allison compiled a 10-year record of 58-42-2 and guided the Bears to a 13-0 Rose Bowl victory over Alabama in 1938. He was coach of Cal's "Thunder Teams," and his 1937 squad finished with a 10-0-1 mark and a No. 2 national Associated Press ranking. Among the All-Americans to play under Allison were Bob Herwig, John Meek, Sam Chapman, Jon Baker, Vic Bottari, Larry Lutz, Perry Schwartz, Vard Stockton and Bob Reinhard. Prior to arriving at Cal, Allison saw duty in World War I, where he earned the nickname "Top Sarge."

TROY AUZENNE (2003)

Auzenne, a left tackle for the Bears from 1988-91, earned first team All-American honors by the Football Coaches Association his senior year. Playing on Bear teams that won both the 1990 Copper Bowl (17-15 over Wyoming) and the 1992 Citrus Bowl (37-13 over Clemson), Auzenne earned All-Pac-10 first team recognition in his final season. Drafted in the second round by the Chicago Bears, he played six years in the NFL with the Bears (1992-95) and Indianapolis Colts (1996-97).

JON BAKER (1991)

Jon Baker lettered for the Bears in 1944, 1946, 1947 and 1948 as a guard on offense and a linebacker on defense. After earning second team All-Coast honors in 1947, he earned first team recognition in 1948. In those season, Cal won all but two games, capturing the conference championship in 1948 and going on to play in the 1949 Rose Bowl. He earned the Vard

Stockton Award as Cal's outstanding defensive player in the Rose Bowl. He also played rugby in 1947 and 1948. After graduating with a degree in civil engineering, he went on to a fine NFL career – he was the league's Rookie Defensive Lineman of the Year in 1949 for the New York Giants and an All-Pro in 1951. In 1952, he was named to the Pro Bowl.

STANLEY BARNES (1986)

Stanley Barnes played left tackle for Coach Andy Smith in 1919, 1920 and 1921 and the Golden Bears went 24-2-2 in those years. The 1920 and 1921 teams, the first of the five immortal Wonder Teams, went on to play in the Rose Bowl. Barnes, who served as President of his junior class, was elected to the National Football Hall of Fame in 1954.

STEVE BARTKOWSKI (1990)

The only Cal player ever picked No. 1 overall in the NFL Draft, Bartkowski quarterbacked the Bears from 1972-74. As a senior, he led the nation in passing with 2,580 yards, and he completed his career with a then-Cal-record four 300-yard passing games. Cal's Most Valuable Player and a consensus first team All-American in 1974, he was taken first in the professional draft by the Atlanta Falcons, playing in the NFL from 1975-86. In addition, Bartkowski was an All-American first baseman for the Bears in 1973 when he led the team with a .329 batting average.

VIC BOTTARI (1986)

Nicknamed "Vallejo Vic," Bottari was a starting halfback for Cal from 1936-38 and served as team captain as a senior. He suffered just one defeat his entire career and was a consensus All-America selection in 1938. He finished his career as the third-leading scorer in Cal history with 145 points. Bottari was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1996 and is also a member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. He later served as president of the San Francisco Touchdown Club.

JIM BREECH (1999)

One of the finest placekickers in both Cal and NFL history, Breech connected on 50 field goals for the Bears from 1974-77 and completed his career as the most accurate collegiate kicker ever inside 40 yards, hitting 30-of-34 efforts. He was a two-time first team All-Pac-8 performer, leading the conference in scoring in 1977 with 82 points. Drafted by the Detroit Lions, Breech spent 13 seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals and set an NFL record by scoring in 186 consecutive games.

SAM CHAPMAN (1986)

Chapman was a three-year starter at half-back from 1935-37 and was an outstanding player on both sides of the ball. He played on Cal's undefeated 1937 squad and earned first team All-America honors that season. In 1984, he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. Also an exceptional baseball player, Chapman batted .431 in 1936 and had a long career with the Philadelphia Athletics.

JIM "TRUCK" CULLOM (1995)

A first team All-Coast tackle in 1949, Cullom was known as "The Toe" for his kicking abilities. He set a Cal record by scoring in 25 consecutive games from 1947-49 and made 103 PAT attempts during his career. The Bears were 29-3 during his career and went to the Rose Bowl his junior and senior seasons. Cullom, who played briefly in the NFL, served as an assistant coach with the Bears from 1964-71 under Ray Willsey. He also was a standout rugby player at Cal and helped Doc Hudson coach that team upon his graduation.

SEAN DAWKINS (2005)

Dawkins, a consensus first team All-American wide receiver for Cal teams that earned back-to-back appearances in the Copper and Citrus Bowls following the 1990-91 seasons, snared 65 passes for 1,070 yards and a school-record 14 touchdowns to lead the Pac-10 during his senior season in 1992. Also named first team All-Pac-10 and Cal's most valuable player in 1992, Dawkins was chosen by the Indianapor is Colts in the first round of the 1993 NFL Draft. He played 10 years in the NFL with the Colts (1993-97), New Orleans (1998), Seattle (1999-2000), Jacksonville (2001) and Minnesota (2002).

CHARLEY ERB (1992)

One of the top quarterbacks in school history, Erb was a leader of Andy Smith's "Wonder Teams" that won consecutive conference championships in 1920, '21 and '22. He had a combined record of 27-0-1 as a starter, during which the Bears outscored their opponents, 1,200-81. Erb directed Cal to its first Rose Bowl appearance and No. 1 ranking in 1920. He teamed with Pesky Sprott, Crip Toomey and Duke Morrison to form the highest scoring backfield at Cal, rolling up 72 touchdowns and 510 points during the 1920 season.

ROD FRANZ (1986)

Cal's only three-time first team All-American in football, Franz was Cal's starting right guard from 1947-49. He helped the Bears to a 29-3 cumulative record and back-to-back Rose Bowl appearances. Also an assistant coach at Cal in 1956 and '57, Franz was elected to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1977.

WALTER GORDON (1986)

Gordon, a standout tackle and guard, was the first Cal player to achieve national recognition when he was chosen to the Walter Camp third team All-America squad in 1918. He earned three letters in football and helped the Bears to the Pacific Coast championship his senior season. Voted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1975, he also won the intercollegiate boxing title in 1917.

RUSTY GILL (2006)

A versatile three-year letterman, Gill played both fullback and halfback for Cal's football team. He was a dependable back who gained his greatest fame in his senior year, leading Cal to an 8-2 record and second place in the PCC in 1931. Gill was tabbed with an assortment of All-America honors, including first team by both the New York Journal and the American Football Players, second team by United Press and honorable mention by the Associated Press. A first-team All-Coast selection, Gill came from a very athletic family, as brothers Frank, Harry, Sam and Carol all played football at Cal

PERCY HALL (1993)

Hall was part of one of the top backfields during the early years of Cal football (1896-99), teaming with Locomotive Smith and Kangaroo Pete Kaarsberg. Cal historian Brick Morse selected him as the first team halfback on his 1937 all-time Golden Bear football squad. In 1898, Hall helped Cal to an 8-0-2 record, including the Bears' first Big Game win over Stanford when he gained 183 yards and scored a pair of touchdowns. In addition, he played three years on Cal's baseball team at both first base and in the outfield.

JIM HANIFAN (2006)

Jim Hanifan started three years at defensive end for the Bears, and in 1953 and 1954 he also started at tight end. The Bears' 1954 team captain led the nation in receiving with 44 receptions for 569 yards and seven touchdowns. He received the Andy Smith Trophy for most conference minutes, was a unanimous first-team All-Coast honoree and was chosen to the Catholic All-America team. After participating in the East-West Shrine Bowl, the Hula Bowl and the College All-Star game, Hanifan was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League and later starred for the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League. In 1973, he entered the coaching ranks and has been a long-time NFL assistant and is a former NFL head coach.

MATT HAZELTINE (1988)

Hazeltine was an All-American center for the Bears in both 1953 and '54, playing under head coach Pappy Waldorf. He also earned freshman All-America honors in 1951. After graduating from Cal, Hazeltine played 15 years in the NFL, the first 14 with the San Francisco 49ers, and garnered All-Pro mention several times.

GARY HEIN (1997)

A two-sport star for the Bears, Hein started at cornerback in 1985 and '86. He earned honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors as a senior and accumulated 132 tackles and eight interceptions during his career. Hein, though, gained most of his accolades on the rugby field, where he was a four-time All-American and captured the Woodley Award as the nation's top collegian in both 1987 and '88. He helped Cal to three collegiate titles and also played for the U.S. national team from 1986-94.

BOB HERWIG (1988)

A three-year letterman in both football and basketball from 1935-37, Herwig played on Cal's "Thunder Teams" on the gridiron. He picked up All-America honors at center his senior year and was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1964. On the basketball court, Herwig served as team captain his final year.

EDWIN "BABE" HORRELL (1987)

The starting center on Cal's undefeated "Wonder Teams" in 1923 and '24, Horrell served as captain of the 1924 squad, the same year he earned first team Walter Camp All-America honors. He played a big role in the first game ever contested in Memorial Stadium, tackling a Stanford runner in the end zone for a safety in a 9-0 victory. In 1969, Horrell was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

TALMA "TUT" IMLAY (2000)

A two-year letterman at halfback who played for Andy Smith, Imlay was a third team Walter Camp All-American in 1924. His running and pass-catching abilities helped the '24 squad to a No. 2 national ranking and an 8-0-2 record. After serving as team captain in 1925, Imlay played in the first East-West Shrine game and scored the game's first touchdown.

JACKIE JENSEN (1986)

One of the greatest athletes ever to play at Cal, Jensen excelled in both football and baseball for the Bears. On the gridiron, he earned first team All-America honors at running back in 1948 when he became the first Cal runner to rush for more than 1,000 yards (1,080 yards). For his career, he finished with 1,703 yards and averaged 6.0 yards per carry. In baseball, he was twice named All-American and helped Cal to the 1947 College World Series title. At the professional level, Jensen was voted the American League MVP while with the Boston Red Sox in 1958. He was voted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1984.

JOE KAPP (1992)

Kapp played both football and basketball for the Bears in the late 1950s before returning as head football coach from 1982-86. As a player, he quarterbacked Cal to the Rose Bowl following the 1958 campaign, a season in which he also earned first team All-America honors. Kapp also lettered in basketball in 1956 and '57. After graduating, he spent eight years in the Canadian Football League before moving to the NFL, where he led the Minnesota Vikings to the 1970 Super Bowl. As head coach of the Bears, he compiled a 20-34-1 record.

GROVER KLEMMER (1988)

A talented all-around athlete, Klemmer lettered in track & field, football and basketball in the early 1940s. Most of his exploits came in track, where he set a world record in the 400 meters (46.0) and the 440 yards (46.4). As anchor for Cal's mile relay in 1941, he helped the Bears to a world record-time of 3:09.4.

PAUL LARSON (1994)

The only Cal quarterback ever to lead the nation in total offense, Larson earned first team All-America honors in 1954 when he also paced the country in passing with 1,537 yards and completed 64.1 percent of his attempts. Almost 50 years after his career ended, he still ranks among Cal's Top 15 in total offense, passing yards, punt returns and kickoff returns. Larson was 3-0-1 vs. Stanford while at Cal and his 280 passing yards vs. UCLA in 1954 was a school record at the time.

HARRY LIVERSEDGE (1996)

A versatile athlete who made his biggest headlines in track & field, Liversedge also lettered at guard in football in 1916 and in rugby in 1914. He won a bronze medal at the 1920 Olympics in the shot put with a mark of 46-5 1/4 and was an alternate for the 1924 Olympic team. Liversedge went on to a distinguished military career with the U.S. Marines, receiving both a Navy Cross and a Bronze Star and rising to the rank of brigadier general. He also helped lead the Marines ashore during the Iwo Jima campaign in 1944.

BEN LOM (1991)

Lom lettered for the Bears from 1927-29 and earned All-Pacific Coast honors his last two seasons. He was a member of the Cal squad that played in the 1929 Rose Bowl and later served as the first president of the San Francisco chapter of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. However, he is perhaps best known as the player who tackled Roy Riegels near the goal line on his wrong way run in the '29 Rose Bowl.

MICK LUCKHURST (2005)

Luckhurst was a two-sport standout in rugby and football. He was named tournament MVP when he helped Cal to its first collegiate national rugby title by kicking a pair of penalty kicks and a dropkick to give the Bears a come-frombehind victory over Air Force in 1980. Also a standout placekicker on the Cal football team, he led the Bears in scoring as both a junior (55 points, 9-for-15 in field goals) and senior (14of-17 field goals). He later enjoyed a distinguished career in the NFL, playing for Atlanta from 1981-87.

LAWRENCE LUTZ (2003)

Lutz was voted a first team All-America tackle by Associated Press, the All-American Board and National American Newspaper Alliance in 1935. With Cal posting a 21-10-2 record during his three years (1933-35) on the team, he served as team captain on the '35 club that finished with a 9-1 mark. Known for his punt-blocking prowess, Lutz blocked punts against Oregon and UCLA his senior year, with both plays leading to winning touchdowns. Lutz also lettered in track & field as a discus thrower his senior year at Cal.

O.C. "CORT" MAJORS | CLINTON "BRICK" (1990)

One of only nine athletes in Cal history to earn letters in three different sports, Majors excelled in football, track & field and baseball from 1918-21. He served as captain of the 1920 football team that went 9-0, including a win over Ohio State in the Rose Bowl. Majors was also a shot put specialist on the track and twice lettered as a guard in basketball. He remained active with Cal Athletics after graduation, serving as president of the Big C Society and chairman of the Athletic Council.

DAN McMILLAN (1989)

A key member of Cal's "Wonder Teams" in both 1920 and '21 as a tackle, McMillan helped Cal to an 18-0-1 record and a pair of Rose Bowl appearances during that span. He was also a two-time second team All-American and was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1971. In addition, McMillan was a stroke in crew and served as captain in 1921.

JOHNNY MEEK (1989)

A multi-talented quarterback on Stub Allison's "Thunder Teams" in the 1930s, Meek served as captain of the 1937 squad that finished 10-0-1, including a 13-0 win over Alabama in the Rose Bowl. He also earned first team All-America honors that season.

JIM MONACHINO (1999)

Monachino was a first team All-American running back for the Bears in 1950. His 84-yard rush vs. Stanford in 1949 still stands as a Cal record in the Big Game, and his 189 net rushing yards during the contest established a school record (since broken). Monachino's performance earned him a spot on the all-time Cal Big Game team announced in 1997.

JESSE "DUKE" MORRISON (1997)

Jesse "Duke" Morrison lettered at fullback in 1920, 1921 and 1922 for Cal's 27-0-1 Wonder Teams. Eighty-four years after his career, he remains Cal's all-time leader in career touchdowns (42) and points in a season (131, 1922). His 277 career points were a Cal record for over 70 years and remains No. 2 on the all-time charts. Known for his powerful, twisting, dodging runs, Morris was named third team All-America by Walter Camp in 1922.

MORSE (1988)

The first three-sport letterman in Cal history, Morse set a number of track & field records and was an outstanding back on the football team from 1892-95. He also played outfield in baseball. Morse later served as the director of the Cal Glee Club for several years and composed "Sons of California" and "Hail to California," two of the best known Cal fight songs. He is the founder of the Big C Society and wrote a book entitled "California Football History," published in 1937 that detailed Cal football history from the start through the 1937 season.

CRAIG MORTON (1992)

Morton was a three-year starter at quarterback from 1962-64 who broke nearly every school record. He earned first team All-America honors as a senior and was the recipient of the Pop Warner Award, given to the most valuable senior on the West Coast. Morton finished his career with 4,501 passing yards, a Pac-8 record at the time and still No. 9 on Cal's all-time list. He was the fifth player selected in the 1965 NFL Draft and guided both the Dallas Cowboys and Denver Broncos to the Super Bowl. Morton was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1992.

HAROLD "BRICK" MULLER (1986)

Muller was the first Cal football player to earn first team All-America honors, receiving the recognition in both 1920 and '21. He led the Bears to a 27-0-1 record as a three-year starter and was voted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1951. Also a standout high jumper, he won a silver medal at the 1920 Olympics, clearing 6-2 3/4.

CHUCK MUNCIE (1995)

One of the finest running backs in Cal history, Muncie was the Pac-8 Offensive Player of the Year, a consensus first team All-American and the runner-up in the Heisman Trophy voting as a senior in 1975. He finished his career as Cal's all-time leading rusher with 3,052 yards (since broken), including 1,460 during his final campaign, a mark that still stands atop the Bear charts. Muncie was the No. 2 pick in the NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints and spent nine seasons in the NFL.

HARDY NICKERSON (2004)

Nickerson led the Golden Bears in tackles from 1983-85 and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player each season. A first team All-Pac-10 selection as a senior, his 167 stops as a junior remains a Cal season record, while his 501 career tackles rank second in school history. A fifth-round NFL draft pick by Pittsburgh in 1987, Nickerson played six seasons with the Steelers and seven more with Tampa Bay before ending his career with brief stops in Jacksonville and Green Bay, earning Pro Bowl honors five times.

JOHNNY OLSZEWSKI (1993)

A three-year letterman as a running back for the Bears from 1950-52, Olszewski earned first team All-America honors as a senior. As a sophomore in '50, he topped the 1,000-yard mark with 1,008 yards and finished his career with 2,504 yards, still fourth all-time at Cal. He was a first round choice of the old Chicago Cardinals and spent 10 seasons in the NFL.

ORVAL OVERALL (1987)

Overall played both football and baseball for the Bears from 1900-03. He was a four-year starter at guard in football and is best remembered for starring in three Big Games. He blocked a kick for a safety in a 2-0 victory in 1901, booted two field goals in a 16-0 win in '02 and kicked the Bears into a 6-6 tie in '03. Overall also lettered in baseball and went on to pitch nine years with the Chicago Cubs, where he played in four World Series

MIKE PAWLAWSKI (2002)

Pawlawski led Cal to back-to-back bowl appearances as the Bears' starting quarterback in 1990 and '91. In his first year as signal caller, he guided Cal to a 7-4-1 record, including a victory over Wyoming in the Copper Bowl. The next season, he earned Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Year honors when the Bears finished 10-2 overall, earned a No. 8 national ranking and defeated Clemson in the Citrus Bowl. As a senior, Pawlawski completed 60.4 percent of his passes for 2,517 yards and 21 touchdowns.

CLARENCE "NIBS" PRICE (1986)

A coaching fixture at Cal for more than 30 years, Price served as head coach of both the football and basketball teams during his career. In football, he was 27-17-3 from 1926-30 and led the Bears to the 1930 Rose Bowl. Price also handled basketball duties from 1924-54 and is the school's all-time victory leader, finishing with a 449-294 mark. He took the Bears to the Final Four in 1946. Price graduated from Cal in 1914 after lettering on the baseball team.

IRVINE PHILLIPS (1994)

Phillips played end for the Bears from 1926-28, earning first team All-America honors as a senior. He served as captain of Cal's 1928 team that went to the Rose Bowl and earned All-Coast honors in 1927 and '28. Phillips also lettered as a discus and shot put specialist in track & field.

BOB REINHARD (1990)

Reinhard claimed first team All-America honors at tackle in 1940 and '41. He was also a toprated punter for the Bears. In the 1941 Big Game, he sacked Stanford quarterback Frankie Albert for a 9-yard loss, blocked a punt and caught another blocked punt for a touchdown.

LES RICHTER (1987)

Another of Cal's National Football Foundation Hall of Fame members, Richter was a two time All-American at Cal during his 1949-51 career. He kicked 40 PATs in 1951 to set a Pacific Coast record. Richter played in two Rose Bowls with the Bears and also served as valedictorian of his graduating class. He went on to a nine-year NFL career with the Los Angeles Rams.

ROY RIEGELS (1998)

Riegels, a center, served as team captain in 1929 when he earned first team All-America honors and helped the Bears to a 7-1-1 record. However, he is most noted for his role in one of the most famous plays in college football history. In the 1929 Rose Bowl, he scooped up a Georgia Tech fumble and ran 69 yards the wrong way until teammate Benny Lom spun him around at the Cal 1-yard-line.

RON RIVERA (1994)

A consensus All-America linebacker his senior year in 1983, Rivera set a school record with 26.5 tackles for loss that season. He was also named the Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year and recipient of the Pop Warner Award as the top senior on the West Coast. He ended his career with 337 tackles, including 47.5 for loss. Rivera played for the Chicago Bears from 1984-92, winning a Super Bowl title in 1985, and he was the Bears' Man of the Year for community service in 1990.

STEVE RIVERA (2001)

Steve Rivera left Cal as the school's all-time leading receiver with 138 catches. He played in 1973, 1974 and 1975 and was a consensus All-American as a senior. In 1975, he also set Cal's single-season record with 57 catches and his 205 receiver yards in the 1974 Big Game marked the second best receiving day in Cal history at the time. Also a rugby player, Rivera spent four years in the NFL.

JOE ROTH (2000)

As quarterback, Roth directed Cal to an 8-3 record and the Pac-8 co-championship in 1975 when the Bears led the nation in total offense with an average of 458 yards per game. A first team All-American in 1976, he passed away in February 1977 after a battle with cancer. Roth's No. 12 is the only retired jersey in the history of Cal football, and he is remembered with a special display in the Cal locker room.

PETE SCHABARUM (1998)

A rugged fullback who was an all-conference selection on Cal's 1950 team, he helped the Bears to a 9-1-1 record and a Rose Bowl berth that season. He went on to play three years with the San Francisco 49ers. Schabarum also lettered in baseball at Cal in 1950.

HARVEY SALEM (2004)

Salem, a four-year starting offensive tackle at Cal from 1979-82, earned both first team All-America and Academic All-America honors his senior season. A two-time first team All-Pac-10 selection, he played on Joe Kapp's 7-4 team in 1982, a year that featured "The Play" in the now-famous Big Game. Drafted in the second round by Houston, Salem played 10 seasons in the NFL with the Oilers (1983-85), Detroit Lions (1986-91) and Denver Broncos (1991-92).

PERRY SCHWARTZ (2002)

Schwartz earned first team All-America honors as a member of Cal's 1937 Rose Bowl team. Perhaps his finest moment came in Pasadena when he forced an Alabama punt returner to fumble, a play that set up a Bear touchdown in Cal's 13-0 victory. Schwartz also displayed his talents on the tennis court, where he lettered for the Bears in 1934-35.

BERT SCHWARZ (1996)

Schwarz was a first team All-American for the Bears in 1929. A two-year starter at guard, he helped Cal to a 6-2-2 record and a Rose Bowl appearance following the 1928 season.

ANDY SMITH (1986)

One of the finest football coaches in the history of the game, Smith led Cal to a 74-16-7 record from 1916-25. His "Wonder Teams" posted a 50-game unbeaten string (46-0-4) during one stretch, and he guided the Bears to Rose Bowl appearances in 1920 and '21. Smith was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1951.

WARREN "LOCOMOTIVE" SMITH (1995)

Smith lettered in three sports at Cal - football, baseball and track & field - between 1898-1901. He was regarded as the top back on the West Coast at the turn of the century and led Cal to its first two wins over Stanford. Smith served as captain of both the football and baseball teams, and he was a hammer thrower during track season.

PESKY SPROTT (1993)

Sprott was a standout in both football and track & field from 1918-20. He lettered on the gridiron three times as a running back and punter. Also a middle distance runner, Sprott was the PCC champion in the 800 meters in 1920 and earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic team that year, finishing sixth in the 800.

VARD STOCKTON (2005)

Stockton, who died in an auto accident in 1946, earned first team All-America, All-Pacific Coast Conference and All-West Coast on Cal's 1937 football team that registered a 10-0-1 record, including a 13-0 win over Alabama in the Rose Bowl. Noted for his blocking ability that opened holes for the likes of Vic Bottari and Sam Chapman, perhaps his most shining moment came in the 1936 Big Game when he stole the ball from Stanford's Jimmy Coffis to set up a touchdown in Cal's 13-0 win over its crosstown rival.

JIM TURNER (1996)

Turner was a first team All-America tackle in both 1948 and '49. He served as captain of the '49 team that finished 10-1 and earned a Rose Bowl date with Ohio State. Turner overcame a knee injury his senior season and had one of his ribs removed prior to the '49 season because of a tumor.

CARL VAN HEUIT (1992)

One of the top safeties in college football who played on Pappy Waldorf's Rose Bowl teams of 1949 and '50, Van Heuit was a 1950 All-American for the Bears. He also earned the team's Vard Stockton Award for being the outstanding defensive player in the two bowl games. Following graduation, Van Heuit served as an assistant coach at Cal for six seasons and as a volunteer freshman coach for another 20 years. He was selected the Bear Backer "Bear of the Year" in 1988.

FRANK "BUD" VAN DEREN (2004)

A 1948 first team all-conference end, Van Deren played on Cal clubs that posted a 19-2 record during his two seasons (1947-48). Also selected to Cal's Centennial Team, he starred on a 1948 squad that registered a 10-1 mark and earned a share of the Pacific Coast Conference championship. Van Deren also coached on Pappy Waldorf's Rose Bowl teams of 1950 and '51, returned to Cal in the 1960s to coach on Ray Willsey's staff, and later served as head coach at Humboldt State for 26 years.

LYNN "PAPPY" WALDORF (1987)

Head coach at Cal from 1947-56, Waldorf compiled a 67-32-4 record. In his first four seasons, his teams lost only one regular season game and played in three Rose Bowls. Between 1947 and 1951, Waldorf's teams played 38 consecutive regular season games without a defeat. He also has the best record of any Cal coach in the Big Game with a 7-1-2 mark. Waldorf was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1966.

WESLEY WALKER (1992)

One of the greatest deep threats in Cal history, Walker was a prolific receiver for the Bears from 1973-76, in addition to starring on the track team for four years. He set an NCAA record for highest average gain per catch in a career (minimum 75 catches) at 25.7 ypc. Walker finished his career with 86 receptions for 2,206 yards and 23 touchdowns, with his greatest game coming against San Jose State in 1976 when he had eight grabs for 289 yards. He went on to a long career with the New York Jets and earned All-Pro honors several times.

ED WHITE (1993)

White earned first team All-America status at noseguard in 1968, playing on Cal's "Bear Minimum" defense that allowed opponents an average of only 3.6 yards per play. At the NFL level, he switched to the offensive line and earned

All-Pro honors several times with the Minnesota Vikings during a 17-year pro career. White returned to Cal to coach the offensive line from 1999-2001.

RUSSELL WHITE (2003)

White, Cal's all-time rushing leader with 3,367 yards and a 5.1 yards-per-carry average during his three years in Berkeley, was a key member the 1991 team that posted a 10-2 record, including a 37-13 victory over Clemson in the Citrus Bowl, and earned a No. 7 national ranking. A first team All-American in 1991 and two-time first team All-Pac-10 selection, he led the Bears in rushing in both 1991 (1,177 yards, 14 TDs) and 1992 (1,069). He registered 15 100-yard rushing days during his Cal career to tie Chuck Muncie's school record.

SHERMAN WHITE (1989)

Sherman White had played little football before coming to Berkeley as a sophomore in 1969. In his second year with the team (1970), he sacked opponent quarterbacks 18 times, including Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett twice in the Big Game. He also knocked down five passes, made 44 unassisted tackles and aided in 31 others. He was named first team All-Coast and all-conference. A team captain in 1971, he registered 75 tackles and three pass break-ups and was named all-conference and consensus All-American. He was a first round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals and played for them from 1972-75 before joining the Buffalo Bills from 1976-83.

ARLEIGH WILLIAMS (2004)

Williams starred in both football and baseball in the 1930s and earned first team All-America notice as a senior halfback in 1934. Williams remains the Bears' No. 17 all-time rusher with 1,404 yards on 526 carries. Williams lettered on the 1934 and 1935 Cal baseball teams, with both clubs finishing first in the conference and combining for a 45-15-1 record during that period.

JACK YERMAN (1994)

Yerman lettered as a running back in 1957 and 1958 and was on Cal's 1959 Rose Bowl squad. On the track, he was one of the top quarter-milers in the nation, running a best of 46.0 in the 400 meters. Yerman won an Olympic gold medal as part of the U.S. 1600-meter relay in 1960 and also competed as an individual in the 400. He finished third in the NCAA 440 yards in 1958.

NATIONAL HALL OF FAME

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION HALL OF FAME

The California Golden Bears depicted on this page have earned the highest honor accorded a collegiate football player — membership into the National Foundation Hall of Fame. California's proud gridiron tradition is showcased by a total of 21 Golden Bears enshrined in the Hall of Fame, a number which ranks the Blue & Gold among the top schools in the country.

Housed in a $6 million structure in South Bend, ID, the Hall of Fame first opened its doors in 1978 and is open to the public year-round.
