RON GOULD

Running Backs • 10th Season at Cal

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Cal has produced a 1,000-yard rusher each of the past four years, including J.J. Arrington, who was a consensus first-team All-American in 2004 after leading the nation with 2,018 yards.
- Other Cal tailbacks to rush for 1,000 yards or more under Gould's tutelage are Joe Igber (1,130 yards in 2002), Adimchinobe Echemandu (1,195 in 2003) and Marshawn Lynch (1,246 in 2005). In addition, Justin Forsett ran for 999 yards in 2005.
- Lynch ranked seventh nationally with his 1,246-yard effort last season and was named MVP of the Las Vegas Bowl last December after rushing for 194 yards and three touchdowns vs. BYU.
- Cal ranked ninth in the country in rushing offense in 2005, after leading the Pac-10 in 2003 and '04 – the only time the Bears have topped the conference in consecutive seasons.
- During the 2003 season, Cal led the Pac-10 in rushing touchdowns with 28 and each of the Bears' top three rushers averaged at least 5.0 ypc.
- Gould coached on the defensive side at Boise State for four seasons and in 1994, the Broncos were the NCAA Division I-AA runner-up and ranked among the nation's Top 5 in pass efficiency defense and scoring defense.
- Gould helped developed Boise State cornerback Rashid Gayle into a 1994 All-American.
- As an assistant coach at Portland State in 1992, Gould helped the Vikings to the NCAA Division II semifinals, with two of his defensive backs earning all-conference honors.
- Gould has served a number of internships with NFL teams in recent years: Green Bay (2000), Atlanta (1999), San Francisco (1998), St. Louis Rams (1995), Los Angeles Rams (1994) and Arizona (1993).

JIM MICHALCZYK

Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line • Fifth Season at Cal

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

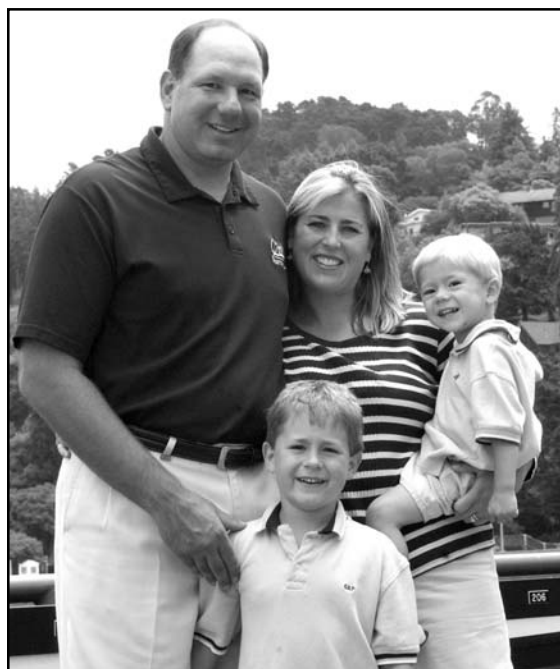

- Michalczyk's O-line has led the way for Cal's offense to average more than 350 yards each of the past four seasons, including a school-record 492.4 ypg in 2004.
- Center Marvin Philip and tackle Ryan O'Callaghan were voted first-team All-Pac-10 in both 2004 and '05, and all five starters received all-conference recognition following the 2004 season.
- O'Callaghan won the Morris Trophy as the top offensive lineman in the Pac-10 in 2005, while Philip was a second-team Associated Press All-American in '04, as well as a Rimington Award finalist in both 2004 and '05.
- Cal has ranked in the Top 10 nationally in rushing offense the past two years – ninth in 2005 (235.3 ypg) and sixth in 2004 (256.8 ypg).
- The Bears' O-line protection has allowed Cal quarterbacks to produce four of the five highest TD passing totals in school history since 2002.
- The Bears led the Pac-10 in rushing offense in both 2003 and 2004 – the only time Cal has paced the league in back-to-back seasons.
- Cal has produced four different 1,000-yard rushers – including one 2,000-yard rusher – over the past four years.
- In 2003, tackle Mark Wilson earned first-team All-Pac-10 notice when the Bears produced a 1,000-yard rusher, a 1,500-yard receiver and a 2,500-yard passer.
- While at Oregon State, he contributed to Oregon State's first winning season and bowl berth in 29 years during the 1999 campaign, and the 2000 Beavers won a share of the Pac-10 title and beat Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl.
- Michalczyk was on staff at Miami (Fla.) when the Hurricanes won the national championship with a 22-0 win over Nebraska in the 1992 Sugar Bowl.

PROMINENT PUPILS

- Mark Wilson (California): OT started 48 career games – a record for a Cal lineman; first-team All-Pac-10 in 2003

DIRECTOR, EVENT MANAGEMENT
14th YEAR AT CAL

Gordon Bayne is in his 14th season with the Golden Bears. In his current position of assistant athletic director for event management, Bayne coordinates all game-day operations and activities. His staff includes Gloria Kaci and Diane Milano, who also oversees Cal's spirit groups.

Bayne also has served as an event representative with the McAfee Coliseum and Oakland Arena, as well as assisting with game operations for the Pac-10 men's and women's basketball tournaments and the Pete Newell Challenge. Bayne also served as an intern with the Oakland A's.

A Berkeley native, Bayne received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Hampton University and his master's degree in sports administration from Temple. He and his wife, Tamara, live in Oakland with daughter, Kiara.

KEVIN DAFT

UC DAVIS ('99)
GRADUATE ASSISTANT, OFFENSE
THIRD YEAR AT CAL

After a six-year professional football career, Kevin Daft joined the Golden Bears as an offensive graduate assistant in June 2004. In that position, he works with the Cal coaching staff on game-planning, opponent scouting and individual player development.

After a standout collegiate career at UC Davis, Daft was selected in the fifth round of the 1999 NFL Draft by Tennessee and was a quarterback for the Titans during their run to the 1999 Super Bowl. The California native was also a member of the San Diego Chargers (2000), Atlanta Falcons (2001) and San Francisco 49ers (2001) before re-joining the Titans in 2002. During action in NFL Europe, Daft led the Scottish Claymores to the World Bowl in 2000 and played for the Amsterdam Admirals in 2002. He then spent two seasons in the Arena Football League with the San Jose SaberCats in 2003 and the Indiana Firebirds in 2004.

As a collegian at UC Davis, Daft was one of the most prolific passers in the history of the school and set five NCAA Division II records. He was inducted into the UC Davis Athletic Hall of Fame in June 2005.

Daft earned his bachelor's degree in biology from UC Davis. He and his wife, Kesa, reside in Berkeley with their daughter, Talia.

BRETT FLORES

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT
MANAGER
SECOND YEAR AT CAL

Brett Flores joined the Cal equipment staff in 2005. He works with the Golden Bear football team as well as with the softball, field hockey, lacrosse, women's crew and women's golf teams.

Flores earned his bachelor's degree in business from Oregon in 2005. He worked for four years as a student manager with the Duck football team, assisting current Cal equipment manager Ed Garland.

A native of Danville, Calif., and a De La Salle High School graduate, Flores now lives in Walnut Creek.

MATT FOX

OREGON ('01)
VIDEO COORDINATOR
FIFTH YEAR AT CAL

Matt Fox is entering his fifth year as the video coordinator for Cal Football. He assists the football program with its video evaluation from practices and games, in addition to coordinating video projects for recruiting, motivational and instructional tapes and other electronic needs within the department.

After serving as a student assistant in the video office at Oregon from 1999-2000, Fox spent the 2001 season as the assistant video coordinator at TCU. He joined the Cal staff in March 2002.

Fox, a native of Lake Oswego, Ore., earned a business administration degree from Oregon in 2001.

ED GARLAND

OREGON ('87)
HEAD EQUIPMENT MANAGER
SECOND YEAR AT CAL

Ed Garland enters his second season as head equipment manager at Cal after serving for 16 years as an assistant equipment manager at Oregon.

Since joining the Duck staff in 1989, Garland's focus was football operations. He also was the head student football manager at Oregon during his undergraduate years. He was also an assistant equipment manager for the Portland Breakers of the USFL in 1985.

The Vale, Ore., native earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Oregon in 1987. After graduation, he worked in retail management in Chicago for 15 months before returning to Eugene.

Ed and his wife, Beth, are the parents of one daughter, Bryn Marie.

DENIS HALLIN

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT
UC SANTA BARBARA ('00)
THIRD YEAR AT CAL

Denis Hallin begins his third year with the Cal football program after working in the athletic business office from 2000-04. Hallin provides administrative support to the coaching staff and is a key player in the program's behind-the-scenes operations.

Hallin resides in Oakland, where he was born and raised.

MARK JENSEN

CAL ('01)
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER
DEVELOPMENT
SECOND YEAR AT CAL

Mark Jensen joined the Cal football staff in the fall of 2005 as the director of player development. In that position, he is responsible for academic performance of the Cal football players, including the academic game plan. He also runs a job placement and summer internship program for Cal players and is the liaison between the football program and the Berkeley campus.

Jensen was a placekicker for the Cal football team from 1998-2002 and holds the school record for points by a kicker with 107 in 2002. He currently ranks fourth all-time in scoring for the Bears.

A native of Denmark, Jensen earned his master's degree in education in 2003 from UC Berkeley after earning his bachelor's degree in development studies in 2001. After earning his master's, Jensen spent three years in the NFL and NFL Europe, making stops with the Detroit Lions, St. Louis Rams, Scottish Claymores and Oakland Raiders.

Jensen married his wife, Kelly, in June, 2002, and the couple enjoys traveling. Their son, Jack, was born in April 2005. Jensen is a dual citizen of the U.S. and Denmark and speaks fluent German.

SANJAY LAL

WASHINGTON ('92)
OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT
THIRD YEAR AT CAL

Sanjay Lal is in his third year as an offensive assistant with the Cal football team.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Lal served on the football staff at Saint Mary's College. He garnered additional coaching experience as the wide receivers coach at Los Medanos College (2003) and as an assistant coach at Miramonte High School (1996-02).

As the passing game coordinator at Miramonte, Lal helped develop quarterbacks Ken Dorsey (Miami, San Francisco 49ers), Drew Bennett (UCLA, Tennessee Titans), Adam Smith (Duke), Taylor Humphrey (Hawaii) and Mark Guillion (Miami, Alabama). During Lal's tenure, Miramonte won four North Coast Section championships, including a 13-0 record in 2001.

Lal competed collegiately at Washington, where he was a wide receiver for the 1991 national championship team. Additionally, the Husky Hall of Fame selection was a member of two Rose Bowl teams while at UW. Before transferring to Washington, he was a member of the 1989 UCLA Cotton Bowl championship team.

After graduating from Washington with a degree in business administration in 1993, Lal was invited to the Oakland Raiders' training camp and subsequently signed as a free agent with the St. Louis Rams in 1998 and then with the Scottish Claymores of the World League in 1999.

TOSH LUPOI

CAL ('05)
GRADUATE ASSISTANT, DEFENSE
FIRST YEAR AT CAL

Tosh Lupoi joined the Cal coaching staff following the 2005 season after playing on the Golden Bears' defensive line from 2001-2005. A leader for Cal's defensive unit during his career, he garnered experience in a coach's role as he fought through several injuries during his career. After being granted a sixth year of eligibility for 2005, his final season was once again marred by injuries as he saw action in eight games.

A product of Walnut Creek, Lupoi earned his bachelor's degree in American studies in 2005 and is pursuing a master's in education.

Lupoi was a second-team all-state offensive lineman at De La Salle High School. His father, John, played at BYU in the early '70s and was a part-time assistant coach at Cal in the mid-'70s.

Lupoi trains dogs as a hobby and business.

ANDREW MCGRAW

CAL ('95)
RECRUITING ASSISTANT
11TH YEAR AT CAL

A Cal graduate, Andrew McGraw has been involved with the Golden Bear football program since the mid-1990s. He is entering his seventh season as Cal's primary recruiting administrative assistant, helping the Bears to several highly ranked recruiting classes during that time. In addition to McGraw's office duties, he serves as the high school football camp director.

McGraw started his tenure at Cal in 1996 as a recruiting assistant under head coach Steve Mariucci and his staff. In 1997 and '98, McGraw worked as a defensive assistant, helping the Bears finish third in the conference in both total defense and scoring defense in 1998.

McGraw received his degree in geography from Cal in 1995. He and his wife, Stephanie, reside in Oakland with their son, Zach.

DAVE MOOSMAN

EQUIPMENT MANAGER
SIXTH YEAR AT CAL

Dave Moosman begins his sixth season year as an equipment manager at Cal this fall. His principle duties are with the football, gymnastics, tennis and rugby teams. He also coordinates Cal's staff of student managers.

A certified equipment manager through the American Equipment Managers Association, Moosman joined the Bear program full-time in 2001 after six years as a Cal equipment staff gameday volunteer. Prior to 2001, he spent 20 years as a painting contractor.

Moosman has two grown children, Lucas and Lindsay.

KEVIN PARKER

OREGON ('99)
RECRUITING ASSISTANT
FIFTH YEAR AT CAL

Kevin Parker begins his fifth season as a recruiting assistant with the California football program this fall. In that position, he assists the coaching staff with all aspects of on-campus recruiting.

An Oakland native who graduated from Skyline High School, Parker played both tailback and wide receiver Oregon. He was twice named Oregon's Most Inspirational Player. He spent part of the 2001 season with the Detroit Fury of the Arena Football League and has worked with the East Bay Conservation Corps, an Oakland-based organization that offers young people community-service jobs while providing classroom instruction.

Parker earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Oregon in 1999. He has two sons, Kevin II and Kevion, and a step-son Larry White. He and his wife Melissa were expecting their first son, Jayden, in June.

DEBBIE SCHRAM

CAL STATE HAYWARD ('85)
ASSISTANT TO COACH TEDFORD
21ST YEAR AT CAL

Debbie Schram enters her 21st year working at the University of California and her 10th working directly with the football office. In her current position as head coach Jeff Tedford's primary administrative assistant, she coordinates his schedule and appointments, including commitments with media, boosters, alumni and staff. She also assists the entire offensive coaching staff.

Prior to working with the football program, she worked in the Athletic Department's business office.

A 1985 graduate of Cal State Hayward in business administration, she and her husband, Jack, have two children, Griffin and Madison.

BUD TURNER

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
36TH YEAR AT CAL

A longtime member of the Golden Bear program and one its most recognizable faces, Bud Turner has been a part of the Cal staff since 1970. Turner has worked with every area of football operations, most closely with the equipment and training staff and now serves in security and operations.

Turner, who also oversees field security at practice and game days, holds a lifetime honorable Big C and is a member of the Sons of California.

Affectionately known as "Dog," Turner and his wife, Joan, live in Walnut Creek. They have three children - Kim, Kurt and Kristi - and four grandchildren.
