Cal FOOTBALL

- California finished the 2005 season ranked No. 25 in both the Associated Press and USA Today football polls. It marked the first time since the 1950 and 1951 seasons that Cal finished a season ranked in the national polls in consecutive years. The Bears were No. 9 in the 2004 final polls.
- Since the arrival of Jeff Tedford, California's season ticket count has been on a steady climb. The Bears sold 16,200 tickets in 2002, Tedford's first year. His second season resulted in sales of 22,500. In 2004, the number again jumped substantially, up to a school-record 34,100. In 2005, California set another record with 40,134 season tickets sold.
- The Bears have won 26 games over the past three seasons (26-12). It is the most victories by California over a three-year period since the 1949-1950-1951 teams combined to win 27 games.
- When California climbed to No. 9 in the AP poll in October, it marked the first time Cal had appeared in the top 10 in consecutive seasons since the 1951 and 1952 seasons.
- In October 2005, California broke a school record by winning its eighth straight Pac-10 Conference game.
- California has won at least seven games in all four seasons under Jeff Tedford and the Bears have won at least eight games each of the last three seasons.
