

MEN'S HEAD COACH

PETER WRIGHT

Head Coach
14th Year at Cal

In his 14th year at the helm of the California tennis program, Peter Wright has developed a reputation for developing individual talent and building strong teams.

His Golden Bear teams are known for their strategic and tactical knowledge, as well as their mental toughness.

Wright's coaching talent hasn't gone unnoticed. Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 2001 and in 1997, he received his first coaching award in 1994 when he was named Wilson/ITA Regional Coach of the Year for guiding the Bears back to postseason play after Cal had missed the Big Dance the previous two seasons. Wright and the Bears have been a fixture in the NCAA Tournament almost every year since.

The ninth coach in the 114-year history of Cal tennis, Wright has compiled a 176-126 (.583) career record during his tenure in Berkeley. Last season, the Bears advanced to the second round of the NCAA Championships. It was the seventh consecutive year that Cal advanced to the NCAA Tournament, and it ended the season with a final ITA ranking of 21. In addition, Wright also guided last season's team leader, Conor Niland, to the Pac-10 Men's Player of the Year award and All-America recognition. The 2005 Bears also advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and ended the year with a No. 23 national ranking. In 2004, the team ended with a No. 30 ranking and a second round NCAA Tournament appearance. Wright's 2003 team ended the season ranked fourth nationally, and boasted two All-Americans and three all-conference selections. Their 21-5 record in 2003 surpassed their 2002 mark of 19-7, which at the time was considered the school's all-time best squad since joining the Pac-10. In 2003, the Bears finished in second-place, which is California's best-ever showing in the competitive league. The 2002 season also marked the first time that Cal enjoyed a series sweep of UCLA since 1953 and the first time ever that the Bears beat Stanford, UCLA and USC in the same season.

A four-year letterman during his collegiate career at Cal, Wright worked his way to the No. 1 singles and doubles positions in the Bears lineup before joining the men's professional tour in 1986. In his six years as a pro, Wright played in numerous tournaments around the world including Wimbledon and the Australian Open. In addition to a doubles victory over Pete Sampras, Wright's career highlights include playing Andre Agassi, Goran Ivanisevic, David Wheaton, Marc Rosset, Jonas Bjorkman and Tim Henman.

Wright's tour highlights include representing Ireland in the Davis Cup from 1988-95. His parents, Stanley and Elizabeth, were born and raised in Ireland, allowing Wright to compete as an Irish national. He has won numerous Irish national singles and doubles championships, and was instrumental in Ireland's upset victories over Greece, Spain and Belgium when Ireland captured the 1992 European Cup.

In addition to playing in the Davis Cup for Ireland, Wright served as the Irish Davis Cup captain from 1995 - 2003. He also served as the head coach of the 1996 Irish Olympic tennis team in Atlanta.

In addition to his coaching duties at Cal, Wright is currently the chairman of the NCAA men's tennis committee and serves on the executive board of directors of the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA).

His community involvement includes serving as vice-president of Youth Tennis Advantage, whose mission is to inspire inner-city kids to achieve their full potential through tennis and academic programs. In 2001, he established the BearTrax program at Cal, which brings YTA children from Oakland to the Berkeley campus for academic tutoring with Cal students and tennis tutoring with the Cal men's and women's teams.

A Berkeley native, Wright was born in San Francisco on Dec. 8, 1963, attended Berkeley High School and earned a B.A. in Social Science from Cal after returning to school in 1991. His wife of 14 years, Fionnuala, is a former Irish national tennis champion and a former member of the Irish national basketball team. The Wrights currently reside in Berkeley with their sons, Thomas and Michael, and daughter, Carly.

MEN'S COACHING STAFF

MORTEN CHRISTENSEN

Assistant Coach
Second year at Cal

One of Europe's most successful players for more than a decade, Christensen returns to California, where he assisted Coach Wright for the 1999-00 season.

Between his two stints with the Golden Bears, he was the national head coach in Denmark from 2000-06, coaching all members of the National Tennis Centre and all the national teams.

Before coming to California, Christensen had been a fixture in Danish tennis since 1984, winning 17 Danish national titles (five singles, 12 doubles), and representing his nation in the Davis Cup from 1984-96. The Copenhagen native's distinguished pro career (1986-93) included wins over such ATP stars as Thomas Muster, Goran Ivanisevic, Emilio Sanchez, Magnus Gustavsson and Martin Damm.

Christensen also won five ATP Challenger tournaments in doubles, and represented Denmark in the 1988 Seoul Olympics, reaching the quarterfinals in doubles.

Immediately before joining the Bear program, Christensen was a member of the Danish Tennis Federation's executive committee from 1995-99, where his responsibilities included overseeing the National Tennis Center and the Danish Elite Tennis Program. He holds the Danish Tennis Federation's highest coaching diploma. Christensen was also in charge of sales, marketing and promotion for Penn balls and Prince rackets in Denmark.

WAYNE FERREIRA

Volunteer Assistant Coach
8th year at Cal

Wayne Ferreira continues as an assistant coach with the Cal program while still playing on the professional tour. Recently retired, Ferreira was a 14-year ATP Tour veteran, he finished the 1995 and 1996 seasons ranked in the Top 10 in the world.

Ferreira was one of the most successful players on the pro circuit in the 1990s, having won 20 career titles since turning pro in 1989. Ferreira's career prize money tops $8 million. His highest ever ranking in singles was No. 6 (1995) and in doubles No. 11 (2000).

In 2004, his final year on the pro circuit, Ferreira participated in his record-breaking 55th consecutive Grand Slam tournament, the longest streak by any player. Ferreira eclipsed Stefan Edberg's record of 54 when he advanced to the third-round of Wimbledon.

One of his 2003 highlights came in August when Ferreira saved three match points to defeat Australian-star Lleyton Hewitt, (6-3, 4-6, 7-5), to claim the Mercedes Benz Cup title at the UCLA Tennis Center.

Three seasons ago, Ferreira turned in one of his most consistent performances, advancing to the fourth round in every 2002 Grand Slam event. He finished the year with a No. 38 ranking in singles and No. 52 in doubles.

Wayne and his wife, Liesl, live in Lafayette with their sons, Marcus and Magnus.
