

4005 TOURNAMENT
GAME-DRY COMPOSITE LEATHER
PREMIUM GAME BALL

4005 TOURNAMENT
GAME-DRY COMPOSITE LEATHER
PREMIUM GAME BALL

*"I'm moving forward in my life,
as I continue to look in the mirror.
My reflection reveals the Nike swoosh to assure me that it's always right there by my side."*

HAMP TON

Hangin' with Nei

Other sport I would play...swimming but I don't know how

My celebrity crush...Dwight Howard

My favorite cartoon..."Jimmy Neutron"

Future goals on the court and off...graduate with a degree from Cal and become one with God

Weirdest noise I can make...I have bad allergies, so when my nose itches it sounds like I am snoring.

Place in the world I want to travel...go back to Africa to visit the orphanage

Secret food cravings...my best friend's mom's cornbread, my aunt's homemade macaroni and cheese and my aunt Trina's enchiladas

Reality TV shows I want to be on..."Paris Hilton's BFF" or "Making the Band 4"

Reason I picked my jersey number...It was Hook Mitchell's number, and he wasn't able to make a legacy with his number so I borrowed it.

Weird fact not many people know about me...I hate sleeping on pillows.

Funniest nickname I've ever given a teammate...Kiloh and don't want to say why

Highlight of Cal basketball career...being the first Cal women's basketball player to get Pac-10 Player of the Year

Best off the court moment at Cal...having fun with the freshmen (Lei and Casey)

My secret addiction...getting my hair washed

If I was president, the first thing I would do...help social security

Place I would go to if I could fly...back to Africa

Person I look up to and would want to meet...P. Diddy

As a basketball player, the item that best represents me...my hair

Ideal job after Cal...CPS inspector

Favorite part of practice and a game day...practice: break downs, game day: tip-off

During road trips, the best and the worst roommate to have...best: Ashley because she likes the heat and the TV, worst: LG because she always takes the remote, and it's too cold

What I took away from the Africa trip...to be thankful for everything

Favorite Africa moment...having the twins in my arms

Cultural difference from the Africa trip that appealed to me...no shoes

Devanei Hampton

Location: grandma's dining room, Oakland, CA

*"My passion dictates my determination,
my dedication and ultimately my success.
My present focus is laying the groundwork for my future opportunities.
It is more than a game...the rock,
represents my life...
I got now...and I still got next."*

SNAPPED

Hangin' with Trell

My celebrity crush...David Beckham

Place in the world I want to travel...I would fly to St. Tropez just to get away and enjoy an amazing vacation.

Secret food cravings...Hot Cheetos or Lay's Flamin' Hot chips

Reality TV shows I want to be on..."Run House" or "Project Runway"

Reason I picked my jersey number...because it's the day of my father's and my birthday

Weird fact not many people know about me...I'm terrified of raisins.

Favorite Coach Boyle quote...LG, hit a free throw to end practice.

Funniest nickname I've ever given a teammate...I nicknamed Ashley "Brokeback Mountain" because there is always something wrong with her back.

Highlight of Cal basketball career...playing in my first NCAA Tournament game at Stanford last year against San Diego and scoring my first two points in front of my family and friends

Most awkward off-campus moment...coming home to find a huge hole in the toilet (Ashley did it!)

Best off the court moment at Cal...performing a skit to the song "Atomic Dog" with my teammates Kelsey, Lex, LG and Mooch

My secret addictions...shoes and clothes (Nike Supreme Dunks to be exact)

If I was president, the first things I would do...end the war in Iraq and create welfare reform programs that specifically target the population most in need

Place I would go to if I could fly...go to Hawaii and sit on the shores because the water is beautiful and it is peaceful

Person I look up to and would want to meet...It would be Mamie Louis Till, mother of Emmett Till

As a basketball player, the item that best represents me...I would say a small cog in a large machine because I am a part of something much larger than myself, and I need my teammates in order to be successful.

Ideal job after Cal...anything involving a grass roots approach and working with underprivileged youth

Favorite part of practice and a game day...practice: scrimmages, game day: singing "Diamonds and Pearls" with Devaneï

During road trips, the best and the worst roommate to have...best: LG or Mooch, worst: I plead the fifth!

What I took away from the Africa trip...I took away a greater appreciation for life in general and all of the amenities I have been blessed to have access to. I also developed a deeper desire to help those in need.

Favorite Africa moment...visiting the orphanage and having a five-day-old infant named after me

Cultural difference from the Africa trip that appealed to me...the lack of a sense of time, just living freely and living in the moment

Shantrell Sneed

location: inside Bows & Arrows shoe store, Berkeley, CA

*"This game is in my blood.
It is who I am.
And when I put the ball down,
what legacy will I leave behind?"*

WALKER

A black and white photograph of Ashley Walker, a young woman with long dark hair, wearing a dark short-sleeved polo shirt. She is standing on a city street, looking slightly to her right. In the background, there are buildings, a street sign for 'BUCKHORN', and a sign for 'Drinks'.

Hangin' with Ash

Ashley Walker

Location: second level of Bay Street mall, Emeryville, CA

Other sport I would play...volleyball

My celebrity crush...Will Smith

My favorite cartoons..."SpongeBob SquarePants," "Phineas and Ferb" and "Family Guy"

Future goals on the court and off...to be a high school teacher and play in the WNBA

Place in the world I want to travel...go back to Africa because I had so much fun

Secret food cravings...ice cream or Jamba Juice

Reality TV show I want to be on...I want to work for Diddy.

Reason I picked my jersey number...It was the last one left and the girls on my high school team said the girl who had #52 never washed it.

Weird fact not many people know about me...I love underwear.

Favorite Coach Boyle quote...What do you want for yourselves?

Funniest nickname I've ever given a teammate...Trelly Belly – don't know why, just started calling her that

Highlight of Cal basketball career...scoring my 1,000th point and not knowing I did it

Most awkward moment living off campus...I dropped the lid of the toilet through the toilet bowl.

My secret addiction...playing Sims on the computer

If I was president, the first thing I would do...I would bring all of the men and women home overseas to see their families.

Place I would go to if I could fly...to Texas to see my auntie who misses me

Person I look up to and would want to meet...Oprah

As a basketball player, the items that best represent me...my knee pads and high socks

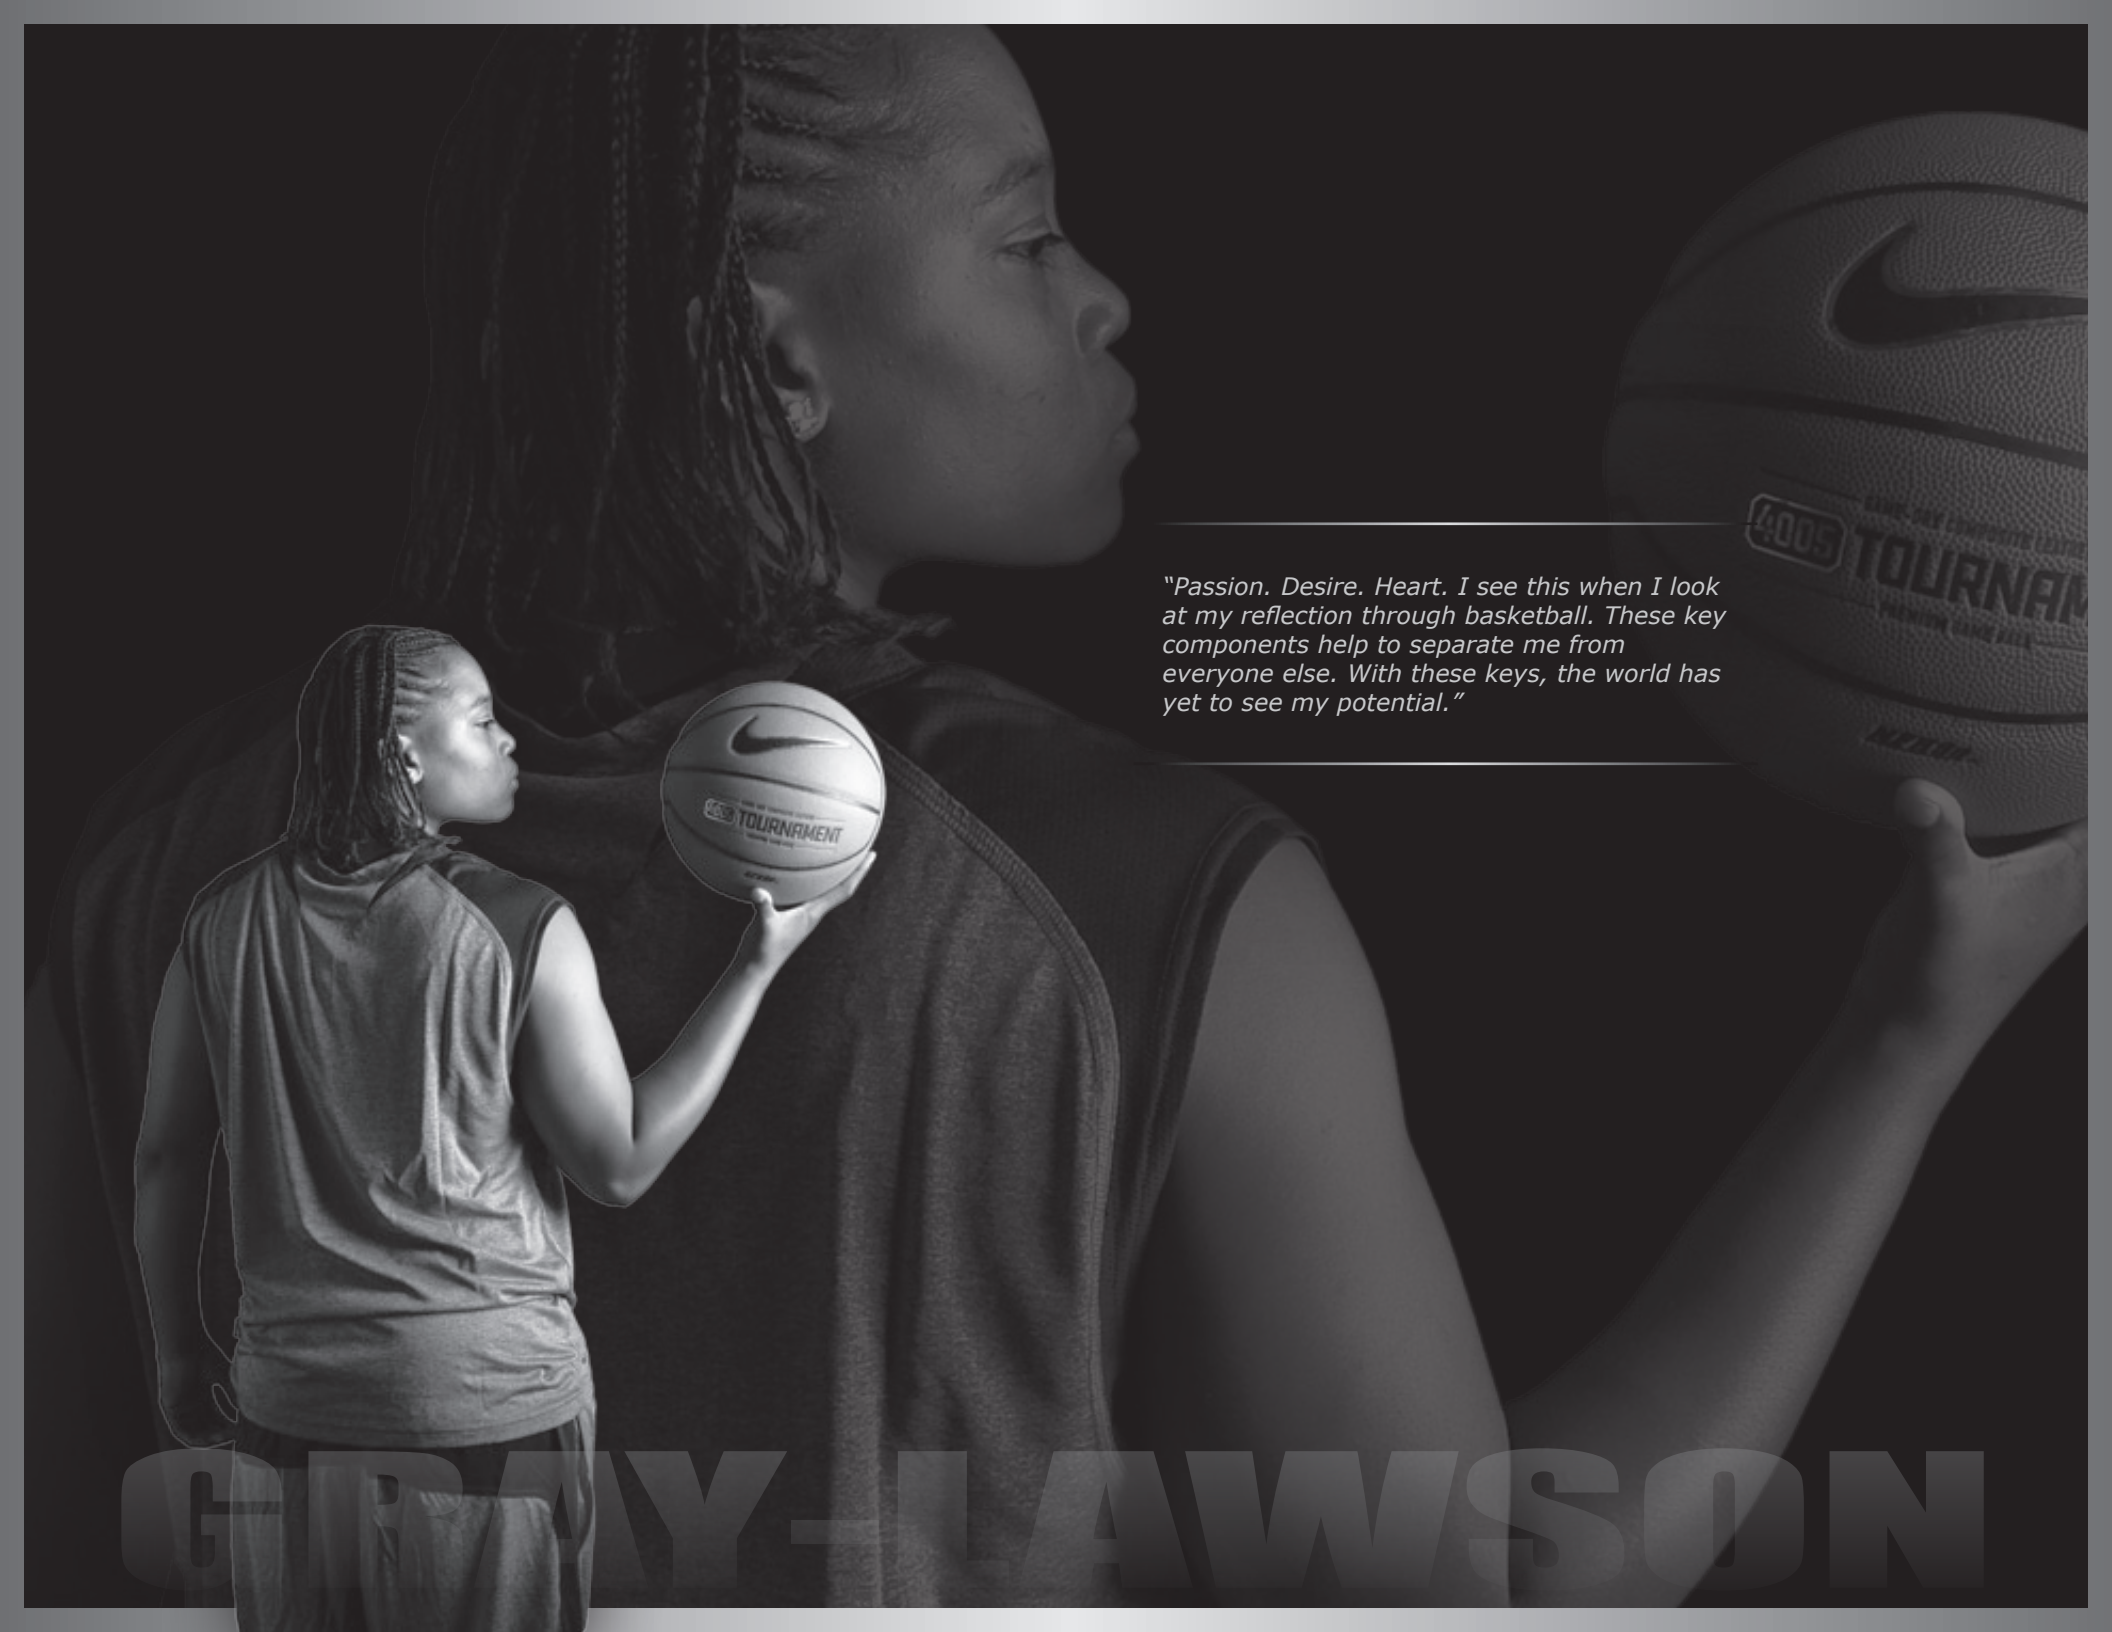

Favorite part of practice and a game day...practice: water breaks, game day: the introductions and seeing the video board

During road trips, the best and the worst roommate to have...best: Kels, worst: LG because we fight over the remote control, as she won't let me watch cartoons

What I took away from the Africa trip...the lack of things they have over there and how much we can help them

Favorite Africa moment...going to the orphanage

Cultural difference from the Africa trip that appealed to me...their willingness to give everything they have even if they don't have it

"Passion. Desire. Heart. I see this when I look at my reflection through basketball. These key components help to separate me from everyone else. With these keys, the world has yet to see my potential."

GRACY-LAWSON

Hangin' with Lexi

Other sport I would play...softball as I thought about playing it in college along with basketball, but it was too much to consider

My celebrity crush...Rajon Rondo

My favorite cartoon..."Jimmy Neutron" because he is always getting them into trouble and finding ways to get them out of trouble

Future goals on the court and off...My future goals on the court are to win a national championship, keep my focus and to hopefully go to the league if I get drafted.

Weirdest noise I can make...I don't think I have any.

Place in the world I want to travel...Paris because it is the place of love and everybody needs love

Secret food craving...chocolate

Reality TV shows I want to be on..."G's to Gents" and "I Love Money"

Weird fact not many people know about me...I love to bake cookies.

Favorite Coach Boyle quote...You need to take accountability.

Funniest nickname I've ever given a teammate...I have never given my teammates any nicknames.

Highlight of Cal basketball career...making it to the Pac-10 Tournament championship game

Best off the court moment at Cal...anytime I'm with my teammates because we always have a bunch of laughs and have fun together

My secret addiction...buying lots of socks

If I was president, the first thing I would do...I would probably hire my teammates for my cabinet, my coaches for the senate, and Sarah Holsinger to make sure everything is running smoothly and to handle the money crisis. Ann Caslin will be the trainer of the U.S and my right hand, and Angela will make all my speeches and be my left hand.

Place I would go to if I could fly...go to Hawaii and sit on the shores because the water is beautiful and it is peaceful

Person I look up to and would want to meet...Barack Obama

As a basketball player, the item that best represents me...my number on my jersey because it is a part of me that no one can take away

Ideal jobs after Cal...I want to become a lawyer, real estate broker or social worker.

Favorite part of practice and a game day...practice: when we are doing walk through, game day: taping with Ann

During road trips, the best and the worst roommate to have...best: Kelsey because we laugh and chill, worst: I don't have one yet.

What I took away from the Africa trip...Never take what you have for granted because there are people in the world who have nothing.

Favorite Africa moment...the safari because I loved looking at all of the animals even though I was terrified

Cultural difference from the Africa trip that appealed to me...the food

Alexis Gray-Lawson

location: her family's living room, Oakland, CA

"My passion for the game was ignited the first time I played in the backyard against my brother and dad.

My love for the game began when I stole the ball from the big boys I was not supposed to be playing with.

My determination to succeed in basketball got stronger every time I was told I can't or I won't.

My goals for the game are for it to take me to new environments and higher peaks.

And at Cal, my passion, love, determination and goals for basketball have never wavered as I continue to play the game I adore."

GREIF

Hangin' with LG

Other sports I would play...golf or football

My celebrity crush...Tom Brady

Future goals on the court and off...to get to a Final Four and to continue to take advantage of all the opportunities that Cal presents and eventually find a career I love

Place in the world I want to travel...Europe to explore all of its history and to eat and drink at all of the adorable cafes

Secret food cravings...copious amounts of ice cream with all the toppings one could imagine on top of a warm brownie

Reality TV show I want to be on..."Real World/Road Rules Challenge" because I always wanted to know if I could do the challenges

Weird fact not many people know about me...The basketball court I learned to play on in my backyard was created when my dad accidentally burned down the barn.

Favorite Coach Boyle quote...It's not rocket science. We're too old for this. I just need you guys to own your team.

Funniest nickname I've ever given a teammate...Devy-poo for Dev of course. It's just funny to say such a little kid's nickname to a 6-3 girl with her demeanor and personality.

Most awkward moment living off campus...the first time I paid my rent I almost gave it to the wrong company

My secret addiction...yogurt parfait from the Golden Bear Cafe

Person I look up to and would want to meet...Barack Obama

Favorite part of practice and a game day...practice: when I know I worked hard for three hours, and it's all over, and I'm on my way to training table, game day: putting on the Cal uniform in the locker room hours before the game and knowing I'm about to go into battle with an amazing group of girls and simply have to find a way to win

During road trips, the best and the worst roommate to have...

best: Kelsey – she lets me control the TV remote, and she always brings her computer. worst: love her, but it is most definitely Dev

What I took away from the Africa trip...I am amazed how well Rama has done in her transition to a new country. After not being able to express or explain myself the way I wanted to for only two weeks, I was in awe of how well Rama made the transition and how strong of a person she truly is.

Favorite Africa moments...I enjoyed going to Rama's house and meeting her family. Even though we were not able to have a real conversation with them, we did find invented ways of communicating and showing them our gratitude for allowing Rama to be part of our team. Rama's family can make some good food, too!

Cultural difference from the Africa trip that appealed to me...

the bargaining when you shop because it makes shopping more of a sport, but it also makes for a stressful experience

Lauren Greif

location: campus bridge, Berkeley, CA

*"I know that hard work equals success.
The opportunity to play basketball and study
at a top university is a dream come true.
I am proud of where I come from,
and I am proud of where I am going."*

N'DIAYE

Hangin' with Rama

My celebrity crush...Johnny Depp

My favorite cartoon..."Balto"

Future goals on the court and off...dunk in a game, win a national championship and open an orphanage in Senegal

Weirdest noise I can make...speaking English

Place in the world I want to travel... Australia because I have been dreaming about it since I was a kid

Secret food cravings...quesadilla

Reality TV show I want to be on..."Survivor"

Reason I picked my jersey number... LG already had 10

Weird fact not many people know about me...I am afraid of Coach Smith's cat, Grady.

Favorite Coach Boyle quote...RAAAAMMMMA!!!!

My secret addiction...I can be on the phone all day.

If I was president, the first thing I would do...help the homeless

Place I would go to if I could fly...I would go home to see my family.

Person I look up to and would want to meet...Barack Obama

Best off the court moment at Cal...working with kids at Team-Up

Ideal job after Cal...open an orphanage in Senegal

Favorite part of practice and a game day...practice: posting up
Coach Morrison, game day: running out with the team

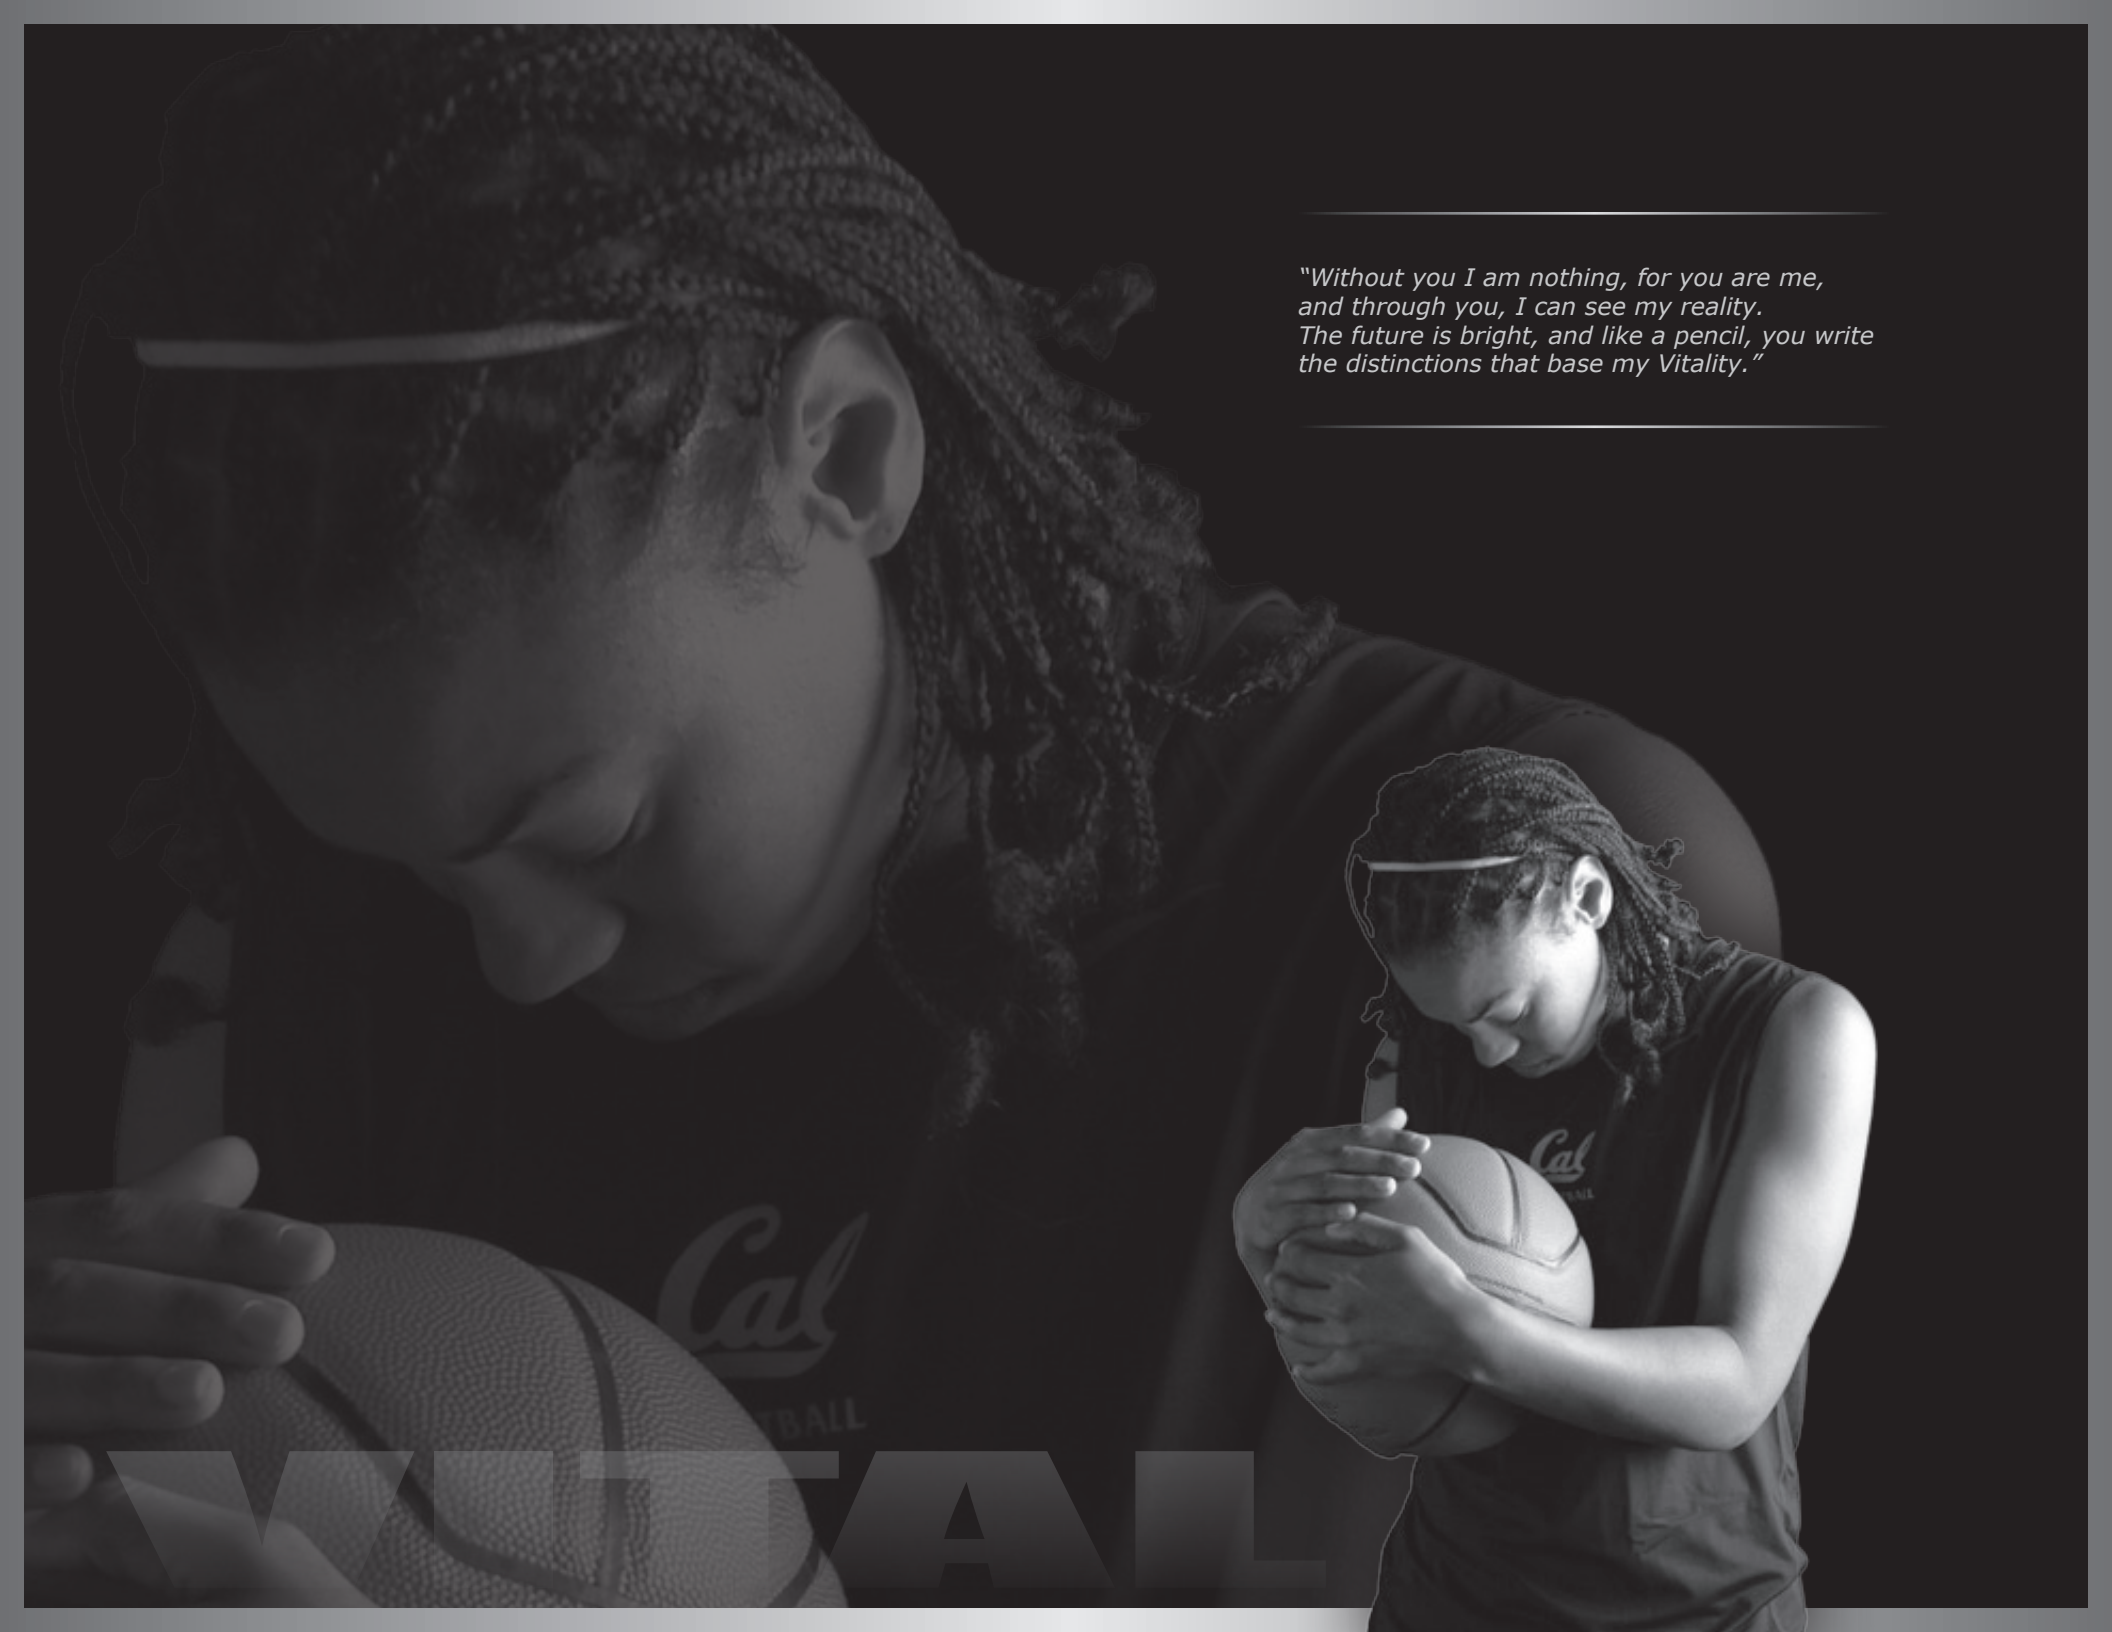

During road trips, the best and the worst roommate to have... best: Ashley, worst: LG...she will change the channels a hundred times.

Favorite Africa moments...having the team over to see my home and meet my family

Cultural difference from the Africa trip that appealed to me...
The way all of my family spends time together, eating together and sharing.

Rama N'diaye

Location: her apartment, Berkeley, CA

*"Without you I am nothing, for you are me,
and through you, I can see my reality.
The future is bright, and like a pencil, you write the distinctions that base my Vitality."*

VITAL

Hangin' with Tash

My celebrity crush...Lil' Romeo

My favorite cartoons..."Phineas and Ferb" and "Boondocks"

Future goals on the court and off...play in WNBA and write a book documenting my life in poetry

Place in the world I want to travel...Louisiana to see my family

Secret food craving...None of my food cravings are a secret.

Reality TV show I want to be on..."New York Goes to Hollywood"

Reason I picked my jersey number...It was my very first basketball number.

Weird fact not many people know about me...I pick at my eyebrows when I am thinking hard.

Favorite Coach Boyle quote...raise the bar

Funniest nickname I've ever given a teammate...Ashley, Twenty-ten, because she gets 20 points and 10 boards a night

Highlight of Cal basketball career...beating Stanford and getting two double-doubles in one week

Best off the court moment at Cal...doing the soldier boy dance with the kids at a Cal camp

My secret addiction...writing music

If I was president, the first thing I would do...paint the White House black

Place I would go to if I could fly...the top of the Statue of Liberty

Person I look up to and would want to meet...Chris Paul

As a basketball player, the item that best represents me...my wrist band

Ideal job after Cal...WNBA

Favorite part of practice and a game day...practice: quarter-court execution, game day: introductions

During road trips, the best and the worst roommate to have...best: Ashley, worst: Devanei because she keeps the room super hot

What I took away from the Africa trip...not to take anything for granted

Favorite Africa moment...going to the orphanage and playing with the kids

Cultural difference from the Africa trip that appealed to me...I liked how the men wrestled and worked out on the beach by Rama's house.

Natasha Vital
Location: Berkeley Marina with Golden Gate Bridge,
Berkeley, CA

"All the hard work and sacrifices are worth it because I love the game."

ADRIAN

Hangin' with Kels

Other sport I would play...volleyball

My celebrity crush...Chris Brown

My favorite cartoons...I'm not a big cartoon fan anymore, but when I was younger, I liked "Scooby-doo" and "Recess."

Future goals on the court and off...I want to continue to play for the Canadian national team, play in the 2012 Olympics, graduate and get a job!

Weirdest noise I can make...my attempt to sing

Favorite Coach Boyle quote...Talk!

Funniest nickname I've ever given a teammate...I've always been the one to get the funny nickname. In high school, I was given the name Dori (Finding Nemo). I was young and naive!

Highlight of Cal basketball career...going to the NCAAs

Best off the court moment at Cal...my teammates surprising me on my birthday.

Most awkward moment living off campus...I still live on campus.

My secret addiction...chocolate

If I was president, the first thing I would do...Since I can't be the president, if I were the prime minister, I would make Friday part of the weekend!

Place I would go to if I could fly...If I could fly, I would go everywhere! I would want to travel around the world and experience different cultures.

People I look up to and would want to meet...I look up to my parents so I would hang out with them.

As a basketball player, the item that best represents me...

This isn't an item, but I'm always smiling.

Ideal job after Cal...owning my own business

Favorite part of practice and a game day...practice: when we get to scrimmage, game day: training table

What I took away from the Africa trip...Be thankful for everything you have.

Favorite Africa moment...going on the safari and seeing all the animals

Cultural difference from the Africa trip that appealed to me...

I loved how everyone would be outside all the time talking or playing.

Kelsey Adrian

location: eucalyptus grove, University of California
Berkeley, CA

"How can a ball, just this little ball, create so much anger, frustration and pain? I guess when it's all said and done, all the negatives are conquered by passion and love. That picks my head up when I feel like giving in."

FEDERICO

PIXAR

A N I M A T I O N S T U D I O S

Hangin' with Mooch

My celebrity crush...Brandon Roy

My favorite cartoon..."Phineas and Ferb"

Future goals on the court and off...finish my basketball career at Cal being a great addition to the team that lets us win a championship and then work for Disney, anything from marketing to sweeping the streets

Weirdest noise I can make...I actually take credit for sounding like Mickey Mouse, Yoda, Jim Carrey (in many movies) and many more. Just ask!

Place in the world I want to travel...Italy because I love its language, and I want to visit all the places that are in The Lizzie McGuire Movie.

Secret food craving...tamales that my Nana gets every Christmas that make the whole year worth waiting to eat them

Reality TV show I want to be on..."John and Kate Plus 8"

Weird fact not many people know about me...I am a huge jazz fan.

Favorite Coach Boyle quote...Ok, let's do this drill one more time... (10 times later)

Funniest nickname I've ever given a teammate...I called Rama, Ramstar, but Ashley said she called her that first. (I still don't believe her.)

Most awkward moment living off campus...I still live on campus, but I'll let you know when I get one.

Highlight of Cal basketball career...playing in my hometown with the biggest supporting crowd I have ever played for Best off the court moment at Cal...being at my mom's house for dinner with the whole team

My secret addiction...saladitos – a little Mexican salt candy
If I was president, the first thing I would do...focus everything on helping the lives of lower and middle class America

Place I would go to if I could fly...Disneyland

As a basketball player, the item that best represents me...my hair-tie, as I'm pretty flexible

Ideal jobs after Cal...working for Disney or if that fails then ESPN

Favorite part of practice and a game day...practice: water breaks, game day: walking out for the first time as a team and hearing the cheers

What I took away from the Africa trip...Be grateful for literally everything.

Favorite Africa moment...how thankful the kids were to learn a jump shot at the camps we ran

Cultural difference from the Africa trip that appealed to me...living life to the fullest regardless of what you have

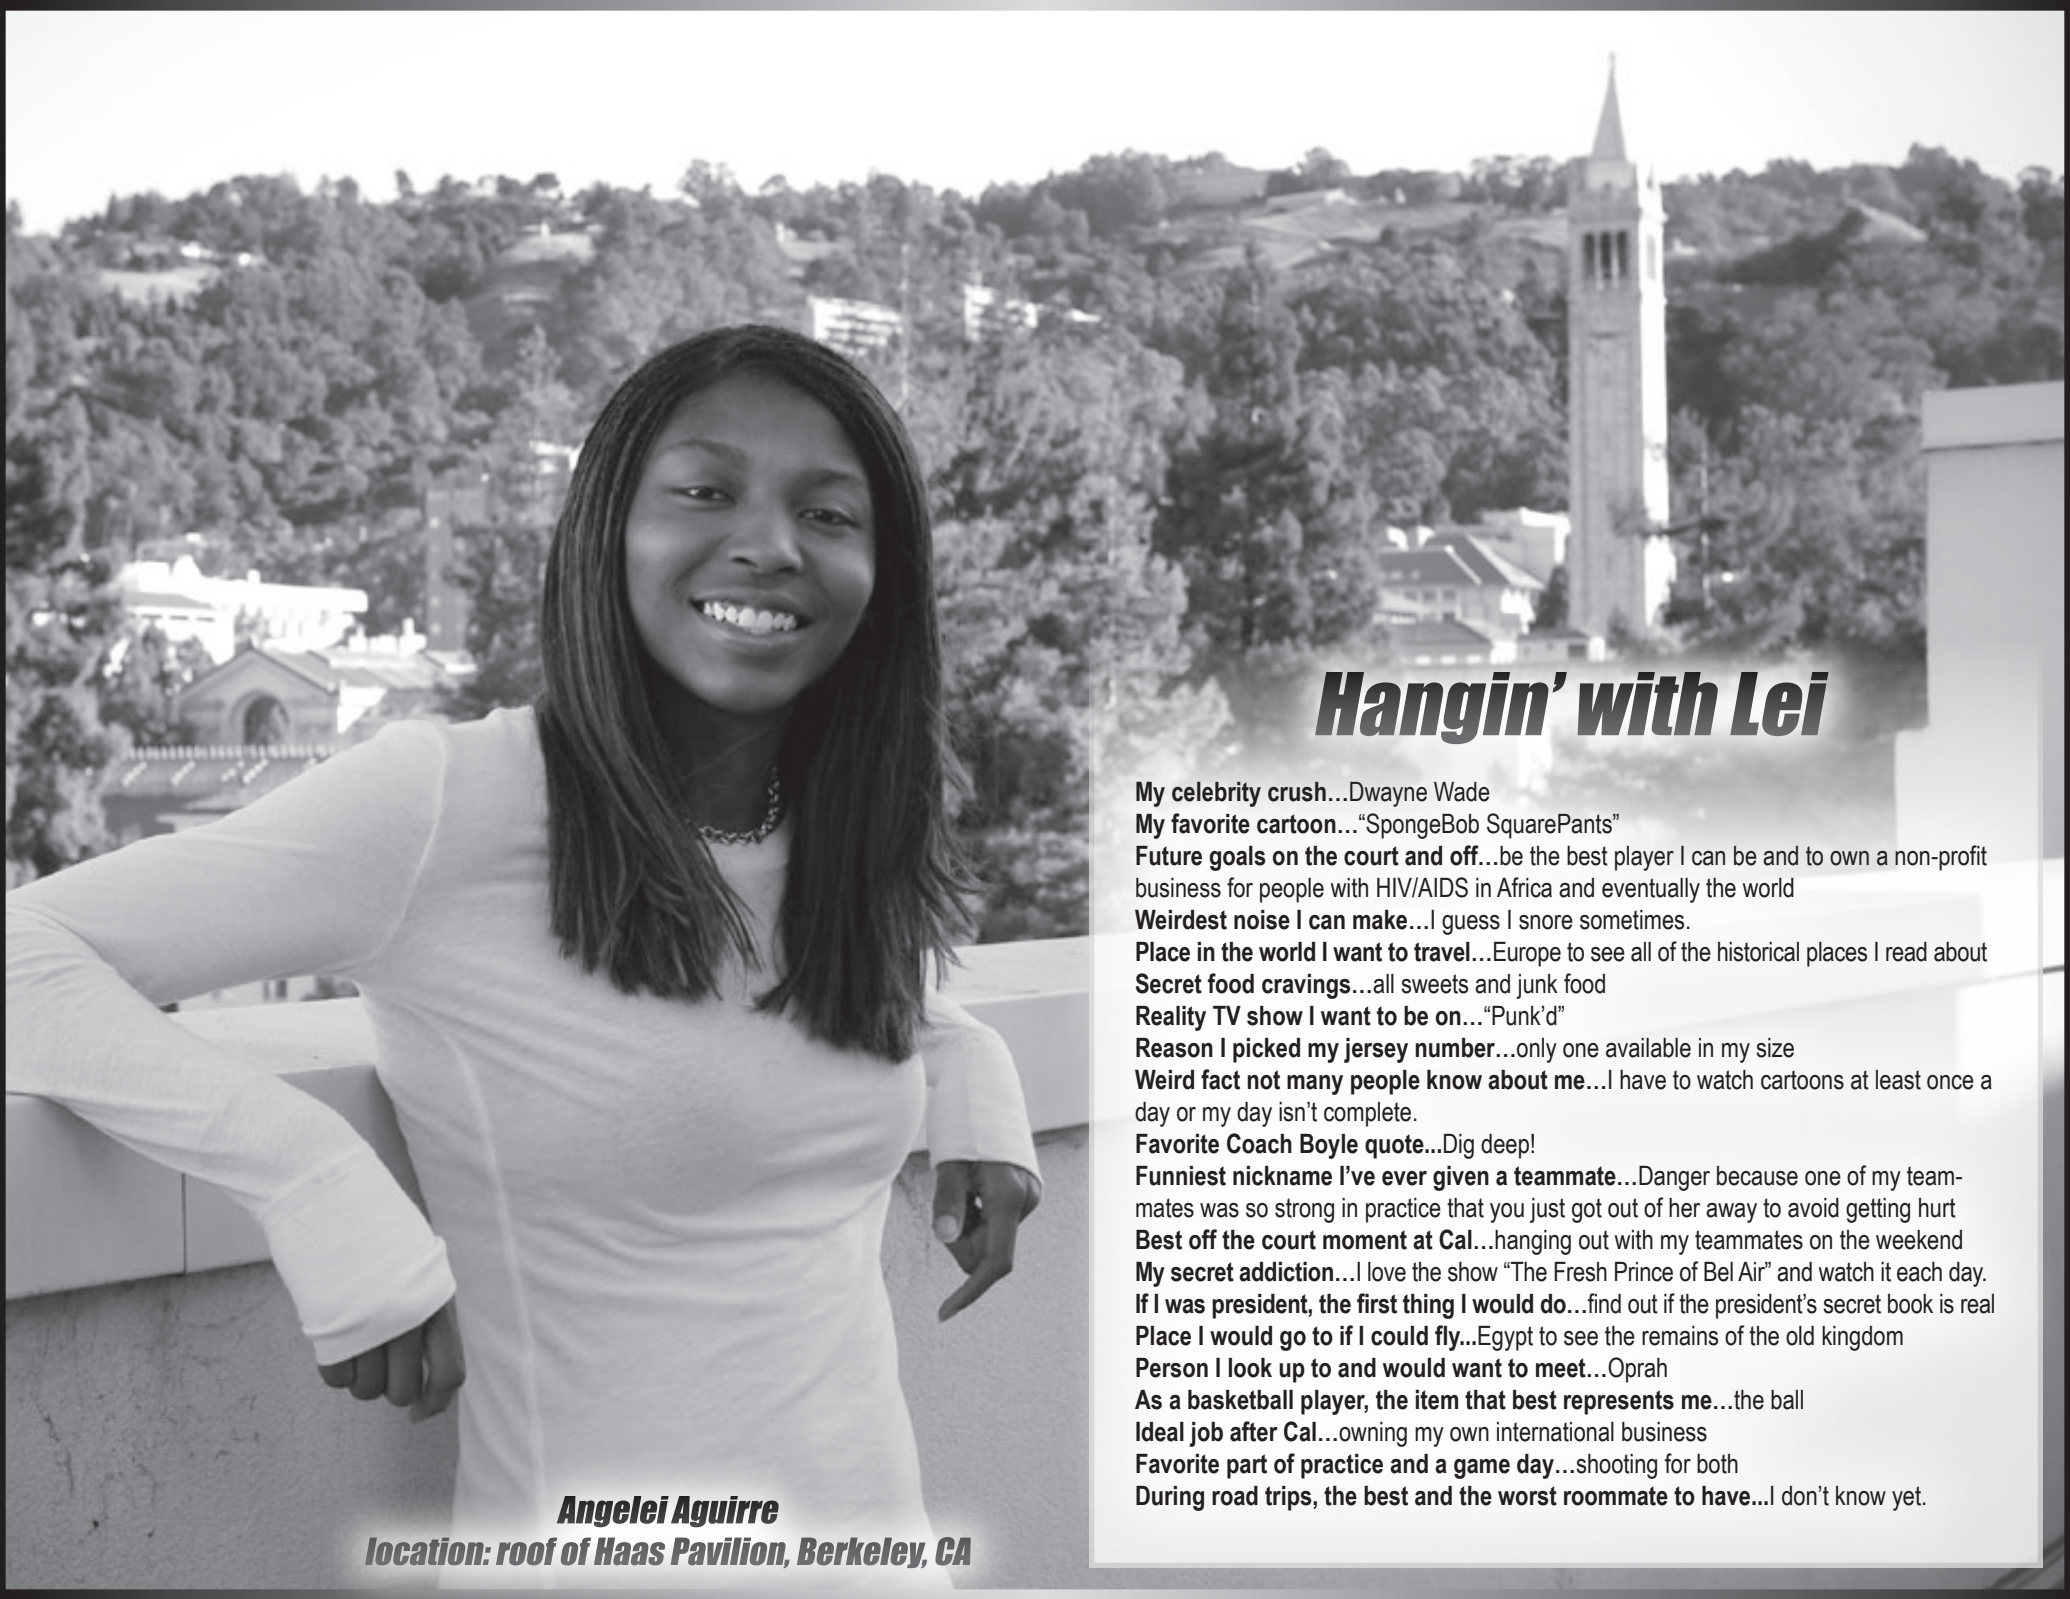

Rachelle Federico

Location: outside Pixar Studios, Emeryville, CA

*"The first two years of my life
I witnessed two national championships and ever since then
I've been hungry for my own.
This ball is the only way to fulfill my desire.
This ball is my destiny."*

AGURPE

Hangin' with Lei

My celebrity crush...Dwayne Wade

My favorite cartoon..."SpongeBob SquarePants"

Future goals on the court and off...be the best player I can be and to own a non-profit business for people with HIV/AIDS in Africa and eventually the world

Weirdest noise I can make...I guess I snore sometimes.

Place in the world I want to travel...Europe to see all of the historical places I read about

Secret food cravings...all sweets and junk food

Reality TV show I want to be on..."Punk'd"

Reason I picked my jersey number...only one available in my size

Weird fact not many people know about me...I have to watch cartoons at least once a day or my day isn't complete.

Favorite Coach Boyle quote...Dig deep!

Funniest nickname I've ever given a teammate...Danger because one of my teammates was so strong in practice that you just got out of her away to avoid getting hurt

Best off the court moment at Cal...hanging out with my teammates on the weekend

My secret addiction...I love the show "The Fresh Prince of Bel Air" and watch it each day.

If I was president, the first thing I would do...find out if the president's secret book is real

Place I would go to if I could fly...Egypt to see the remains of the old kingdom

Person I look up to and would want to meet...Oprah

As a basketball player, the item that best represents me...the ball

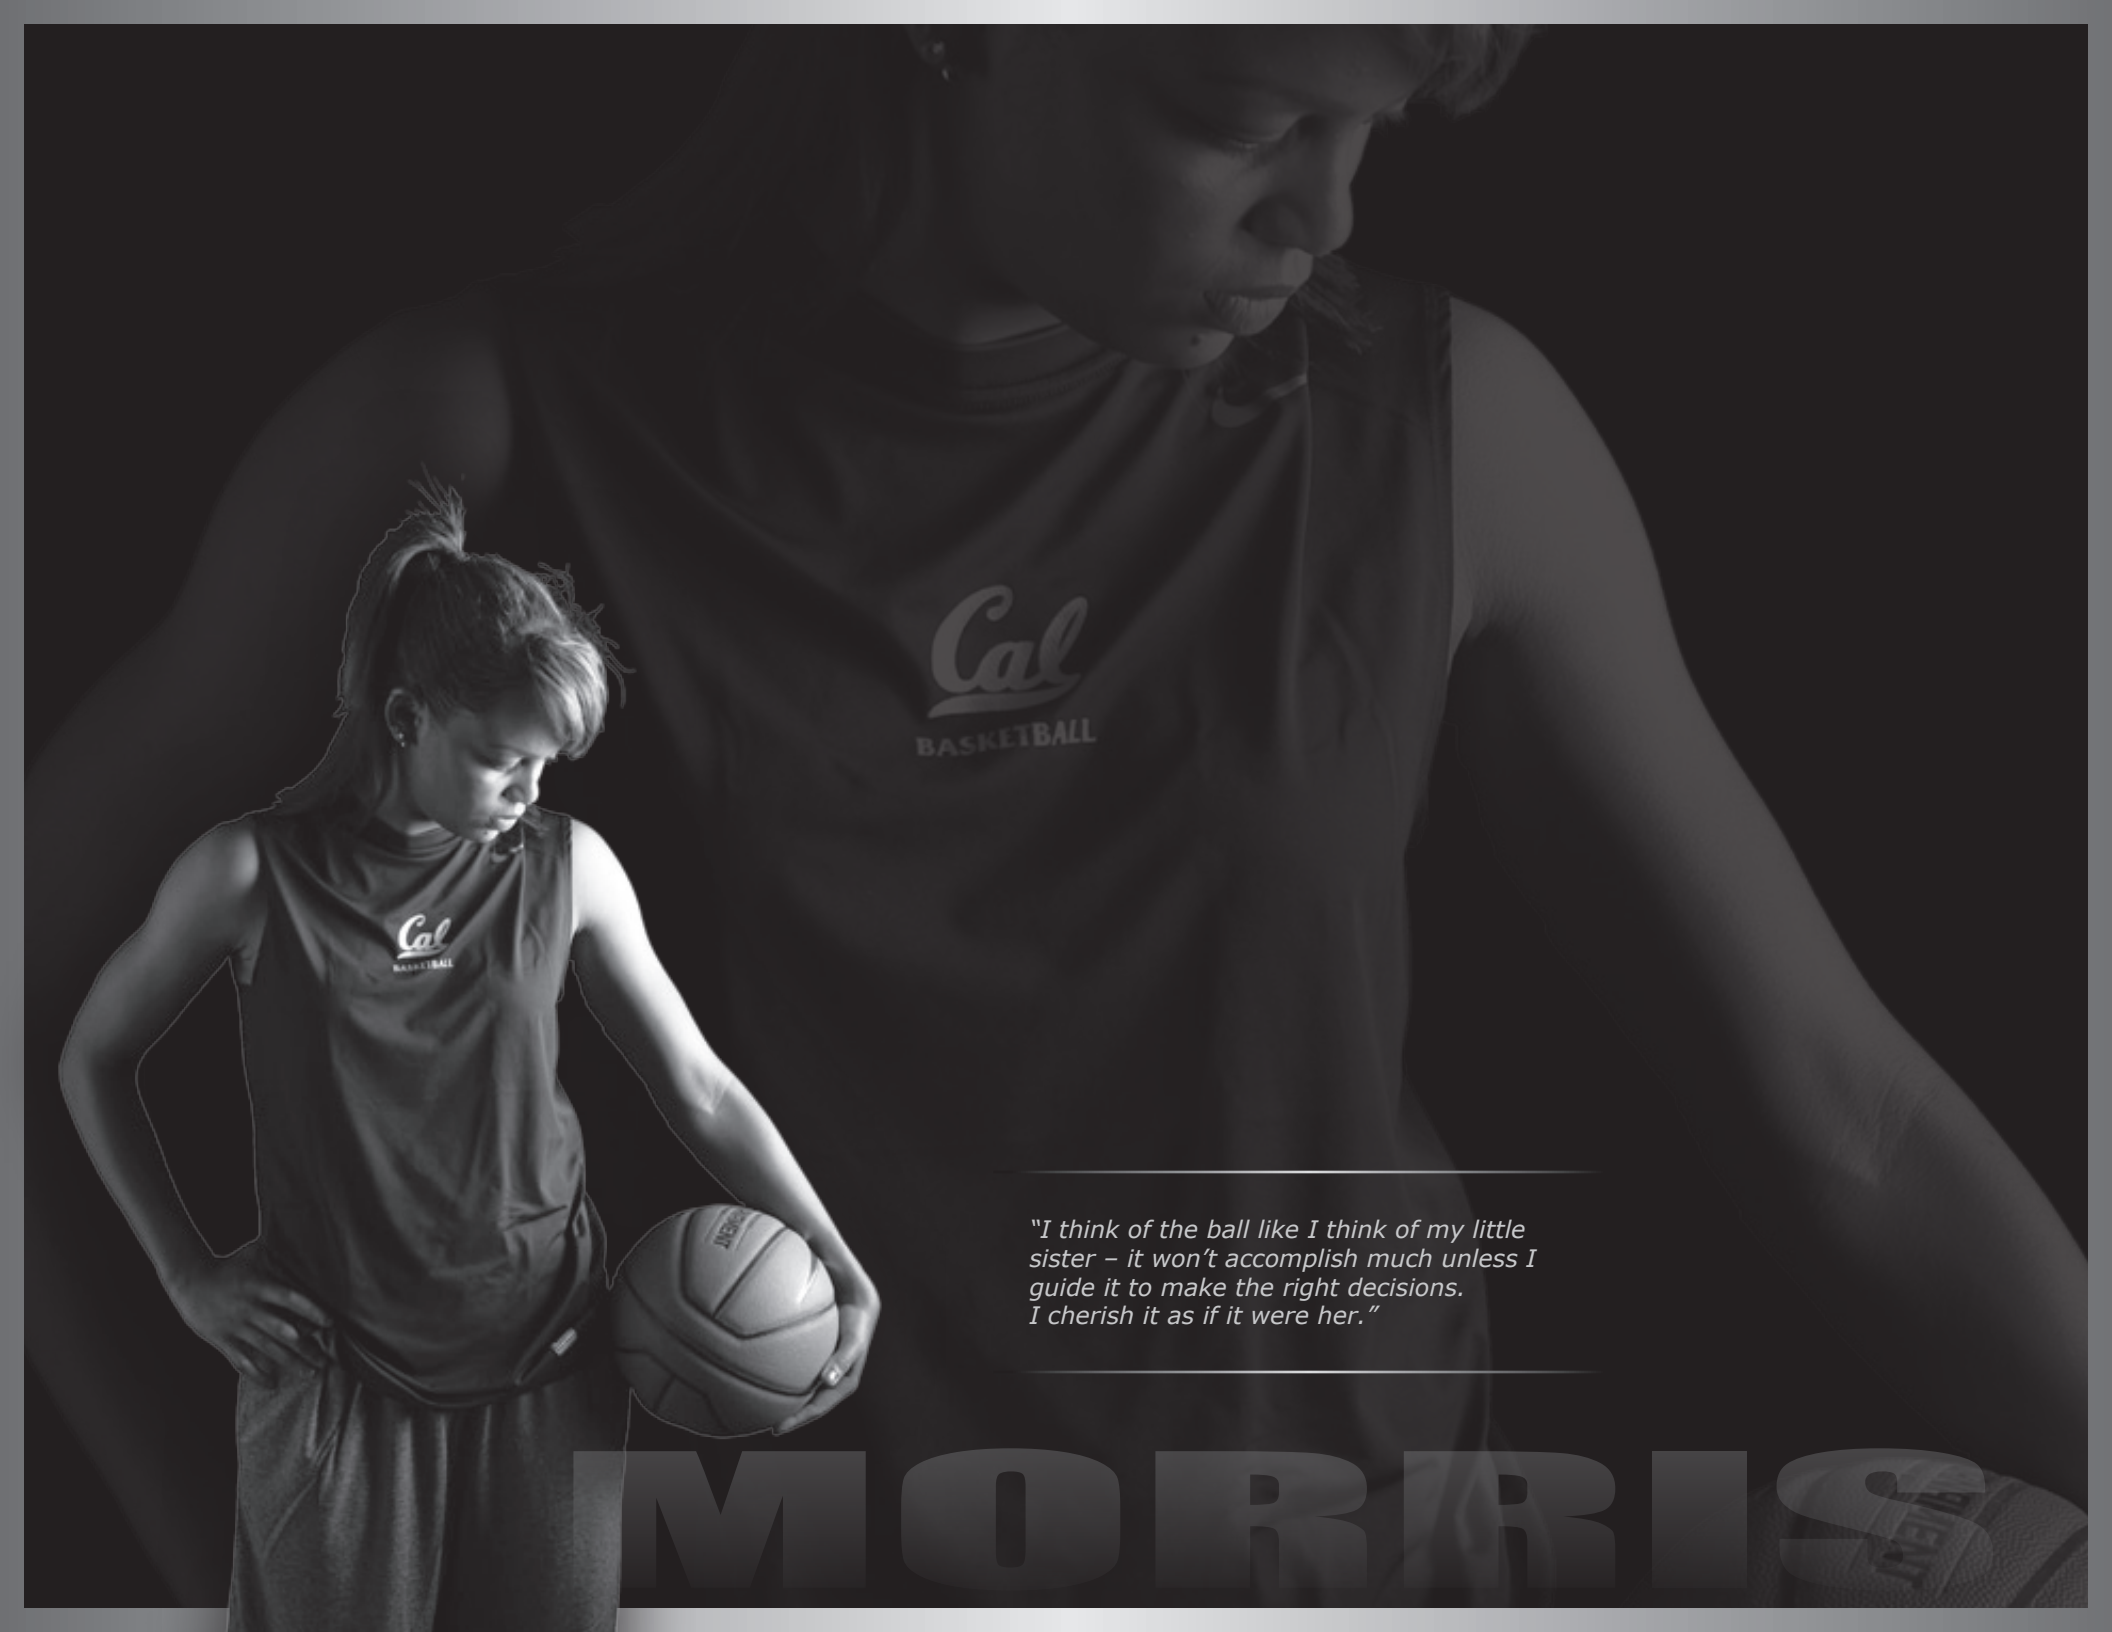

Ideal job after Cal...owning my own international business

Favorite part of practice and a game day...shooting for both

During road trips, the best and the worst roommate to have...I don't know yet.

Angelei Aguirre

Location: roof of Haas Pavilion, Berkeley, CA

Cal
BASKETBALL

Cal
BASKETBALL

"I think of the ball like I think of my little sister – it won't accomplish much unless I guide it to make the right decisions. I cherish it as if it were her."

MORRIS

Hangin' with Case

My celebrity crush...Allen Iverson

My favorite cartoons..."SpongeBob SquarePants," "Tom and Jerry," "Ed Edd and Eddy," "Recess" and "Boondocks"

Future goals on the court and off...I want to play basketball my whole life. I don't care where, and I want to do something in business that is basketball oriented.

Weirdest noise I can make...my sneeze

Place in the world I want to travel...Bahamas because it looks pretty and relaxing

Secret food craving...my dad's gumbo

Reality TV show I want to be on..."College Hill"

Reason I picked my jersey number...when Vince Carter stuck his arm in the rim

Weird fact not many people know about me...I love taking long naps.

Favorite Coach Boyle quote...You have the talent; you just have to learn some of the small things, and it will make you great.

Funniest nickname I've ever given a teammate...Pooka Shell baby – this teammate was goofy and seemed like a name your mom would give you would fit her, and she had a really small voice that sounded like a baby.

Most awkward moment living off campus...taking a shower and forgetting my key and having to stand in the hall with just my towel on until my roommate got out of class

Highlight of Cal basketball career...don't really have a career quite yet

My secret addiction...Sprite

If I was president, the first thing I would do...go to less fortunate areas and have groups reconstruct every house and recreation center

Place I would go to if I could fly...Missouri to visit my sister who plays at the University of Missouri-Kansas City

Person I look up to and would want to meet...Monte Ellis

Ideal jobs after Cal...working for Nike or a team owner

Favorite part of practice and a game day...practice: the end, game day: the beginning to the end

Casey Morris

Location: Lawrence Hall of Science overlooking the Bay Area, Berkeley, CA

