CALIFORNIA WOMEN'S TENNIS: TEAM PHILOSOPHY

"Our aim as a program is to produce knowledgeable, self-sufficient, caring, and successful young women. We accomplish that with a supportive, team oriented environment where everyone is uniquely coached on learning, growing, and improving in all aspects of life in order to maximize their potential. Through our collective efforts, the goal is to continue to enhance the proud tradition of experiencing championship caliber tennis at one of the most highly ranked and respected universities in the world."

- Head Coach Amanda Augustus

2009 WOMEN'S SEASON OUTLOOK

BEARS TO RELY ON DIVERSE TALENT TO RETURN TO NCAA's

The Golden Bears are what some might categorize as an enigma as they enter the 2009 dual season. Although Cal loses one of its strongest senior classes in school history, it returns some of the most important pieces of a team that went all the way to the NCAA championship last year match and adds some major firepower with its newcomers. The Bears feature players from all areas of the spectrum with three seniors and three freshmen, not to mention two of the most remarkable sophomores in women's collegiate tennis. With such a diverse array of talent on the roster, Cal looks to achieve balance as it makes another run to the NCAA championship.

Second-year head coach Amanda Augustus looks to take it one step further as the Golden Bears return to the court after experiencing one of their most successful seasons in program history. The 2008 squad advanced further than any squad in program history. The Bears finished the regular season with a 6-2 record in Pac-10 play (third place) and won the Anson S. Thacher team trophy, awarded to the team with the most points in both singles and doubles at the Pac-10 Championships.

Cal completed last season with a 21-6 overall record and ranked No. 3 in the final ITA poll. The Bears lose the services of two ITA All-Americans with the departure of Susie Babos and Stephanie Kusano. But senior Claire Ilcinkas (Paris, France) and sophomore Marina Cossou (Azereix, France) each earned singles All-America honors a year ago and return to help lead a young but experienced group of Bears. Babos, Ilcinkas and Cossou were also named to the Pac-10 All-Conference team. As a team, the Bears laid claim to the Newmark award for posting the top team grade-point average among all 27 of Cal's intercollegiate athletic teams.

Although the squad is small, the Bears will be able to look to the leadership of three seniors this season. Marion Ravelojaona (Paris, France) returns for a fifth year at Berkeley after suffering a knee injury a year ago that cut short her season. She brings 74 career singles victories to the lineup and adds 62 doubles wins. Ravelojaona held up an 8-2 record in fall tournaments and won the Blue Flight singles title at the Cal Nike Invitational. She hopes to return to the form she held when she won the 2006 ASU Thunderbird Invitational and reached a career-high ranking of No. 34 to open her junior dual season.

Cal's two true seniors have quietly become forces to be reckoned with, as both Bojana Bobusic (Perth, Australia) and Ilcinkas enter their final season in Berkeley each with more than 80 career singles wins and 75 doubles wins. Bobusic advanced to the singles final at the ITA Northwest Regional Championship and earned automatic entry to the ITA National Indoor Championships in the fall. Her 32 singles wins from a year ago ranked second on the team as she went 7-1 in dual match singles play.

A 2008 ITA Singles All-American, Ilcinkas led all Bears with a team-high 35 singles wins a year ago and brings 87 career victories into her final dual season. She also begins her final semester at Cal just 11 doubles victories from the century mark. Ilcinkas and teammate Cossou combine to form one of the most fearsome doubles teams in the country as they combined for 26 wins last year and finished the season ranked No. 58 in the nation.

The Bears will play the 2009 season without a junior on the roster but a strong sophomore class hopes to fill that void. Cossou earned ITA Singles All-America honors as a freshman and completed her first year at Cal with the No. 9 ranking. She tied for second place on the team with 32 singles victories, playing predominantly from the second court. The Bears will look to Cossou to contribute from the top court this spring as she won in five of her appearances there a year ago.

As the other sophomore on the roster, Mari Andersson (Båstad, Sweden) has waited patiently to show what she can do. After arriving in Berkeley a year ago, Andersson sat out a year and will hit the court ready to prove herself as she brings the experience of winning 21 Swedish Championships to the Bears.

The Bears welcome three true freshmen in 2009. A local product, Stephany Chang (San Jose, Calif.) stepped in and won 11 singles matches in fall tournaments. Jana Juricova (Piestany, Slovak Republic) arrived in Berkeley last fall and took onlookers by storm as she posted a team-high 17 singles victories and won the Saint Mary's Invitational singles title. She later went on to win the ASU Thunderbird Invitational singles title without dropping a single set of play. Juricova will be looked to for immediate contributions as the Bears enter the dual season. Rounding out the freshman class is Catalina Visico (Long Beach, Calif.), the younger sister of former Bear Cristina Visico.

On the sidelines, Zsuzsanna Fodor returns as a full-time assistant coach after serving one year in a volunteer capacity. Fodor was a two-time All-American as a player for the Bears. Cordell Ho remains with the Bears, returning to his role as a volunteer assistant coach in 2009.

The Bears open the spring by hosting the Cal Winter Invitational at Hellman Tennis Complex from Jan. 16-18. Two weeks later, Long Beach State, Washington and North Carolina State visit Berkeley for the ITA Kick-off Weekend on Jan. 31 and Feb. 1. The Bears head to Madison, Wisc. for the ITA National Team Indoor Championships from Feb. 13-16 before opening Pac-10 play at home against Washington (Feb. 27) and Washington State (Feb. 28). After facing rival Stanford on the Farm on March 7, Cal hosts perennial power Baylor on March 10. The Bears head to USC (Mar. 27) and UCLA (Mar. 28) before closing out the season with five straight matches at home. Cal concludes the regular season at Hellman against Stanford on April 18. The Pac-10 Championships will take place at Ojai, Calif. from April 23-26.

WOMEN'S HEAD COACH

Amanda AUGUSTUS

Head Coach
Second year at Cal
California '99

One of the most successful players in Cal women's tennis history, Amanda Augustus has quickly established herself as a force to be reckoned with. In just her first year at the helm for the Golden Bears, Augustus led Cal further into postseason play than any previous squad had ever gone; finishing No. 3 in the final ITA rankings as the NCAA team championship runner-up.

Now entering her second season in Berkeley, Augustus looks to improve on a 21-6 overall record, 6-2 in the Pac-10 for third place. Her team also won the Newmark award for posting the highest cumulative team GPA of all 27 of Cal's intercollegiate sports. The 2008 squad produced four ITA All-Americans; Susie Babos and Stephanie Kusano received doubles honors while Claire Ilcinkas and Marina Cossou were named singles All-Americans. Cossou, Ilcinkas and Babos also received Pac-10 All-Conference honors.

Augustus returned to her alma mater on July 20, 2007, succeeding her college coach, Jan Brogan, who announced her retirement, after 29 years at the helm. A four-time All-American at Cal from 1996-99, Augustus played professionally on the Women's Tennis Association (WTA) tour for several years before turning her efforts to coaching. The Manhattan Beach, Calif. native served as head men's and women's tennis coach at Whittier College from 2004-05 and was an assistant at Michigan in 2005-06, before being elevated to the head position for the 2006-07 season.

While overseeing the Wolverine program, Augustus guided the team to a 17-8 overall record, 8-2 in the Big Ten for third place. Michigan placed second at the Big Ten team championships and reached the second round of the NCAA tournament, completing its season with a No. 22 national ranking.

As a player for the Bears, Augustus earned

All-Pac-10 honors in each of her four years, including first-team recognition as a sophomore, junior and senior. She teamed with Amy Jensen to capture the NCAA doubles title in both 1998 and 1999 and became the first tandem ever to win back-to-back doubles championships. In addition, Augustus and Francesca La'o were NCAA doubles quarterfinalists in 1996.

Augustus also earned an invitation to play in the NCAA singles tournament each of her four years at Cal, reaching the quarterfinals as a junior in 1998. During her career, she was ranked as high as fourth nationally in singles.

As a senior, Augustus received the Cissy Leary Sportsmanship Award for the ITA Northwest Region, as well as the Gladys Heldman Award for her outstanding combination of athletics and academics. In 1998, she was selected as the Daily Californian's Female Athlete of the Year.

After graduating with her degree in economics and a minor in business administration, Augustus turned her attention to the WTA tour and successfully earned invitations to the main draw of all four Grand Slam events – Australian Open, French Open, Wimbledon and U.S. Open. She achieved world rankings of No. 82 in doubles and No. 304 in singles, and won 20 professional tournaments.

Augustus currently resides in Emeryville, Calif.

Amanda Augustus was a four-time All-American at Cal from 1996-99.

WOMEN'S COACHING STAFF

Zsuzsanna FODOR

Assistant Coach
Second year at Cal
California '07

A two time Cal All-American in both singles and doubles, Zsuzsanna Fodor enters her second season with the Golden Bears, this time as the assistant coach. Fodor spent the previous season serving as the volunteer assistant and was officially hired on Aug. 27, 2008.

In 2008, the Bears advanced to the NCAA team championship final and completed the season ranked No. 3 in the ITA poll. As a six-time Hungarian national champion, Fodor brings a broad array of experience to the Bears coaching staff. As a player, she compiled a 68-30 singles record and posted a 65-23 doubles record in her two seasons at Cal.

Fodor was twice named to the All-Pac-10 first team; the first time as she captured the 2006 Pac-10 singles championship on her way to Pac-10 Player of the Year honors. Coupled with fellow All-American Susie Babos, Fodor received recognition as part of the 2007 Pac-10 Doubles Team of the Year, as they posted a 21-7 record together.

Fodor earned a No. 5 singles ranking and a No. 2 doubles ranking as a junior in 2006 when she won the ITA Northwest Regional Championship doubles title with Babos. In 2005, she won the singles title at the ITA Regional Championship. She arrived at Berkeley after transferring from Mississippi State, where she was named the Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Year in 2005.

Fodor received a degree in interdisciplinary studies in 2007 and currently resides in Berkeley, Calif.

Cordell Ho has spent more than a decade coaching both the men's and women's tennis teams at Cal.

Prior to joining the women's program, Ho spent five seasons as the associate head coach for the men's program, as well as two seasons in a volunteer role.

His return to Cal and the women's team in 2004 helped the Bears advance to the NCAA final four and finish with a No. 5 ranking in 2006-07. Ho was instrumental in helping guide Susie Babos to her 2006 NCAA singles championship and had an influential hand in Cal's best-ever postseason finish as the Bears advanced to the NCAA team final and completed 2008 ranked No. 3 in the ITA poll.

Ho has held several head pro and tennis director appointments on the East Coast, as well as teaching positions at the University of Pennsylvania and the University of Washington. He has also had a long-time association with men's head coach Peter Wright, whom Ho coached both as a junior and as a professional on the men's tennis tour.

Born and raised in San Francisco, Ho began playing tennis competitively in Northern California junior tournaments and played collegiate tennis at Oregon, before moving to Vienna, Austria, in order to pursue his music studies.

An active composer of symphonic and chamber music, Ho has written film scores, theater pieces and operas. His music has been performed in the United States, Europe and Asia and he has lectured on music at UC Davis, Columbia University and the University of Washington.

Ho, a Cal graduate, (M.A. '75, B.A. '72), and his wife, Michele (B.A. Cal '79), live in Berkeley, Calif. with their two daughters, Ally and Xin Xin.

Cordell HO

Volunteer Assistant Coach
12th year at Cal
California '72

Cordell Ho is California's volunteer assistant coach after serving as the team's associate head coach in 2007-08. He also previously filled the volunteer assistant position from 2004-07.

2008 SEASON RECAP

The 2008 California women's tennis team, led by first-year head coach Amanda Augustus, advanced further than any other squad in program history as the Golden Bears went all the way to the NCAA championship match. Cal finished the regular season with a 6-2 record in Pac-10 play (third place) and won the Anson S. Thatcher team trophy, awarded to the team with the most points in both singles and doubles at the Pac-10 Championships.

The Bears opened up the NCAA tournament by hosting Army and No. 27 LSU in the first and second rounds. Cal posted two resounding 4-0 victories to advance to the round of 16 and made the trip to Tulsa, Okla. to play on the courts of the Michael D. Case Tennis Center. There, the Bears put up a 4-3 win over No.

9 Duke before taking out top-ranked Northwestern, 4-2, in the NCAA quarterfinal. Cal stayed strong and pulled out a 4-3 victory over No. 5 Baylor in the national semifinal before falling to No. 7 UCLA in the NCAA championship final.

Cal completed the season with a 21-6 overall record and ranked No. 3 in the final ITA poll. The Bears were honored with four ITA All-American selections. Seniors Susie Babos and Stephanie Kusano each received All-America distinction in doubles while junior Claire Ilcinkas and sophomore Marina Cossou each earned singles All-America honors. Babos, Ilcinkas and Cossou were also named to the Pac-10 All-Conference team. Kusano received All-Pac-10 honorable mention along with senior Cristina Visico. Babos was also honored as the ITA Northwest Region's Senior Player of the Year—Cal's sixth player to win the award—as she won her third individual crown, claiming the singles title at the 2007 All-American Championship.

In the classroom, four Bears made the Pac-10 All-Academic team, led by Ilcinkas on the first team. Babos and Kusano received second-team honors and junior Bojana Bobusic received All-Academic honorable mention. As a team, the Bears laid claim to the Newmark award for posting the top team grade-point average among all 27 of Cal's intercollegiate athletic teams.

The Golden Bears captured the Thatcher Cup at the 2008 Pac-10 Championships for earning the most points in the singles and doubles tournaments.

A TRIBUTE TO JAN BROGAN

LONGTIME CAL COACH SERVES UP RETIREMENT

An eight-time conference coach of the year, Jan Brogan amassed more than 500 victories while guiding the California women's tennis program for 29 seasons.

Brogan's direction made the Golden Bears a perennial power, earning 19 Top-10 finishes and making 26 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament. In her final season, Cal finished the 2006-07 campaign with a 23-7 record, a trip to the NCAA Championship Semifinal and a No. 5 ranking.

Under her tutelage, the Bears had 61 All-Americans, 19 first-team All-Pac-10 players and five conference players of the year. Brogan-coached players have won four doubles championships and one singles crown, all since 1999. Amanda Augustus and Amy Jensen teamed for doubles titles in 1999 and 2000, while Jensen partnered with Claire Curran for the 2001 champion-

Off the court, Cal players have also been named to the Pac-10 All-Academic squad on 27 occasions since 1994 and have been voted Academic All-American four times.

Brogan's career record comes to rest at 539-223 (.707), fourth on the NCAA's all-time women's tennis victory list. She is also fourth in career wins among all Cal coaches (Diane Ninemire, softball, 889; Bob Milano, baseball, 688; and Clint Evans, baseball, 547.)

A successful teaching professional in Los Gatos, Calif. before taking Cal's head coaching job in 1978, Brogan has been a member of the ITA Board of Directors, ITA Operating Committee, NCAA Championship, and Raquel Kops-Jones and Christina Fusano reached the victory stand in 2003. In 2006, Susie Babos swept through the field to become Cal's first women's NCAA Singles Champion.
