CALIFORNIA HEAD COACH

RICH FELLER

Head Coach

11th Year at Cal (25th Overall)

Rich Feller, in his 11th season with the Golden Bears, is undoubtedly the most successful women's volleyball coach in California history. Since he first stepped on campus in 1999, Feller has been able to craft the Bears into a Pac-10 contender and a national powerhouse. The facts speak for themselves—a school-record seven consecutive postseason appearances, five 20-win seasons in the past seven years, four NCAA round of 16 appearances, five different All-America selections and an appearance in the 2007 NCAA semifinals. Under Feller's leadership, the Bears have not only made the NCAA tournament seven straight times, they have won seven consecutive NCAA first-round matches and have advanced to the regional final or beyond in the past two seasons.

Feller's achievements on the court have not gone unnoticed as he was honored as Volleyball Magazine's 2007 National Coach of the Year. Since leading Cal to its first NCAA appearance in 13 years in 2002, Feller has firmly established the Bears as a top-tier team in the toughest volleyball conference in the nation—the Pac-10.

Last season, he led Cal to its second consecutive appearance in the NCAA regional final where the Bears fell in a hard-fought three-set match to eventual champion Penn State. Feller's 2008 squad was one of the most successful in program history. The Bears not only posted the best record in school history (26-7, 13-5 Pac-10) but set new school records for consecutive sets won (29), consecutive home matches won (16), best start to open a season (18-1) and best start to open Pac-10 play (8-0). Cal also posted a school-record for hitting percentage (.287) with 1,726 kills on 3,909 attacks (605 errors) and defeated each of the Pac-10 teams at least once in the same season for the first time in school history. Feller's guidance brought his players some well-deserved attention as well, as outside hitter Hana Cutura earned her second selection to the AVCA All-America team and setter Carli Lloyd garnered her first selection as a member of the second team.

In 2007, Feller coached the Bears to their first-ever appearance in the NCAA semifinals after Cal defeated Iowa State and then-defending NCAA champion Nebraska to claim the Wisconsin Regional. As one of the final four teams standing, Feller took Cal into a heated battle against eventual champion Penn State, falling 3-0 to the Nittany Lions at Arco Arena in Sacramento, Calif. The Bears finished the season with a 26-8 overall record, 12-6 in the Pac-10 for fourth place and a school-record No. 4 ranking in the final AVCA poll. Feller's direction helped the Bears set new school records for total blocks in a single season (454) and hitting percentage in a single match (.702 vs. UNC-Wilmington on Sept. 1).

In 2006, Feller led Cal to its second-ever NCAA regional appearance after the Bears defeated LSU and host Cal Poly, respectively, in the NCAA first and second rounds in San Luis Obispo, Calif.

Opening 2009 with a 490-282 (.635) overall record in 24 years as a college coach and 191-115 (.624) in ten years as Cal's mentor, Feller has his 2009 squad poised for another postseason appearance. Beyond taking the Bears to the postseason, he has generated excitement in the local volleyball community by enabling Cal to host the NCAA first and second rounds at Haas Pavilion during the 2003, 2004 and 2008 campaigns. His players are closely connected to the community through their commitment to camps and clinics offered throughout the year. During the summer of 2008, Feller coordinated the hosting of the USA Women's Indoor Volleyball team and a scrimmage for the public in its final week before departing for the Summer Olympics in Beijing, China.

Cal's 2003 campaign was especially sweet for the veteran coach as Feller guided the Bears to a 25-7 record and the school's first-ever NCAA round of 16 berth with victo-

Coach of the Year. He was the first Cal volleyball coach to garner regional coach of the year honors, and was the first Bear mentor selected for league coaching honors since Chris Stanley was NorPac Conference Coach of the Year in 1982.

Before arriving at Berkeley, Feller was an assistant coach for the United States Women's National Volleyball Team from 1997-98. Prior to his stint with team USA, he was a highly successful head coach at Colorado State. In his 14 years directing the Rams, Feller compiled a 299-167 (.642) record with eight NCAA tournament appearances, two conference titles, 12 top-25 final rankings and several All-America, all-conference and all-academic athletes.

In Feller's first season at Colorado State in 1983, he led his team to a 26-12 record, a top-20 ranking and a NCAA tournament appearance for the first time in school history. In 1987, Feller was named AVCA Regional Coach of the Year.

From 1980-83, Feller was the top assistant to Taras Liskevych (USA Olympic coach from 1985-96 and current Oregon State head coach) at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, helping the Tigers to second, fourth and fifth-place national finishes in his three years with the program.

Growing up in Palo Alto, Feller already had ties to the Bay Area before arriving at Cal in 1999. His father, David, earned his Ph.D. at Cal and his mother, Bernice, was a Cal undergraduate.

"The opportunity to coach at Cal and to have the challenge of competing in the Pac-10 Conference was a dream come true," said Feller. "Any coach who is involved in college volleyball would relish the chance to coach in the Pac-10 and to come to Cal. Working at Cal is one of the best jobs in the nation."

Feller, 58, earned his bachelor's degree in recreation administration from San Diego State in 1973 and currently lives in the Montclair District of the Oakland Hills with his wife, Stacey. He has three children – Evan (25), Ashleigh (23) and Ryan (21); and a stepson, Brad Bertolet (23).

ASSISTANT COACHES

CHRIS BIGELOW

*Assistant Coach
11th year at Cal*

A key component and the veteran of the Cal volleyball coaching staff is 11th-year assistant and chief recruiting coordinator Chris Bigelow. A former assistant at Wisconsin and Texas, Bigelow was hired by Rich Feller at Cal in January of 1999. She has since been instrumental in securing recruiting classes ranked among the top 10 in the nation for the Golden Bears, including a No. 5 ranking in 2005 and a school-best No. 3 ranking by PrepVolleyball.com in 2006.

"To recruits around the country, Chris Bigelow is the voice of Cal volleyball, and to club and college coaches, she is one of the top recruiters in the nation," said Feller. "No one works harder than Chris. Besides being a great recruiter, she is also an outstanding training coach with a special interest in video tape analysis."

Bigelow built an impressive array of coaching credentials before arriving at Cal. She was an assistant coach for Bill Neville at Montana State from 1978-81, before taking over as head coach of the Bobcats from 1981-83. Bigelow then became an assistant to current USC volleyball coach Mick Haley at Texas from 1984-91, helping lead the Longhorns to seven conference championships, three NCAA semifinal appearances and one national championship in 1988.

From 1991-93, Bigelow worked as a volleyball TV color commentator for the Southwest Conference and University of Texas radio.

In 1993-94, Bigelow coached St. Stephens Episcopal High School in Austin, Texas, to a 30-3 season. She then accepted an offer to become John Cook's assistant coach at Wisconsin, helping the Badgers to three NCAA tournament appearances, one NCAA round of 16 finish, two NCAA quarterfinal appearances and one Big Ten co-championship from 1995-98.

Bigelow was a three-sport athlete at Eastern Washington and a member of the USA Volleyball training squad from 1973-74. She graduated from Eastern Washington in 1974 with a bachelor's degree in physical education. Bigelow received her master's degree from Montana State in physical education in 1980.

MATT McSHANE

*Assistant Coach
Fifth year at Cal*

Matt McShane joined the Cal volleyball staff on Feb. 2, 2005, and made an immediate impact as he helped the Golden Bears achieve a school-record fourth consecutive NCAA postseason appearance. McShane and his fellow Bear coaches then took it a step further in 2006 as Cal advanced to an NCAA regional for only the second time in school history. His offensive and defensive schemes have combined to give Cal the edge over some of college volleyball's most long-standing power programs.

The veteran coach arrived in Berkeley after spending four years as an assistant coach at the University of Utah. In 2004, the Utes went 24-7 overall and 13-1 in league action and captured a share of their first-ever Mountain West Conference title.

"I am very pleased to have Matt McShane as part of our staff," said Rich Feller. "Matt is known around the country as one of the top training coaches in college volleyball. He has years of experience in high-level volleyball; collegiate and international. Matt and I have known each other for years and spent 15 months together working as assistant coaches for USA National team in 1997 and 1998."

Before joining the Utah staff, McShane was an associate head coach at the University of New Mexico from 1987-00. In 13 years in Albuquerque, he helped guide the Lobos to a 189-127 record, two conference championships and six trips to the NCAA tournament.

In the summer of 2007, McShane was an assistant coach for USA Volleyball's National A2 team, coaching former Cal standout Angie Pressey. During the summer of 2002, he also served as the head coach for the USA National A2 Team. In the summer of 2001, he was the head coach for the Inter-mountain Volleyball Association (IVA) High Performance Team that toured Europe.

In 1996, McShane was named an assistant coach of the USA Women's National team at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colo. While with the U.S. National team, McShane designed and ran practice sessions, did video analysis of Team USA and other major teams in the world, and prepared scouting reports on U.S. opponents.

McShane's coaching background also includes assisting current USA Women's National Indoor Volleyball team coach "Jenny" Lang Ping with the Yaohan International Volleyball Team in 1996. The team was comprised of the best American and Russian players who competed against the Chinese and Cuban National teams in cities throughout China.

Additionally, McShane served as an assistant coach at Brigham Young University from 1980-82. He is a member of the USAV

Coaches Accreditation Program Cadre (CAP Level III), and each year, he runs numerous clinics throughout the U.S., teaching other college, high school and junior coaches the fundamentals of volleyball.

As an undergraduate at UC Santa Barbara, McShane played on the only intercollegiate team to win the USAV Open National Championship. The UCSB teams finished second in the NCAA Championships in 1974 and '75, and finished third in the NCAA Regional Championships in 1976. He was an All-American for the Gauchos in 1974.

McShane earned his bachelor's degree from UC Santa Barbara in 1977 and his master's degree from BYU in 1982. While at BYU, he played on the men's club team that finished third at the USAV Open National Championship in 1981.

RYAN NEWELL

*Volunteer Assistant Coach
First year at Cal*

Ryan Newell enters his first season as the volunteer assistant coach for the Cal women's volleyball program.

Newell comes to the Golden Bears from Chico State where he was the volunteer assistant coach for the Wildcats from 2005-08. Working mainly on individual basic techniques with players, Newell helped Chico State to 71 wins in four seasons. During his time with the Wildcats, he was also a coach for Gold Medal Squared Volleyball Camps.

As an outside hitter for the Chico State men's club volleyball team, Newell served as president, team captain and the trip coordinator over the course of four years. In 2008, he was selected as the Division I-AA MVP at the NIRSA (National Intramural-Recreational Sports Association) national championships in Dallas, Texas and earned a spot on the NCCVL (Northern California Collegiate Volleyball League) Division I All-League second team.

Newell received a bachelor degree in business administration with an emphasis in organizational management from Chico State in 2008. He is a member of the Sigma Nu International Fraternity and currently resides in Berkeley, Calif.

JENNIFER CAREY

*Director of Operations
First year at Cal*

Jennifer Carey, a former award-winning standout setter at the University of Hawai'i at Manoa is entering her first season as director of operations for the Golden Bears. Carey was hired on February 5, 2009, and will be responsible for planning team travel and maintaining the program's budget while serving as the liaison between with the academic, financial aid and business offices.

Prior to arriving at Cal, Carey was an assistant coach at Georgia Tech for the 2007 and 2008 seasons. Working primarily as the offensive coordinator, she helped guide the Yellow Jackets to back-to-back 20-win seasons with a 21-10 record in 2008. Carey was responsible for developing scouting reports and game-day offensive play sets as well as the technical development of outside hitters and middle blockers.

In addition to her coaching duties at Georgia Tech, Carey provided direction as a recruiter, travel coordinator and as an assistant camp director. During her tenure, her efforts helped the Yellow Jacket program raise over $12,000 for the Susan G. Komen Foundation as a part of Dig for the Cure.

Carey arrived at Georgia Tech by way of Texas A&M, where she was the director of volleyball operations from 2005-06. During her time in College Station, Texas, she also worked as the tournament director for the 2005 NCAA College Station Regional and other home tournaments for the Aggies.

While living in College Station, Carey served as the head coach of the Brazos Valley Volleyball Club from 2005-06 and led her squad to a 27-2 record over two seasons. Her coaching experience extends further as she held a post as head coach for the Saddleback Valley Volleyball Club in Lake Forest, Calif. where she guided the team to a 32-3 record from 2004-05.

In 1999, Carey was the starting setter for the Rainbow Wahine as a freshman where she earned All-Western Athletic Conference second-team honors. She helped lead Hawai'i to a 29-2 record, an NCAA regional semifinal appearance and a No. 8 AVCA final ranking in her first season. In her four-year career, Carey took the Rainbow Wahine to two NCAA national semifinal appearances, two No. 3 rankings, and a 123-12 record. She earned All-WAC second team honors three times and finished her career ranked fourth all-time for Hawai'i with 3,540 assists. Carey was selected to the WAC All-Academic team in each of her four years with the Rainbow Wahine.

Carey's first collegiate match was a 3-0 (15-8, 15-7, 15-5) win against Cal on Sept. 1, 1999, at the Recreational Sports Facility in Berkeley, Calif. She had 33 assists to go along with 12 digs and three kills on five attacks. The match was also the first at Cal for head coach Rich Feller and assistant coach Chris Bigelow.

Carey graduated from Hawai'i with a degree in business administration in marketing in 2003. She then worked as a sales and marketing executive for KHNL and K5 Television in Honolulu before leaving the islands to play professionally in the fall of 2004 with Brandenburg VCO in Berlin, Germany. Carey currently resides in Oakland, Calif.
