PACIFIC-10 CONFERENCE

The Pacific-10 Conference continues to uphold its tradition as the "Conference of Champions"®, claiming an incredible 166 NCAA team titles over the past 19 years, including 11 in 2008-09, averaging nearly nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-10's success, with championships coming in 26 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-10 has led the nation in NCAA Championships in 43 of the last 49 years and finished second five times.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-10 has captured 380 NCAA titles (261 men's, 119 women's), far outdistancing the runner-up Big Ten Conference's 222 titles.

The Pac-10 captured a nation's-best 11 NCAA titles in 2008-09. The total does not include a national title in men's rowing, which WASHINGTON claimed by taking top honors at the IRA Championships Regatta. Men's rowing is not a NCAA event.

Seven of the 10 Conference institutions claimed NCAA team titles in 2008-09. NCAA team champions came from ARIZONA STATE (women's golf), CALIFORNIA (women's swimming), OREGON (men's cross country, men's indoor track & field), UCLA (women's water polo), STANFORD (men's gymnastics, women's rowing), USC (men's tennis, men's water polo) and WASHINGTON (women's cross country, softball). The Pac-10 also had runners-up in nine NCAA Championship events: women's cross country (OREGON), women's volleyball (STANFORD), women's water polo (USC), men's volleyball (USC), women's tennis (CALIFORNIA), women's golf (UCLA), women's rowing (CALIFORNIA), men's and women's outdoor track & field (OREGON). The Pac-10 also earned a runner-up finish at the IRA men's rowing championship (CALIFORNIA). Overall, the conference had 26 teams finish in the top four at NCAA Championship events.

Participation in the postseason was a common occurrence for the Pac-10 in 2008-09. Of the 22 sports sponsored by the Conference, 18 witnessed at least half its teams participating in NCAA or other postseason action. The men sent 63 of a possible 93 teams into the postseason (67.7 percent), while the women sent 65 of a possible 101 teams (64.4 percent).

Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 28 years ago, Pac-10 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 20 occasions, including 2008-09. Overall, the Pac-10 has captured 119 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second with 74. Pac-10 members have dominated a number of sports,

PAC-10 WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL

There is little argument that the Pacific-10 Conference is the nation's strongest in the sport of women's volleyball. Since the beginning of the NCAA Volleyball Championships in 1981, a Pac-10 institution has won the national title 13 times, and finished as runner-up on an additional 13 occasions.

Only one conference in the nation has sent each of its members to at least one NCAA Tournament - the Pac-10. The conference has routinely sent four or more representatives each season to the NCAA Tournament, topped by eight participants in 2002. To further prove the point, five NCAA Championship matches have featured Pac-10 teams battling each other for the national crown.

Pac-10 volleyball history dates back to 1986, when the Conference began sponsoring women's athletics. Over the past 20 years, over 90 Pac-10 athletes have garnered All-America honors from the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA). Those individuals have collected over 150 All-America certificates, including eight AVCA National Player of the Year winners.

Cal has made 12 NCAA Tournament appearances (1982, '83, '87, '88, '89, '02, '03, '04, '05, '06, '07 and '08), making the round of 16 for the first time in school history in 2003, and again in 2006, '07 and '08. The trip in 2007 yielded the best result yet as the Bears advanced to the NCAA championship semifinal for the first time in school history. Cal also finished fifth in the 1991 National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC), and was 10th at the 1981 AIAW National Championship.

winning 21 softball titles, 18 tennis crowns, 13 of the last 19 volleyball titles, 13 of the last 20 trophies in golf and 11 in swimming & diving.

Pac-10 women athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 525 NCAA individual crowns, an average of more than 18 championships per season.

Currently, the Pac-10 sponsors 11 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and three women's sports.

The Pacific-10 Conference offices are located 25 miles east of San Francisco in Walnut Creek, Calif.
