TERPS LEAVE THE ACC ON TOP

- The Terps topped Virginia 1-0 to win its second straight Atlantic Coast Conference championship and its final title before leaving the conference to head to the Big Ten in 2014.
- Maryland's offense is led by one of the top scoring tandems in the nation Patrick Mullins and Schillo Tshuma. Mullins
- the 2012 MAC Hermann Trophy winner leads the ACC in both goals and points. Tshuma is second on the team in goals and racked up second team All-ACC honors earlier this season.
- · Gone from last year's starting midfield is All-American John Stertzer, who was drafted 12th overall by Real Salt Lake in the 2013 MLS SuperDraft. However, the cupboard is far from empty with talented players like Dan Metzger, Sunny Jane, Tsubasa Endoh and Mikias Eticha running the center this season.
- · Sophomore Mikey Ambrose has anchored the Terrapin defense, which is incredibly young and includes starting freshmen centerbacks Chris Odoi-Atsem and Suli Dainkeh.
- Freshman Zack Steffen has started every game between the sticks for the Terps.

2013 MARYLAND MEN'S SOCCER

SCOUTING CALIFORNIA

- California edged Coastal Carolina 1-0 to advance to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Men's Soccer Championship.
- The Bears are outscoring opponents 37-19 this season. Cal has allowed only five first-half tallies in 2013. Steve Birnbaum leads the offense with 10 goals and an assist.
- Cal started the season 10-0-2 including a 3-2 overtime win against Maryland before losing its first match of the season against San Diego Oct. 25.

MULLINS LEADS TERPS PAST UC IRVINE

- Patrick Mullins capped off his Ludwig Field career in style last Sunday with a first half goal that sent No. 5 Maryland past No. 12 UC Irvine 1-0 and into the quarterfinals of the 2013 NCAA Men's Soccer Championship last Saturday.
- The Terrapins controlled much of what became a very physical match with the Anteaters. Freshman keeper Zack Steffen came up big time and time again for the Terps over the course of the 90 minutes, including a couple of huge saves in the second half.

GOING OUT WITH A BANG! TERPS WIN ACC CHAMPIONSHIP

- The Maryland men's soccer team benefited from an own goal to defeat Virginia 1-0 and capture its second consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference championship Sunday in front of nearly 5,000 fans at the Maryland SoccerPlex.
- With 2:42 remaining, ACC Championship Most Valuable Player Patrick Mullins crossed the ball into the box from short range and Virginia defender Kevin McBride failed on the clear, beating goalkeeper Calle Brown and giving Maryland its third title in four years and sixth tournament championship overall.
- In addition to Mullins, Sauers, Metzger, and Mikey Ambrose were tabbed to the all-tournament team.

MARYLAND/CAL - ROUND ONE

- For the second match in a row to begin the 2013 season, No. 2 Maryland forced overtime in the final 12 minutes of regulation, but unlike their draw at Stanford two days prior, the Terps dropped a 3-2 decision to California Sept. 1.
- Cal notched the gamewinner when Alec Sundly's follow-up shot beat Zack Steffen to his right after a stellar save from the young keeper minutes into the overtime period. Schillo Tshuma gave Maryland the equalizer 1:12 into the second half and Jake Pace knotted the game at 2-2 with 11:56 remaining in the contest to account for the Terrapin scoring.

WHEN #15 SCORES, GOOD THINGS HAPPEN

- Patrick Mullins has recorded a masterful 44 goals in his prolific career at Maryland but possibly more impressive is the Terps' record when #15 finds the back of the net.
- In four years, Maryland has lost only one game when Mullins scores a goal. The Terps are 31-1-5 in matches Mullins' notches a tally. The lone loss came against Wake Forest earlier this season.

TERPS CLINCH SHARE OF ACC REGULAR SEASON TITLE

- Senior Patrick Mullins scored the golden goal in overtime to lead the No.
 Maryland men's soccer team to a 2-1 victory at Virginia Tech Friday night.
 The win clinched a share of the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season championship for the Terps as they cap their final season in the league.
- The title marks Maryland's 24th ACC Regular Season Championship in program history. It's the Terps' second consecutive title and their third since 2005. Notre Dame capped its first season as a member of the ACC with a matching 7-1-3 record. Maryland earned the top seed due to a tiebreaker.

ALL SYSTEMS GO AGAINST MARSHALL

- Senior Patrick Mullins scored two goals as the No. 4 Maryland men's soccer team defeated Marshall 5-0 at Ludwig Field.
- The Terrapins relentlessly attacked the Thundering Herd from the opening whistle and held a 16-6 shot advantage in the match. The Terps' five goal win was their highest margin of victory this season.
- · Dan Metzger, David Kabelik, and Ryan Reid also scored for Maryland.

BONUS SOCCER

- Maryland has battled opponents to extra stanzas in eight of 23 games this season, including five double overtime matches.
- The Terps lone defeat in overtime came at California in the second contest of the year.

TERRAPIN DYNASTY

Soccer

- Maryland has seven College Cup appearances in the last 15 years, tied for most in the country.
- Maryland has advanced to the postseason in 12 straight years. No other school has done so more than five consecutive seasons.
- Maryland has finished in the top 15 in the final NSCAA poll for 11 straight seasons. No other school has done so more than five straight years.
- Every four-year player at Maryland since 1998 has been part of a College Cup team. The 15-year run is the longest active streak in the country. The second-longest is Wake Forest (seven years).
- Men's soccer has more NCAA titles than all other men's programs at Maryland combined since 1976.

In all sports with at least 32 schools in its NCAA Tournament

- Maryland has more consecutive appearances in the round-of-16 than any other program in the country with 12. The second-most on that elite list is five.
- No other head coach in the nation has more national championships since 2002 than Sasho Cirovski. He is joined in that elite company by the likes of Jim Calhoun of UConn, Billy Donovan of Florida, and Roy Williams of North Carolina, who have all won two.

MULLINS, METZGER HEADLINE ALL-ACC LIST

- Patrick Mullins and Dan Metzger were tabbed to the All-Atlantic Coast Conference Men's Soccer First Team, announced by league officials Thursday.
- In addition to Mullins and Metzger, Schillo Tshuma landed second team honors and Mikey Ambrose was named to the third team. Zack Steffen and Michael Sauers were both tabbed to the All-ACC Freshman Team.

MARYLAND SECURES NO. 5 SEED IN NCAA TOURNAMENT

- · Maryland picked up the fifth overall seed in the 2013 NCAA Men's Soccer Championship, announced Monday afternoon.
- The Terps played a total of 10 teams in this year's field, including Clemson and Virginia which they took on twice. Additionally, Maryland played tournament contenders Penn State and St. John's in a pair of preseason exhibitions.
- · Maryland is making its 33rd appearance in the NCAA tournament. The Terps advance dto the third round for a nation-best 12th straight season in 2013.

MULLINS NAMED ACC CO-PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- · Forward Patrick Mullins has been named Atlantic Coast Conference Men's Soccer Co-Player of the Week, announced by the league office.
- · Mullins, a senior from New Orleans, had a hand in all of the No. 5 Terrapins' goals during a rugged road stretch that produced a 1-1 tie at second-ranked Notre Dame and a 3-3 draw at 23rd-ranked Virginia. Mullins scored the equalizer in the 72nd minute at Notre Dame and had a pair of goals and an assist at Virginia as Maryland remained unbeaten in ACC play.

TERPS SALVAGE DRAW AT #2 NOTRE DAME

- Senior Patrick Mullins tallied the lone goal as the No. 5 Maryland men's soccer team escaped No. 2 Notre Dame with a 1-1 draw.
- Maryland was keyed by a tremendous defensive effort as the Terps kicked off the first leg of their most difficult road trip of the year. Freshman Zack Steffen racked up five saves to anchor the effort against Notre Dame.

THE 40 GOAL CLUB

• Patrick Mullins' two-goal showing against Wake Forest put the senior forward in prestigious company when he moved to fifth all-time in career goals at Maryland with 40. After his game-winning tally against UC Irvine in the NCAA third round, Mullins now boasts 44 and is third all-time.

TERPS, CREW CELEBRATE 10TH ANNIVERSARY

- The University of Maryland men's soccer program mingled with over 1,800 fans as it celebrated the 10th anniversary of The Crew.
- The Terps distributed 1,800 free scarves to their loyal fan base at Ludwig Field following their final practice before facing Duke in a highly-anticipated Atlantic Coast Conference showdown.

TERPS TOP DUKE IN FRONT OF LUDWIG RECORD CROWD

- · Sophomore Tsubasa Endoh scored one goal and added two assists as the No. 13 Maryland men's soccer team defeated Duke 3-1 in front of a Ludwig Field record crowd of 8,397.
- The Terrapins fell behind early for the third time this season, but fought back with three second-half scores from Endoh, Helge Leikvang and Patrick Mullins to overcome the Blue Devils.

20 AND COUNTING!

- With a 15-3-5 record in 2013, Maryland clinched yet another winning season its 20th consecutive.
- Prior to this season, Maryland averaged 15.5 wins per season since 1994. The Terps have had four 20+ win seasons in that span and have hit the 15-victory mark 11 times.

2013 MARYLAND MEN'S SOCCER

MULLINS TABBED A MAC HERMANN SEMIFINALIST

- Patrick Mullins was one of 15 players named a 2013 MAC Hermann Semifinalist Tuesday.
- Mullins became only the second Terrapin to win the MAC Hermann Trophy in 2012. A forward from New Orleans, Mullins led Maryland's high-scoring attack with 17 goals and 10 assists as a junior. This season he boasts 16 goals and five game-winning tallies.

MARYLAND PICKED FIRST IN ACC PRESEASON POLL

- Maryland is the preseason favorite to claim the 2013 Atlantic Coast Conference Men's Soccer Championship, according to a vote of the league's 12 head coaches.
- The 2012 ACC Champion Terrapins, who return MAC Hermann Trophy winner Patrick Mullins, amassed 142 points in the balloting. North Carolina, which reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship last season, placed second with 122 points in the conference poll.
- Maryland led with 10 first-place votes. Wake Forest and Notre Dame, selected third and fourth, respectively, each received one first-place vote.

MULLINS NAMED ACC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Senior forward Patrick Mullins has been named Atlantic Coast Conference Men's Soccer Player of the Week after his two-goal performance in the Terrapins' 3-1 road win over 13th-ranked and previously unbeaten Clemson.
- Mullins, the 2012 MAC Hermann Trophy winner, tallied the first and final goals against the Tigers, who had surrendered just one goal in six matches this season prior to Saturday night's contest.
- Mullins sealed the win in the 83rd minute when pulled down in the box and converted the subsequent penalty opportunity for his second goal of the match. The New Orleans native's efforts helped the Terps remain unbeaten in ACC play.

DYNAMIC DUO

- Patrick Mullins and Schillo Tshuma continue to show why they are one of the most prolific 1-2 punches in college soccer.
- The pair have combined for 22 of Maryland's 48 goals in 2013.

CALI KICKOFF

- Maryland played back-to-back overtime matches when it tied Stanford and fell to California to open the 2013 season.
- The Terps battled from two down to net a tie against the Cardinal. Patrick Mullins, Schillo Tshuma and Jake Pace scored for Maryland.
- At Cal, Pace slotted the equalizer late in the second period to lift the Terps to extra stanzas. Tshuma also recorded a goal for Maryland.

TERPS, TAR HEELS DRAW IN CHAPEL HILL

- Sophomore Schillo Tshuma recorded two goals to lead the No. 18 Maryland men's soccer team to a hard-fought 2-2 tie at No. 2 North Carolina.
- The Terrapins amassed 20 shots on the night and fueled by the return of sophomore defender Dakota Edwards tallied nearly 90 minutes of shutout soccer to cap the match and give North Carolina its second straight draw.

MEET THE NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

- The Maryland men's soccer program welcomes another talented group this fall with a six-member freshman class in 2013.
- The Terps' signing class is ranked third in the nation according to TopDrawerSoccer.com and features two members of the U-18 U.S. men's national team with the signing of Zack Steffen and Suli Dainkeh.
- Other newcomers include Alex Crognale, Daniel Johnson, Chris Odoi-Atsem and Michael Sauers.

Head Coach Sasho Cirovski 21st season/24th overall Wisconsin-Milwaukee, '85 319-119-34 record at Maryland

Upon his arrival in College Park in 1993, Sasho Cirovski has transformed Maryland into a national soccer power, leading the Terps to the 2008 and 2005 NCAA titles, seven College Cup appearances, and five ACC titles, all the while producing numerous top-level professional players. Now entering his 21st season at Maryland, the 2005 NSCAA National Coach of the Year has instilled his passion for excellence in a soccer program that expects to compete for the national title every season.

During his tenure with the Terps, Maryland has been to the NCAA Tournament 18 times, advancing to the Final Four in seven of those years, including four-straight appearances from 2002-05, culminating in the NCAA title in 2005. The Terps have also captured five ACC Tournament titles (1996, 2002, 2008, 2010, and 2012) and two ACC regular season titles (2003, 2005, and 2012) during his stay in College Park.

Maryland put together one of its finest campaigns in 2012, boasting the top winning percentage and scoring offense in the country. The Terps captured the ACC regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the College Cup before bowing out in penalty kicks in the national semifinals. Patrick Mullins was named the MAC Hermann Trophy Winner and all three seniors - Taylor Kemp, John Stertzer, and London Woodberry - all landed in the MLS through either the MLS SuperDraft or homegrown contracts.

In 2008, the Terps established the 'Gold Standard', capturing the program's third national title and winning more games (23) than any other squad in program history. The team also set program-bests in shutouts (15) and consecutive wins (16) as well as registering a Ludwig Field-record crowd of 6,500 in Maryland's bout with then-No. 1 Wake Forest. The 2008 season marked the first time in the Cirovski-era that the Terps won both the NCAA Tournament and the ACC Tournament. To top it off, Cirovski eclipsed long-time head coach Doyle Royal to become Maryland men's soccer winningest coach in a win against Duke on Sept. 19.

The 2005 championship run did not mark the arrival of the Maryland program, but helped validate its place alongside the nation's elite. In addition to a fourth-straight College Cup appearance, the Terps won the ACC regular season title and posted a 19-4-2 mark. In addition, Cirovski helped mentor Maryland's first Hermann Trophy winner in Jason Garey, who left Maryland as the school's all-time leader in goals (60) and points (140) and was the third pick in the MLS SuperDraft. Cirovski was named the ACC Coach of the Year for the second time in his career, and was the NSCAA National Coach of the Year for the first time in his career as the Terps brought home their first national title since 1968.

Under Cirovski's guidance, the Terps have brought fans out to Ludwig Field in record numbers. In 2009, the Terps ranked second nationally in overall attendance and a then program-record crowd of 6,946 watched Maryland trump No. 2 North Carolina. Cirovski's efforts to build a winning team that plays an exciting brand of soccer are only matched by his efforts to build Ludwig Field into one of the top soccer venues in the country.

In addition to his leadership on the sidelines, Cirovski is also a leader as the chairman of the men's soccer NSCAA Division I committee. As chairman, Cirovski was the architect in creating the position of NSCAA Program Director, a major triumph for the sport. This position will be the singular voice of college soccer in dealing with NCAA legislative issues, overseeing College Cups and elevating the significance and status of the sport. He was also vital in brokering the television partnership between Fox Soccer Channel and the NSCAA, guaranteeing a weekly spot for college soccer on television.

Team Accomplishments

- 2008, 2005 NCAA Champions
- 19 NCAA postseason appearances with Maryland
- Six Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament championships ('96, '02,'08, '10, '12, '13)

- Three NCAA postseason appearances with

 Horfford
- Two North Atlantic Conference championships
- Four Atlantic Coast Conference regular season titles
- 20 straight winning seasons
- School-record 23 wins in 2008
- School-record 15 shutouts in 2008, 2010
- School-record 66 goals in 2005

Player Accomplishments

- MAC Hermann Trophy winners Jason Garey (2005) and Patrick Mullins (2012)
- Two No. 1 picks in the MLS collegiate draft (Leo Cullen, 1998 and Maurice Edu, 2006)
- Two MLS Rookie of the Year selections (Maurice Edu, 12006 and Omar Gonzalez, 2009)
- 47 MLS players

- Two ACC Freshman of the Year (Jeremy Hall, 2006; Patrick Mullins, 2010)
- 36 first team All-ACC selections
- 31 All-America honors

"Sasho has not only a vision and a passion to improve and promote college soccer but he has the knowledge and the dedication to pursue new ideas," Creighton head coach Elmar Bolowich said. "His enthusiasm for our sport is infectious and it will unite Division I college coaches to pursue our objectives and achieve them."

In addition to the accomplishments of his 21-year coaching career with the Terps, Cirovski was also a standout student-athlete himself. He began his career at Wisconsin-Milwaukee where he was a four-year letterwinner. As a senior, he won the Herman Kluge Award for Male Athlete of the Year, and, in 1998, he was inducted into the UWM Athletic Hall of Fame. He earned his bachelor's degree in 1985 and his master's in 1989. He then spent parts of three seasons as a professional player and coach with the teams in the Canadian Soccer League, and the National Professional Soccer League. His first taste of coaching came in 1987 in the Canadian Soccer League.

Cirovski is entering his 24th year of coaching overall, and holds an "A" coaching license from the U.S. Soccer Federation, as well as an Advanced National Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. During the summer of 1997, he served as the assistant coach of the JVC U-17 World Youth Championship team, which played against Argentina, Uruguay, Egypt and two domestic camps. The team competed at the U-17 World Cup Championship in Egypt held in September of 1997. Cirovski also worked as an assistant coach for the U.S. U-20 National Team.

Cirovski's wife, the former Shannon Higgins, played collegiate soccer at North Carolina and entered the National Soccer Hall of Fame in the fall of 2002. The couple has three daughters; Hailey, Karli, and Ellie.
