Entering the 2006-07 season, the Pacific-10 Conference continues to uphold its tradition as the "Conference of Champions."® Pac-10 members have claimed an incredible 138 NCAA team titles over the past 16 seasons, for an average of more than eight championships per academic year.

Even more impressive is the breadth of the Pac-10's success, as those 138 team titles have come in 24 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-10 has led the nation in NCAA Championships 40 of the last 46 years and finished second five times.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievement, the Pac-10 has captured 351 NCAA titles (251 men's, 100 women's), far outdistancing the runner-up Big Ten Conference's 205 titles.

The Pac-10 captured nine NCAA titles in 2005-06 to lead the nation. It should be noted that the Pac-10 total does not include CALIFORNIA's national championship in rugby or men's crew, as they are not counted as NCAA titles. The Pac-10 led the nation with the most NCAA titles in women's sports with six.

Rowing proved to be a showcase of Pac-10 talent, as CALIFORNIA claimed both the NCAA women's title and the men solidified their title dreams with an IRA championship.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA men's individual champions as well, claiming 1,127 NCAA individual crowns.

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 25 years ago, Pac-10 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 17 occasions. Overall, the Pac-10 has captured 100 NCAA women's crowns, easily outdistancing the Southeastern Conference, which is second with 66. Pac-10 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 18 softball titles, 17 tennis crowns, 11 of the last 16 volleyball titles, 11 of the last 17 trophies in golf and eight in swimming and diving.

Currently, the Pac-10 sponsors 11 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and two other women's sports.

PAC-10 WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL

There is little argument that the Pacific-10 Conference is the nation's strongest in the sport of women's volleyball. Since the beginning of the NCAA Volleyball Championships in 1981, a Pac-10 institution has won the national title 13 times, and finished as runner-up on an additional 10 occasions.

Only one conference in the nation has sent each of its members to at least one NCAA Tournament - the Pac-10. The conference has routinely sent four or more representatives each season to the NCAA Tournament, topped by eight participants in 2002. To further prove the point, five NCAA Championship matches have featured Pac-10 teams battling each other for the national crown.

Pac-10 volleyball history dates back to 1986, when the Conference began sponsoring women's athletics. Over the past 18 years, 74 Pac-10 athletes have garnered All-America honors from the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA). Those individuals have collected an astounding 122 All-America certificates, including seven AVCA National Player of the Year winners.

Cal has made nine NCAA Tournament appearances (1982, '83, '87, '88, '89, '02, '03, '04, '05), making the round of 16 for the first time in school history in 2003. The Bears also finished fifth in the 1991 National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC), and were 10th at the 1981 AIAW National Championship.
