CAL OLYMPIC TRADITION

The University of California has a long and proud Olympic tradition, and nowhere is that tradition more evident than in the sport of swimming. Since head coach Nort Thornton arrived in Berkeley in 1975, 48 Cal swimmers have represented their countries in the Olympic Games. Cal swimmers have captured a total of 30 medals, including 14 gold, 11 silver and five bronze medals.

Behind the guidance of Cal's Co-Head Coach Mike Bottom, Duje Draganja was one of the stars at the 2004 Athens Olympics. The former Golden Bear won a silver medal for Croatia in the 50-meter freestyle, taking second to the USA's Gary Hall, Jr., another Bottom product. Eleven other Bears – past, present and future – competed in Athens. Others who competed were returning swimmers Henrique Barbosa (Brazil), Milorad Cavic (Serbia & Montenegro), Miguel Molina (Philippines), Jernej Godec (Slovenia) and Dominik Meichtry (Switzerland) and former Bears Rolandas Gimbutis (Lithuania), Renato Guerardi (Brazil), Bart Kizierowski (Poland), Gordan Kozulj (Croatia), Alex Lim (Malaysia) and Ratapong "Nuk" Sirisanont (Thailand).

Anthony Ervin was one of the United States' stars at the 2000 Sydney Olympics. Ervin came away with gold medals in the 50-meter free and the 400-meter medley relay, and earned a silver medal in the 400-meter free relay. Also at the Sydney Olympics, four other Cal swimmers competed, with Kizierowski reaching the finals of the 100-meter back and 50-meter free, Kozulj making the finals of the 200-meter back and Sirisanont competing in the 200-meter breast.

Two years after Thornton was named the head coach at Cal, five of his swimmers competed in the 1976 Olympic Games, which were held in Montreal. Peter Rocca, a member of the California Hall of Fame since 1988, swam in the 100 and 200-meter back and won two silver medals. Graham Smith, representing the host country Canada, was a member of a 400-meter medley relay team that won the silver medal. Representing Sweden were Cal swimmers Par Arvidsson and Leif Ericsson, while Jim Carter represented England.

In 1980, Thornton's son, Richard, made the Olympic team that did not go to Moscow because of the United States boycott. However, eight swimmers from foreign countries upheld Cal's Olympic tradition. Swedish swimmers shined the brightest as Bengt Baron won the gold in the 100-meter back and Arvidsson won the gold in the 100-meter fly. Pelle Holmertz took the silver in the 100-meter free. Other Bear swimmers in the 1980 Moscow Games were Michael Soderlund, P.A. Magnusson and Thomas Lejdstrom from Sweden. Carter from England and Diego Quiroga from Ecuador.

In the 1984 Los Angeles Games, eight swimmers, four of whom captured medals, represented Cal. Matt Biondi, who had just completed his freshman year at Cal, was a member of the gold-medal winning 400-meter free relay team. Meanwhile, Cal teammate John Mykkanen captured silver in the 400-meter free. Baron and Thomas Lejdstrom were part of Sweden's 400-meter free relay team that took the bronze. Other Cal swimmers in Los Angeles included Dave Wilson (United States), a silver medalist in the 100-meter back, Soderlund (Sweden), Tommy Werner (Sweden) and Paul Kingsman (New Zealand).

The 1988 Olympics in Seoul, South Korea, proved to be successful for the Bears as well. Eight swimmers from Cal represented their homelands. None, however, were more successful than Biondi. Biondi entered the Olympics seeking to match Mark Spitz's 1972 seven gold-medal performance. Biondi did not achieve this goal, but his efforts will be forever remembered. Biondi captured gold in five events—the 50 and 100-meter free, the 400 and 800-meter free relays and the 400-meter medley relay. He also received a silver medal in the 100-meter butterfly and a bronze in the 200-meter free. Another Cal swimmer who won a medal in Seoul was Kingsman, taking a bronze in the 200-meter back. Other Cal swimmers in Seoul included Guy and Lee Concepcion (Philippines), Niko Lahanas (Greece), Steffan Persson, Soderlund and Werner (Sweden).

At the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona, Spain, the Bears produced the largest number of Olympic swimmers in the nation (13) coming from one school. In addition, six of the 13 athletes swam for the United States, the largest number in the school's history. In all, Cal swimmers captured a total of six medals. Biondi led the pack, earning three medals—a silver in the 50-meter free and two golds for the 400-meter free relay and the 400-meter medley relay. Biondi, with eight golds, two silvers, one bronze medal, tied swimmer Mark Spitz and shooter Carl Osborn for the American record of total Olympic medals won. Other Bear swimmers to bring home awards were U.S. team members Joel Thomas, who earned a gold as a member of the 400-meter free relay team, and Scott Jaffe, who earned a bronze as a member of the 800-meter free relay team. Swimming for Sweden, Werner won a silver medal in the 800-meter free relay. U.S. swimmer Ron Karnough also reached an individual final, placing sixth in the 200-meter individual medley.

At the 1996 Atlanta Olympics, nine athletes represented the Bears from seven different countries. A highlight for the University was Mark Henderson (1988-91) swimming the butterfly leg on the United States' gold-medal winning, world-record setting 400-meter medley relay (3:34.84). Bart Sikora also had a stellar Olympics, placing fourth in the 200-meter back, setting a Polish National record with a time of 2:00.05. Other Cal athletes at the Atlanta Olympics included Kizierowski (Poland), Sirisanont (Thailand), Sikora, Kozulj (Croatia), Dominik Galic (Croatia), George Giziotis (Greece), Par Lindstrom (Sweden) and Patrick Sagisi (Guam).
